

ROYAL Baking Powder is indispensable to the preparation of the finest cake, hot-breads, rolls and muffins.

Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy other powders because they are "cheap."

Housekeepers should stop and think. If such powders are lower priced, are they not inferior?

Is it economy to spoil your digestion to save a few pennies?

The "Royal Baker and Pastry Cook"—containing over 500 most practical and valuable cooking receipts—free to every patron. Send postal card with your full address.

Alum is used in some baking powders and in most of the so-called phosphate powders, because it is cheap, and makes a cheaper powder. But alum is a corrosive poison which, taken in food, acts injuriously upon the stomach, liver and kidneys.

INDUSTRIAL AND LABOR MEN AT THE TIMMES & HECHT MILL ORGANIZE.

They Did This With the Consent of Their Employers—Order of the D. L. & W. Company Concerning Vaccination Will Not Be Made General Unless It Should Be Found Necessary to do so—The Board for Today—Stationery Firemen to Meet at Nanticoke.

The employees of the Timmes & Hecht mill, located at the western end of Jackson street, sent a committee to their employers yesterday morning, asking their permission to organize a union among the seventy-five men employed in and around the mill. The proposition was accepted by the members of the firm, and shortly afterwards the men met and formed a temporary organization among themselves. The organization will be made permanent and an application will be made for a charter from the Iron Moulders' International union.

When asked concerning the organization, Mr. Timmes said the firm is in accord with the movement, and gave their consent to the formation of a union. He also stated that there had not been, neither is there any trouble existing between the firm and their employees.

Order Not General. The order issued by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, requiring all employees at the Avondale and Woodward collieries that they must be vaccinated before tomorrow, otherwise they will not be allowed to work, only applies to those two collieries which are located in Plymouth, where smallpox is prevalent.

If the epidemic becomes general in this city the order will in all probability be issued to include the collieries located in West Scranton and North Scranton.

This and That. The report of the national auditors of the United Mine Workers shows that on November 1 the organization had to its credit $80,194.36 in the Capital National bank at Indianapolis. Work is well under way on a large breaker for the Lehigh Valley Coal company, north of Mt. Carmel, to prepare the white and black colliers, the White & White mine, Hell's tunnel and eventually Mt. Carmel colliers. The San Francisco Examiner says the Mexican Anthracite Coal and Mining company, recently organized, expects to open anthracite mines in coal lands in the San Marcial valley, state of Sonora, Mexico, where a grant of 3,000,000 acres has been secured by Alvin Hayward, of San Francisco, and A. J. Uman, of Baltimore. On March 1 the Stationery Firemen's union will meet at Nanticoke, and notice has been sent out to all the subordinate unions in the state to that effect. At this convention the main object will be to take action on the eight hour question. In July last the firemen struck for eight hours a day, but returned to work after nearly four weeks of idleness, without success. It is now said that if the demand is made it will receive the support of the United Mine Workers' organization. At the former meeting the miners were not in sympathy with it. They returned to work twelve hours a day, and they want eight hours without a reduction in pay.

Theatrical. TODAY'S ATTRACTIONS. LYCEUM—"The Penitent." Night. ACADEMY—May Flake Comedy Company. Afternoon and night. STAR—New Night Owl. Afternoon and night. O'Neill in "Monte Cristo." In the elaborate revival of "Monte Cristo" presented at the Lyceum last night by James O'Neill, the great master of dramatic art, was the way of melodrama. O'Neill is a melodramatist; "Monte Cristo" is a melodrama without a peer, and Lillard & Co. in staging the production, have reached the limit of the possibilities of the art.

May Fiske at Academy. If May Fiske and her company had failed to please at the Academy last night there would have been a great many disappointed people in Scranton today. The evening's entertainment was a fine one. Fiske in "The Penitent" is a strong and noble character. She has a strong and noble character. She has a strong and noble character.

Night Owl Burlesques. The Night Owl Burlesques appeared at the Star yesterday afternoon and evening. While the Night Owls are a group of local comedians, they are a group of local comedians. They are a group of local comedians.

"The Penitent." An eminent critic of a Boston paper, in commenting on "The Penitent," W. E. Nankerville's successful dramatization of Hall Caine's powerful story says: "An attempt is made to revive 'The Penitent' in its original form. It is a play of the best kind of the Caine plays—'The Christian.'"

"Hamlet" and "Othello." The average person seldom realizes the amount of work embodied in the detail of making an opera. It is a work of art. It is a work of art. It is a work of art.

Brooklyn Concert Company. Miss Georgia Bentley, who comes to the Lyceum with the Brooklyn Grand Concert company next Friday night, is destined to become one of the world's greatest vocalists. Her brilliant playing and phenomenal technique enchant an audience to such an extent that the world is waiting for her.

How They Treat Paderewski in Europe. "Paderewski" began the amateur, "is engaged in producing his opera and concerting throughout Germany with his usual success. He is as sure of his public there as here. In point of fact, I am told that Dresden recognized and delighted in him long before he had become famous here."

A Quiet Wedding. Alderman Mr. Ruddy performed an odd wedding ceremony yesterday, when he married Robert Garbett, of Olyphant, and Miss Lucy A. Vankirk, of Reading, two deaf mutes. The ceremony was performed with the assistance of the teacher from the Oral school, who acted as interpreter.
