They Are the Men Who Held Up George Lovelass, Near Bull's Head. Funerals of James Brace, of William Street, and W. A. Anderson, of North Main Avenue - Programme to Be Rendered in the Y. W. C. A. Parlors Tonight-Personals and Other Notes.

John Leon and Dominick Volpe, of Bull's Head, who attempted to rob George Lovelass, Friday night, were committed to the county jail, without bail, Saturday. George Lovelass teatlfled that while he was coming out of Ruddy's store, on North Main avenue the two men sprang at him and knocked him down. His cries for help were heard by Mrs. Hughes and her screams brought Dominick Ruddy to the scene. At this the men started to move away, but one of them turned and fired two shots at Ruddy, one of which vent through a panel of the store door, The sounds of the shots brought a number of citizens from Cerine's hotel who, with Patrolman Johler, gave

OBITUARY.

JAMES H. TIMLIN died at his home on Main street, Jermyn, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, peacefully passing away surrounded by his family and relatives. The deceased was stricken down just two months ago, his physician diagnosing his illness as Bright's disease. Other physicians were later consulted, but they held out little hope of his recovery. For the past two weeks he had at times been so low that it seemed impossible that he could survive long, but his vigorous constitution and recuperative powers enabled him to rally, giving his friends hope that he might be spared and regain a fair measure of health. Wednesday morning a change for the worse set in and he gradually sank until the end came.

Deceased was born in Ireland, fifty six years ago. Coming to this country when a young man, he resided in South Scranton for eleven years, and worked in the South Side steel mill. He was afterwards a traveling salesman, and for the past twenty years had been in the hotel business at Jermyn. He is survived by his wife and son, Hon, P. E., attorney and former member of the Sadie and Mary E., who have the sympathy of a large host of friends for the great loss they have sustained. He was a member of the Emmet club; A. O. H. Division No. 10, of Jermyn; C. M. E. A., of Archbald, besides several rethe Church of the Sacred Heart, of Jermyn, of which he was a member. He was held in high esteem in the community in which he lived. Prominent and active in politics, he was for years a member of the Democratic executive, county and legislative committees, and ily, he was a loyal and true worker. He was a man of big heart, generous, his fellow-men, by whom he was admired for his straightforwardness of character, sterling manhood and rugged nonesty. The funeral announcement will appear in temorrow's issue of The Tribune. Interment will be made in the family burial plot in St. Thomas' Catholic cemetery, Archbald.

JOHN HAYES, of 228 Pittiston avenue, died Saturday morning at his home, after a lingering illness of over a year. The deceased was 46 years old and during the Spanish-American war served as a musician in the Thirteenth regiment band. He contracted a severe old while at Augusta, Ga., which brought on the illness to which he finally succumbed. "Jack," as he was popularly called, was a boon companion and a loyal friend. He will be given a soldier's funeral by the members of the use of firearms. For some time past | General Gobin command, S. W. V., tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

ANTHONY KINBACK, one of the best known residents of Archbald, died at 6 o'clock last evening, after an illness of several weeks. He was born in Germany, sixty-four years ago. He settled in Archbald, where he engaged in the undertaking business until about fifteen years ago, when he retired. Mr. Kinback was a shrewd business man, and honorable and upright in all dealings. He is survived by a wife and the following children: Katie, Albert and Nicholas, of Archbald; John H., Anthony, ir., and William, of Peckville; and Frederick J., of Elizabeth, N. J.
