PITTSTON.

'pecial to the Scranton Tribune Pittston, Feb. 14.-Mrs. Dr. E. B. Long, of Susquehanna avenue, received word this morning of the death, at Binghamton, N. Y., of Mrs. Eva King, her mother. Deceased was for many years a resident of this place and is widely known here. Her husband was of this place, a member of the firm of Howell & King, who conducted an ale brewery here The brewery still carries that firm's name, the executors of the King estate controlling the interests. Mrs. King was in her 71 year. Dr. and Mrs. Long went to Binghamton this afternoon, and will bring the remains to this place. The funeral will take place Monday afternoon from the Long residence. The common council, at its meeting last night, placed itself on record as being emphatically opposed to the action of the Anti-Saloon league in endeavoring to reduce the number of saloons and hotels in this city. The league figures there are entirely too many saloons here in proportion to the population, and it has therefore filed remonstrances against twenty-five places, including the three leading hotels. The common council feel that the city treasury needs the money that would necrue from the granting of licenses to these places, and it would be an awful shame to throw away this opportunity. The matter was brought before the council by the introduction of the following resolution by Attorney W. A. Gillespie, a member of the council:

Resolved, By the common council. city of Pitttston, select concurring, that we respectfully protest against the indiscriminate filing of remonstrances against the applicants for liquor li cense in the city of Pittston. Be it

Resolved. That a committee of counill be appointed by the chairman of the respective branches to urge upon the court, by petition or otherwise, the pressing need of the city for the revenue accruing from the granting of liquor licenses in said city by the court of quarter sessions.

The resolution passed easily. The refusal of licenses to these places would mean a loss of about $12,000 to the city. An ordinance increasing the salaries of the chief of police and patrolmen was passed on first and second reading.

The Pitttston Young Men's Christian association basket ball team was defeated at Williamsport last evening by the score of 25-5. They play at State college this evening.

The artists were Mme. Rosa Linde, contralto;
Miss Georgia Bentley, planiste; Frederick Carberry, tenor, and Paul C. Beebe, violincellist.

There were ten numbers on the programme but the audience was not half satisfied with these. Every number was encored and in several in-stances there were double encores. Mr. Carberry, the tenor seemed to please the audience best In addition to possessing a sweet, strong well con-trolled voice, he has just the proper modicum of dramatics, and best of all sang not what he liked but what he thought the audience would

Mme. Linde has a voice of rare sweetness and culture born of several seasons with Nordica and in leading parts in the grand operas. She too, was considerate of the fact that audiences are not made entirely of critics. Mr. Beebe, the celluist, was rather coldly received in his first numbers, but when he forsook frills and furbe ows for things that had a bit of tune in them his work was enthusiastically received.

The pianiste, Miss Bentley, was unfortunate having to use a piano that was pitched in the wrong key. The audience, however, encored her repeatedly. She refused to respond to an encore after her second number until the audience had called her out a third time.
