LINCOLN DAY EXERCISES.

Commemoration by Students of the Scranton High School. Exercises commemorative of Lincoln's birthday were conducted by the students of the High school yesterday morning.

Superintendent Howell had for his subject, "The Life and Character of Abraham Lincoln." He briefly sketched the career of the great emancipator, and pointed out how his every achievement was the consequence of labor and not due in any measure to chance.

Principal Joslin followed with a brief address on the significance of the day. Fred M. Gunster, president of the junior class, related some Lincoln anecdotes, and Miss Helen Hay recited, "My Captain." Patriotic songs were rendered by the students in chorus.

RECITAL AT BICYCLE CLUB.

Miss Umstead and Evan Williams Were the Artists. The piano recital given by Miss Mary Umstead last night at the Bicycle Club was attended by a large representative of the musical people of the city.

Great interest had been manifested in Miss Umstead's artistic success, as she has many friends in Scranton who have been anticipating a treat when she should make her first appearance here. The result was in the sense of a surprise, for she surpassed expectations by the breadth and brilliancy of her work.

Miss Umstead is a very attractive young lady and she plays with a virility which is seldom heard from a woman's fingers. She has all the power and the peculiar facility of wrist movement that characterize Aus der Ohe's execution.

After hearing so many recitals of the Leschitzky school, it is a little unusual to have an example so marked in its opposite tendency—as exemplified by a woman.

Evan Williams was suffering with a severe attack of laryngitis, but nevertheless he sang with much of his customary power and beauty of shading the rare Song Cycle of Elliland. This exquisite treasury of poems was familiar to some of the listeners from its rendition by Mr. Eaton two years ago at the home of Mrs. W. W. Scranton.

His second number was the new "Summer Time" another Song Cycle, the words by Langdon Ronald, in which the beautiful songs, "Daybreak," "Morning," "Evening" and "Night," followed each other. In the finale of "Good Night" he fell into the attitude of unconscious power, which his audience.

There are many roads. The Finger Posts Making the Many By-Paths of Present Day Troubles All Seem to Point the Same Way—Lack of Nerve Force.

Day by day the columns of this paper bring new evidence from Scranton people of the great work being done by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. Why they accomplish so much so easily explained—they are prepared with an eye single to restoring nerve force. They accomplish this object, which no other medicine in the world has ever been able to do. They give hundreds of Scranton people offer their testimony.

Mr. Samuel Rogers, of No. 128 Hyde Park avenue, Scranton, Pa., says: "I was in a run-down condition, head-ache, nervous and sleeping badly and the appetite poor. I was told of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and got a box. As a result I sleep and eat well again—the nervousness and headaches are gone and my general strength back again. I am very much pleased with them and glad to recommend them to others. This I can do conscientiously."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at $6 a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package. For sale in Scranton at Matthews' Bros., 320 Lackawanna avenue.

FEDERATION HAS BEEN ORGANIZED

Engineers, Firemen, Trainmen, Conductors and Telegraphers of All the Lines of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western System Now in One Organization.

The long-talked-of federation of the employees' organizations on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western system was finally perfected, yesterday, at a conference in the Arlington hotel, Binghamton.

The organizations comprising the federation are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Order of Railway Conductors, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Order of Railroad Telegraphers. The Switchmen's Union is the only organization not included.

The different organizations were represented at the conference by the chairman and secretary of the respective general committees. These representatives were made to compose the federated board. The board organized by electing as officers: Chairman, James E. Clarke, of Binghamton, chairman of the general committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; vice-chairman, A. F. Duffy, of Binghamton, chairman of the general committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; secretary, J. E. Schu, of Portway, N. Y., chairman of the general committee of the Order of Railway Telegraphers.

The question of federation had been discussed off and on for a number of years by the Lackawanna employees, but it was only within the past year or so that the project took definite shape. A meeting of the representatives of the bodies now in the federation was held in Scranton recently, and an agreement reached to form a federation. The concurrence of the national heads of the respective organizations was sought and secured, and, yesterday, saw the perfecting of the project.

The federation will work along the lines of similar bodies on other railroad systems. Each affiliated body has a general committee composed of delegates from the various local divisions. This committee meets periodically to deal with grievances presented by the local divisions. Any grievance, which, in the committee's opinion, has merit, is presented to the company for redress. Conservatism and reconciliation have always obtained with these committees and as a consequence there has never been any serious difficulty encountered in the conference with the company.

These general committees will not lose their identity in any measure by reason of the federation. They will continue to transact business as at present, the federated board interfering only when any general committee fails. In its relation to strikes the federated board tends to be an element of prevention. Heretofore a grievance went to the local division, then the general committee, then the national officers to be redressed. Now it must be dealt with by the federated board, also, before any extreme steps are taken to force its redress.

once has always welcomed with such enthusiasm, and rose to the climax with the swiftness of a comet. His listeners were insatiate and demanded more. He sang superbly, "Thou Art so Like a Flower," and "Memory," by Miss Parke, and the ever heart-breaking "All Through the Night," the music to the highest degree a strain of the purest and truest art as he sang it. Professor J. Alfred Pennington was the accompanist of the evening.

Miss Edith Jones, under whose management last night's concert was given, thanked the thanks and the congratulations of appreciative patrons for the pleasure afforded.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune does not assume responsibility for opinions here expressed.]

Says It Was Premature. Editor of the Tribune. Sir: In reference to the dispatch from Berlin to the effect of February 10 stating that Kaiser had intervened against Christian Science, permit me to say that this is somewhat premature, as a telegram from Mrs. Seal, Christian Science, to Berlin, to Mr. A. J. Foley, Boston, International chairman of the Christian Science publication committee, says: "The religious is debating. The emperor has held a conference. His position is undecided. The trouble seems to have been aroused by the widespread advertisement of healing methods by a German publication, 'Die Journal der Metaphysischen Heilmethoden.'"

This Metaphysical Journal is not a Christian Science publication, and its teachings are not those of the denomination. It is devoted to the propagation of unscientific healing methods for commercial purposes and makes no profession of advocating religion.

Christian Science, on the contrary, holds that its practice is not a business but a ministry, for while it cures disease, its primary work is to cure sin and destroy error. Albert E. Miller, Christian Science Publication Committee, Philadelphia, Feb. 11, 1902.

Letter from Insurgent Committee. Editor of the Tribune. Sir: In regard to the efforts made by Division 105 to settle the strike by sending three executive board members to interview General Manager Hillman for the purpose of submitting a proposition to him we would say that the proposition submitted was nearly identical to the ultimatum given to President Clark some time ago. It was, first, that all men be taken back; second, that railroad men be paid an average of 25 cents per hour for all overtime; third, that he sign a contract with the union that would make it compulsory for all men employed by the railway company to join the union within thirty days.

Now, kind reader, please note that the two men from Carbonate who were discharged were not reinstated. When one considers the position does it look as though their honest intention was to settle the strike or to keep the men together to probe the strike? We consider it nothing more than a great big bluff and will say right now that there never will be a settlement unless the men carefully consider that we did not go on strike for a matter of wages, therefore after the issue we struck for has been dropped entirely (which practically admits that we were not justified in our actions), we cannot be justified in asking for an increase of wages after being the cause of so much loss to the Scranton Railway company as well as placing the public to so much inconvenience and doing so much injury to the city's interest.

D. J. Pitman, Secretary Insurgent Committee.

REEVE'S EXPLANATION.

Says Setting of Hydrants Entailed Much Extra Work. Superintendent Robert Reeve, of the Scranton Gas and Water company, was in city hall yesterday, looking after the bill of $1,592.35 for setting hydrants on Lackawanna avenue, which was held up by the auditing committee and explained that the charge was so much higher than former charges for similar work because of the fact that the hydrants had to be placed on the side of the street opposite the water main, necessitating the digging of a ditch almost entirely across the street, and the laying of three or four times the ordinary amount of pipe required.

Chairman Vaughan, of the auditing committee, said that this explanation might account for some of the extra charge, but intimated that the bill will have to be very materially reduced before the committee will ever approve it. The bill did not meet with the approval of Director of Public Works Roche, who refused to sign it.

Two other bills presented by the company are being held up by the committee. These are for $240.48 and $92.79 for changing location of gas and water mains respectively, at the corner of Cedar avenue and Elm street, by reason of the sewer. The contention is that the company must change its mains at this corner wherever municipal improvements call for such a change.

BEGINNING OF LENT.

Ash Wednesday Observed in Catholic and Episcopal Churches Yesterday—Services Arranged for Lent.

Lent, the season of sackcloth and ashes, began yesterday, and will continue for forty days or until Easter Sunday, which falls on March 23 this year, an especially early date. Ash Wednesday, the first day in Lent, was observed yesterday with special services in the Catholic and Episcopal churches.

At St. Peter's cathedral there were masses at 6:30, 7 and 8 a. m. The last mass was solemnized by Rev. J. A. O'Reilly and during its progress the ashes were blessed by Rt. Rev. Bishop M. J. Hoban. Immediately after the mass the ashes were distributed by several of the clergymen, the sign of the cross being made with them on the foreheads of all persons presenting themselves at the altar rail.

The first of the special Lenten services was conducted in the cathedral last night and was attended by a congregation which literally packed the church from the altar rail to the door. Rev. J. A. O'Reilly preached a brief sermon in which he urged those present to mortify themselves in some respect during Lent. He counseled the parents to see that their children attended the devotions set apart for them and he counseled all to pray often and with the earnestness that comes from the heart.

There will be masses every week-day morning at the cathedral during Lent at the hours of 6:30, 7 and 8 o'clock. On Wednesday nights there will be a sermon and benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. On Friday afternoon the station of the cross will be observed in St. Thomas' College chapel for the children and on Friday nights in the cathedral for the adults. A special service for men will be conducted every Sunday night when a sermon will be preached.

The holy communion was celebrated at St. Luke's church yesterday morning at 7 o'clock and at 10:30 o'clock morning prayer was observed with a sermon by the rector, Rev. Dr. Rogers Israel, who also preached at a service conducted last night. The following calendar of Lenten services has been arranged for this church: Sundays—Holy communion (weekly), 7:30 a. m.; first, third and fifth Sundays, 10:30 a. m.; morning prayer and litany, 10:30 a. m., except second, fourth and sixth Sundays, 9:45 a. m.; evening prayer, 7:30 p. m.

Week days—Holy communion, Thursdays, 7:00 a. m.; "S. Matthias," 9:00 a. m.; "The Annunciation," 9:00 a. m.; morning prayer, 9:00 a. m.; evening prayer (except Wednesdays), 4:30 p. m.; lectures, Wednesdays, 7:45 a. m.; litany, 12:00 m.; organ recitals, Saturdays, 4:00 p. m.

Holy week—(In addition to other week-day services.) Holy communion (except Good Friday), 7:00 a. m. Good Friday—Services, 8:00 a. m. to 10:30 a. m., 12:00 p. m. to 3:00 p. m., and 7:45 p. m.

CAUGHT STEALING IRON.

Tom Burke Arrested by the Police Yesterday Afternoon. Tom Burke, of South Scranton, a well-known character in police circles, was caught stealing iron from the Allis-Chalmers company's yard, on Penn avenue, yesterday. He was spied by George Friend, one of the company's employes, who held him until the arrival of Patrolmen Conroy and Potter. Burke was intoxicated and it is supposed that he was stealing to get a few cents to buy more drink.

Meeting of Sunday School Superintendents of Lackawanna County.

There will be a meeting of the Sunday school superintendents of the county in the Young Men's Christian association parlors, Scranton, on Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. All superintendents, assistant superintendents and pastors are invited to attend. The meeting is held under the direction of the Lackawanna county Sunday School association.
