

GOING SHOPPING

Wall Paper, Mouldings, Picture Glass, Frames, Paints and Interior Decorating is our line, and we can honestly say that nowhere in Scranton can you find what we offer at so low a price and at the same time as well as at this store.

Jacobs & Fasold, 209 Washington Ave.

QUICK SILVER

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

Paying Dividends of 12% per annum, and there is sufficient on hand to continue dividends at this rate for the next five years, over and operating since 1855.

CHARLES D. SANDERSON, 136 Wyoming Ave., Scranton, Pa.

J. P. COULT, D. D. S., Surgeon Dentist.

119 WYOMING AVENUE, OVER THE GLOBE STORE.

City Notes.

BEGINS NEXT SATURDAY—The Saturday oration recital for Lent will begin at Saint Luke's, Saturday, Feb. 23, and not today.

CHURCH SERVICES—The ladies of the Penn Avenue Baptist church will serve one of their regular suppers in the church parlors Thursday evening, Feb. 20, from 6 to 8 o'clock.

DIAGRAM FOR PATERSON—The diagram for sale of reserved seats for the Patereson recital given at Powell's music store Monday morning next at 9 a. m. Tickets will be given out at 7:30 a. m., same morning.

WINDOW CURTAIN ABLAZE—The alarm turned in from Box 42, corner of Fifth avenue and Broadway, at 4:30 p. m. yesterday afternoon, was caused by a window curtain becoming ignited in a house on Railroad avenue, owned by ex-Alabama Kelly.

STRUCK BY AN ENGINE—Relatives of William Briggs, a former resident of West Scranton, received word yesterday afternoon that he was struck by an engine while at work in the Central Railroad of New Jersey shops at Ashley.

HE MADE NO EXCEPTION—In the quotation of H. Egan Williams in yesterday's Tribune, with reference to Mr. Pennington's accompaniment, the substitution of "yet" for "and," and the omission of "yet," made it appear that the accompaniments were all played to perfection with the exception of the "Elliott Cycle." What was said was that "with the exception of the Elliott Cycle Mr. Pennington had no practice on any of them (the accompaniments), yet they were played to perfection." The word "exception" refers therefore to "practice" and not to "perfection."

Richards & Wirth's Clearing Sale of all heavy weight clothing in the greatest bargain sale of the year.

$50.00 You Can Get Part of It

"Snow White Flour"

EVERYBODY TO KNOW IT

For either poor or costly descriptive of, or introducing "Snow White" flour, as to its wonderful bread making qualities—its purity—its strength—its whiteness—its softness—its uniformity of grade, etc., etc.

Table with columns for poetic or prose advertisement rank and price. Includes: For the best poetic or prose advertisement $15.00, For the second best poetic or prose advertisement 10.00, For the third best poetic or prose advertisement 5.00, For the fourth best poetic or prose advertisement 4.00, For the fifth best poetic or prose advertisement 3.00, For the sixth best poetic or prose advertisement 2.00, For the 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th and 17th, each 1.00.

Dickson Mill and Grain Co., No. 12, Lackawanna Ave., Scranton, Pa.

ANOTHER KIND OF CALENDAR

KOSH RECKONED BY THE GREGORIAN YEAR.

St. Michael's Day Didn't Fall on November 21 According to District Attorney Lewis' Calculations, but the District Attorney Calculated According to the Julian Calendar While Kosh Goes by the Other Kind—Street Car Striker Convicted—Other Court Notes.

The twelve days' difference in the Gregorian and Julian calendars figured prominently in the defense of an important case in criminal court yesterday.

Mike Kosh, a young Russian from the province of Galicia, in what is known as Red Russia, was on trial before Judge Kelly on the charge of placing obstructions on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tracks with intent to wreck a train.

The principal witness for the prosecution was Frank Jones, a switchman, testified that on Wednesday, November 29, 1901, at midnight, he saw the defendant place something on the track, about 180 feet north of the West Lackawanna avenue crossing.

He caught Kosh by the arm with the intention of arresting him, but Kosh's companions interfered and Jones let him go, with the intention of having him arrested later on a warrant.

ENTERED A DENIAL. Kosh admitted he passed the point in question on Monday at noon, but he and the four men who were with him denied that he placed anything on the tracks.

It was true, it would go a great way towards discrediting Jones' identification of Kosh. District Attorney Lewis recognized this fact and cast about for some way of contradicting it.

JENNINGS ON TRIAL. One of the street car strikers, James Jennings, of the Seventh ward, was committed before Judge Edwards for a three day detention on a charge of assault and battery on November 21.

He was committed to jail on the charge of assaulting and battering James Jennings, of the Seventh ward, was committed before Judge Edwards for a three day detention on a charge of assault and battery on November 21.

Closed Until March 12

Taking a necessary rest

S. H. TWINING, OPTICIAN

131 PENN AVENUE.

passed Jennings standing on the porch. He called them names and made threats. A long crowd gathered about the sidewalk, jeering and hissing.

He was found guilty. Jennings, his sister, and two other witnesses swore that Jennings was dancing in a square dance at the time of the trouble, and never left the hall for a moment while the trouble was on.

James Brock, of South Scranton, who has been in the penitentiary once and the county jail recently, for thieving, was convicted of stealing two chickens from Mrs. Brier.

SAID HE WAS DRUNK. Brock denied the charge and claimed he was on a drunk in Wilkes-Barre the night of December 10.

MONDAY, MARCH 24. John Simpson, merchant, Scranton. E. E. Biegel, baker, Scranton.

MONDAY, MARCH 31. G. C. Carpenter, farmer, Scott. William F. Maloy, miner, Carbonate. John J. Garbin, gentleman, Olyphant.

JURORS FOR COMMON PLEAS

DRAWN FOR THE TERM BEGINNING MARCH 17.

The Jury Commissioners and Sheriff Schadt Yesterday Drew Sixty Names from the Wheel for Each of the Three Weeks of the Term. Residents of Scranton Are Very Numerous on the List—William F. Hallstead One of the Jurors for the Second Week.

EXCEPTIONAL SUCCESS. Achieved by the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company During the Past Year.

- Monday, March 17. Philip Rinsland, assessor, Scranton. John Scamers, assessor, Scranton. Thomas J. Gammon, farmer, Covington.

MONDAY, MARCH 24. John Simpson, merchant, Scranton. E. E. Biegel, baker, Scranton. Olinor B. Lohrer, Olyphant.

MONDAY, MARCH 31. G. C. Carpenter, farmer, Scott. William F. Maloy, miner, Carbonate. John J. Garbin, gentleman, Olyphant.

A China Store

It is a fascinating place to enter, especially if the China Store is modern and up-to-date, carrying a full and varied stock of articles which beauty lovers delight in.

China Hall

Geo. V. Millar & Co., 134 Wyoming Avenue. Walk to east Look Arsenal.

We Clean and Sterilize Carpets and Rugs

Making them look fresh and new and destroying all moths. Carpets scoured without injury to color or texture.

Scranton Bedding Co., F. A. Kaiser

WHY NOT BUY A NEW HAT NOW? The Styles Are Settled and We Have Them. The Hawes and Stetsons have not arrived yet, but the difference is so slight that you can safely buy any of the other shapes now, and have a stylish hat for the season.

Chocolate creams, 18 cents per lb. Finest nut chocolates 25 cents per lb. Coursen.

SATURDAY BARGAINS Plat Val. And Point De Paris Laces. 5,000 yards of Fine Fluffy Laces and Insertions, all widths and sets to match, high grade goods, worth 12 1/2c to 20c. Special Price 9c.

Three Good Things to fashion the spring shirt-waist from. Silk Embroidered Tamise. Wash Silks. Meldrum, Scott & Co., 126 Wyoming Ave.

Mears & Hagen 415-417 Lackawanna Ave.

NOWHERE ELSE ON EARTH Can the Seeker After HEALTH AND HAPPINESS Find Such Rich Reward. CALIFORNIA IS A WINTER PARADISE.