

WEST SCRANTON

ADDRESS TO THE YOUNG PEOPLE

DELIVERED BY REV. D. P. JONES AT TABERNACLE CHURCH.

The Church of God on Earth Is the Place Where Men and Women Should Start to Live in Public Life, and They Should Also Guard Their Health—Three Funerals Saturday. News of the Various Churches. Events of This Evening—Other News Notes and Personals.

Eight young people were received into membership at the Tabernacle Congregational church last evening, and at this service the pastor, Rev. D. P. Jones, took occasion to deliver an address to young people generally on the subject, "Be Strong." He spoke, in substance, as follows:

"I speak unto you, young people, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one, abide in the Lord. The church of God on earth is the place where men and women should start to live in public life. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all the things needed in life shall be added unto you."

Man honors himself when he takes to be a member of the Christian church. The body of man should be dedicated to the Lord and to His work as a holy temple, as soon as possible in life. The soul and the body of man are the objects of God's love in His great salvation to humanity; so we are to dedicate them to the Lord and to His church as soon as we can. Saint John says that he loved to talk to the young people of the churches in his time because they were strong.

The strength of the body should be of great value in the light of our young people at all times. I am glad to know that you are so strong and healthy in your bodies as young people that have in your minds to be members of the Church of Christ. In this place, which means that you can work for your living in this world, and at the same time that you are able to work for the Lord within His church.

The best life on earth has its battles at times, but the man that abideth in the Lord, will fight his battles victoriously. I don't mean to say to you, young people, that you will go through this world without enemies and temptation. But I say this to you, "Abide in the Lord," and upon the path of duty and you will overcome them.

The life that starts in the Church of God, as you are starting today, and abideth until death comes, that life will find itself safe in heaven hereafter. The crown of life is a victory over time and death. I trust that you have within your souls the life that will grow to such a strength that you may see death dead.

The sacraments of baptism were administered to twelve candidates at the morning service in the Jackson Street Baptist church yesterday. In the evening, Dr. de Gruchy spoke on "The Path of Human Life."

Rev. William Davis, pastor of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, preached in English yesterday morning and at the evening spoke in Welsh. Both services were largely attended.

At the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church last evening, Prof. James R. Hughes, of the High school that you have to overcome the habits of the ungodly, as well as to be strong in your bodies as well as in your characters. "Because the Word of God dwelleth in you."

The essentials of strength and power in soul and body are in the Word of God, in the teachings and in the graces of the gospel. Good character is the offspring of knowledge and grace which we find in the Word of God and in the Church of Christ. A Christian is a man that gives out in his life what the Bible teaches. Just as a good tree gives out flowers and fruits of the same kind as the tree itself is.

The Word of God should have a great place within your hearts as young people that have made up your minds to be Christians. The heart is the fountain of the stream of life; whatever may dwell in your hearts, it will work out into your doings; in the heart and in the will of man, the power of action lays. Your characters will be what your hearts may be.

Take care of everything that may have a tendency to keep you from the Word of God and from doing your duties to man and to your God. The devils of your hearts will make themselves known to the world in your action before man and in the sight of God. Keep your hearts clean by good reading, by constant prayer, by obedience to your parents and to what the Lord says in His holy word, "and ye have overcome the wicked one."

The first victory over the wicked one is to enter into the Church of God through the door which is Christ, our Helper, Saviour and Redeemer, from the wicked one, the great enemy of God, the wicked one, the devil, does not like to know that you are in the Church of God at this evening with the intention of having a place among the people of the Lord.
