ENCAMPMENT OF C. T. A. U.

NOW ENGROSSES THE ATTENTION OF TOTAL ABSTINENCE.

Temporary Organization Has Been Effected and Will Be Made Permanent—Simpson Church People Want Rev. H. C. McDermott Returned—Two Weddings Last Evening—Lent Services Begin Tomorrow—Events This Evening—Notes and Personals.

A movement which promises to become national in its scope has been inaugurated by the members of the local total abstinence societies and at present is developing with remarkable rapidity. It is the proposed annual military encampment of the uniformed corps of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union.

A temporary organization has been formed with Thomas Gilroy and T. P. Kearley as president and secretary, and another meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, February 18, to elect a permanent organization. It will be an independent regiment of total abstinence men, aside from their present societies, and already there is talk of it becoming a state organization.

It is expected that the necessary equipment for the encampment will be secured from the state authorities. The permanent organization will include representatives from every society in the Scranton Diocese Union. Among the societies already enlisted in the movement are the following:

Young Men's Father Mathew society, of Archbald; Father Whitty society, of North Scranton; St. Leo's Battalion and St. Paul's Pioneer corps, of West Scranton; Young Men's Drill corps, of Wilkes-Barre; St. Gabriel's society, of Hazleton; C. Whereas, During the period of one year last past it has been our privilege to have associated with us in Christian fellowship, as our pastor, a preacher strong and earnest, to whom we deem it a pleasure and profit to listen, a noble Christian gentleman, with whom our associations have been most pleasant; a father to whom our hearts go out in brotherly sympathy and affection. Therefore, be it Resolved, By this, the official board of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church of Scranton, in their last quarterly conference of the year assembled, that we express to the bishop and cabinet of the Wyoming conference by our beloved presiding elder, the Rev. Dr. Austin Griffin, our desire and request that the Rev. Hugh C. McDermott be returned to us as our pastor for the coming conference year that he may continue God's work in our midst.

A $1,000 PRIZE.

A prominent manufacturer has offered a prize of one thousand dollars for the best essay on preventive medicine, "believing that a proper exercise of preventive medicine is of incalculable benefit to the human race." The tendency of medical science is toward preventive measures. The best thought of the world is being given to prevent this to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of influenza (grip), and it has been observed that this remedy counteracts the tendency of these diseases toward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the great prevalence of colds and grip in recent years, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all druggists.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

C. P. Savage, the Republican Candidate for Borough Treasurer.

Short News Notes.

C. P. Savage, the candidate for borough treasurer on the Republican ticket, was born in Dunmore in 1864, and has continuously resided here ever since. At an early age he entered the employ of the Pennsylvania Coal company as telegraph operator, being promoted successively to the position of secretary and treasurer of Dunmore Gas and Water company, manager of Western Union system on Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad, assistant purchasing agent, and for many years was purchasing agent for the Pennsylvania Coal company, Erie and Wyoming Valley Railroad company and Dunmore Iron and Steel company, which position was held until the companies mentioned were absorbed by the Erie Railroad company and the purchasing office removed to New York.

In the various departments Mr. Savage served continuously twenty-two years. For several years he acted as borough clerk, where his thoroughness and painstaking efforts looking to the best interests of the borough were much in evidence. The experience of Mr. Savage has certainly been of an order that will make him an eminently proper custodian of the borough funds, and will assure the taxpayers that everything connected with the treasurer'ship of Dunmore borough will be conducted in a capable and business-like manner. Mr. Savage is conducting a clean and business-like campaign, and every indication points to his election to the position of treasurer of this borough on Tuesday next.

MASTER WILLIAM H. KOCH AS JOHN BULL.

Was a Prize Winner at the Recent Athletic Club's Mask Ball—Annual Event of the Scranton Saengerunde Last Night Was a Big Success—Mrs. Ellen King Acquitted of the Charge of Selling Liquor Without a License—Boy Kicked by a Mule—Other Notes.

At the Scranton Athletic club's mask ball, which took place a few days ago, prizes were offered for the best dressed couple and prizes were also put up for the most fantastic garb. Master William H. Koch, Jr., son of Register of Wills and Mrs. Koch, residing at 733 Cedar avenue, attended in the same of the dress is an exact counterpart of what the world-famous Britisher, shown in Puck, wears, and consists of a scarlet coat trimmed with silk and brass buttons, over a vest striped like the Union Jack. A silk hat and top boots are also part of the costume. As the picture shows a riding whip goes with the outfit. Master Koch is only 10 years old.

Ball Was a Big Success. Athletic hall was literally jammed to the doors last night with the members, wives, families and friends of the Scranton Saengerunde society, who had assembled for a carnival and social time.

The hall had been beautifully draped with bunting, in which the stars and stripes, and the German flag of red, white and black, were the most prominent. Inside the stage rail Bauer's full orchestra was stationed and their inspiring marches were a big factor in the fun making and jollity of the merry maskers.

Before 10 o'clock admittance to the dancing and refreshment pavilions was difficult, and so it continued until after midnight.

The costumes were brilliant and varied in make up, while the laughter provoking bobo was in evidence. Taken all in all the Saengerunde mask ball was one of the finest affairs of the season, and as a result a neat sum will be added to the treasury. The committee of arrangements was composed of Berthold Schott, Gustav Schultz, Jacob Hess, August Hagen, Edward Claus, Louis Haberstroh and John Schroeder.

Police Court Notes. Mrs. Ellen King, of 439 Genet street, was placed under arrest late Saturday night by Patrolman Zang, Holland and Sartor, on the charge of selling liquor without a license. The evidence given at a hearing before Magistrate Storr was deemed insufficient, however, and Mrs. King was discharged.

William Brennan was picked up by the police on Saturday night and after spending the evening in the station house was given a hearing on charges of being drunk and disorderly. Alderman Storr ordered him to pay $3 and costs, with the alternative of spending twenty days in jail. As he could not procure the necessary cash, he was sent up as a guest of Sheriff Schadt.

Kicked by a Mule. A 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bohr, who resides at Crown avenue and Maple street, met with a serious accident while at work yesterday. The boy is employed as driver at the Murray mines and was leading his mule to the barn after work, when the animal became fractious and reared up. He struck out viciously with both feet and caught the unfortunate boy on the head, knocking him senseless. Young Bohr was at once removed to his home and Dr. Walsh was summoned. An examination showed a nasty jagged wound over the eyes. Had the steel shod hoofs struck the boy an inch lower he would have been killed. A number of stitches were necessary to close the gash, and the sufferer was made as comfortable as possible.

An interesting meeting of the bowling club was held at their headquarters last evening, which was followed by a social session. A match game was also played between the first and second teams and arrangements were made for the regular league game, which takes place tomorrow night.
