Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Whittemore entertained the members of the choir of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church at a Martha Washington reception at their home, 1410 Delaware street, Saturday evening. The costumes were varied and represented fittingly those worn in Washington's time. The evening was delightfully spent in social greetings, interspersed with music by Miss Becker, Miss Elizabeth Palmer. Miss Niemeyer, Miss Elsie Powell, and vocal selections by Miss Edith Martin, soloist of the chure

Refreshments were served at 10 o'clock by Mrs. Whittemore, assisted by Misses Zerfluh and Palmer. The guests left at a seasonable hour for their homes, with a keen appreciation of the kindly feeling that has existed between the host and hostess for the past six years that Mr. Whittemore has been the choir director. The members of the choir and guests that braved the inclement weather were: Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hawley. Mrs. Wint, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Uthman Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick, Mr and Mrs. J. C. Winke, Miss Edith Martin, Miss Clara Niemeyer, Miss Hattie Gunster, Miss Elsie Powell, Miss Salome Becker, Miss Elizabeth Palmer, Miss Jessie Cavell, Miss Gertrude Zerfluh, W. Hutton and F. Gunster.

A very quiet wedding occurred last evening in the parlor of Hotel Jermyn, just before the Paderewski recital. The happy couple were Fred E. Willson and Miss Daisy B., only daughter of Mr. George W. Hall. Both bride and groom are residents of this city, and are widely known in musical circles here and in other cities.

The groom is connected with the In ternational Correspondence School, and the bride is one of Scranton's accomplished young ladies. This marriage was the first wedding ever solemnized in Hotel Jermyn, and the occasion was graced by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Godfrey. It was a coincidence that Rev. David Spencer, D. D., of Blakely, who married the couple for whom was granted the first license ever issued in Lackawanna county, was the officiating clergyman to solemnize this first wedding in Hotel Jermyn. Mr. and Mrs. Willson will reside in this city, and their host of friends wish them a happy and prosperous life. The wedding ceremony was just over last when the world-renowned Paderewski himself passed the parlor on his way to his suite of rooms. The number of the license issued to Mr. and Mrs. Willson was 22,651, so since the first one was issued to Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Lowry a goodly host have followed their example.

RAIN MAY COME TO-DAY.

Weatherman Clarke Predicts Down pour-City Employes Cleaning Crosswalks and Sewers.

The rain which Weatherman Clarke thought would come yesterday didn't put in an appearance, but he promises that it will come today for sure, and issued a weather forecast to that effect. The lowering, black clouds and the warmer temperature which were in evidence last night would tend to confirm his theory.

There was a real, genuine thaw yesterday and the melting of the large quantity of snow which fell last week began in earnest. Superintendent Thomas, of the bureau of highways and sewers, had a force of sixty men at work in various parts of the city, cleaning crosswalks and blocked-up sewer basins and notifying propertyowners to keep their sidewalks and gutters clean. Nearly all the gutters in the central part of the city are now cleaned, affording a free way for the water from the street. There are a few property owners and tenants who have steadfastly refused to clean their gutters, and uness they do so today, summary action will be taken by Superintendent Thomas, acting under instructions from

Director of Public Works Roche There is nothing like a good thaw to reveal the deplorable condition in which many of the sidewalks in various parts of the city, especially in West Scranton, now are. On Chestnut street, for instance, from Lafayette street to a point about three hundred feet south edestrians are obliged to tramp ankle deep in slush in the middle of the road to avoid getting over their shoe-tops in water on the sidewalk. Director Roche is determined that these conditions shall be remedied just as soon as the ground thaws sufficiently to warrant the repair of the sidewalks.

If the rain comes today, there is every reason to believe that the Lackavanna river and the Roaring Brook will rise considerably, and to insure the safety of persons living along the river bank the director of public safety has arranged to have guards posted when the rain comes, to warn people if the river begins to rise At Olyphant, the Delaware and Hudson company is putting in a bank of culm along the river bank at Mills' field, to prevent a repetition of the serous floods of a few months ago.

MEANING OF WORD "SCAB." It Was Discussed at Hearing in the Kagler Case. A hearing in the case of George Kagler, secretary of the striking street ar employes, who is charged with disorderly conduct by Stephen Dyer, of the Scranton Rallway company, was conducted yesterday afternoon before Magistrate Howe and developed some highly interesting argument on the ofdiscussion on the meaning of the word 'scab" on the side

The disorderly conduct which Kagler s accused of having committed was the calling of "scab" at various times to certain employees of the railway ompany. These employees were called in large numbers and testified that on three different occasions Kagler had office and at the corner of Penn and Lackawanna avenues.

Attorney Clarence Ballentine, who ppeared for Kagler, persisted in asking each witness the question:

'Well, you are a scab, aren't you" Attorney C. P. O'Malley who appeared for the company, objected to the question every time and the magistrate sustained him. "I contend," said Mr. Ballentine, that the question is a proper one. These men are scabs. The word is a proper one. It is defined in the dietionary. Any man who takes a striker's place is a scab and it is no offense to call him by that name."

Mr. O'Malley contended that follow ing out this argument a man might eall another man a blankety-blankblank and that when he was arrested his attorney might say to the victim of the insult, "Well, you are a blanketyblank-blank, arn't you?"

No defense was offered. Mr. Ballen ine admitted all the evidence offered by the prosecution and even agreed to admit the testimony of certain witnesses not sworn when it was learned that they would merely corroborate the testimony of the others, Mr. Ballentine declared that Mr. Kagler's acts did not constitute disorderly conduct and read the act section by section to show that there had been no "loud boisterous or unseemly dis turbance," no "impeding of public traffic," no "unlawful public assemblage, etc., etc. The act was being prostituted to base uses by the company, he delared. Mr. O'Malley declared that the highr courts have ruled that the calling of constitutes disorderly con 'scab" duct and offered to show this in several ases. Magistrate Howe said he was inclined to agree with Mr. Ballentine but reserved decision in order to give Mr. O'Malley an opportunity to show the reports of the cases he referred to.

SEVENTEEN REMONSTRANCES ARE FILED.

Nine of Them Are Filed at the Instance of the Municipal League. Residents of Lincoln Heights Up in Arms Against the Four Applications from the New Settlement. Objections to An Applicant from Clark's Summit Because He Sold to People at the Poor House.

Seventeen remonstrances against the granting of liquor licenses were filed vesterday in Clerk of the Courts Daniels' office. Nine of them were filed at Factoryville, "The Deadly Experithe instance of the Municipal league. It was expected there would be remonstrances against the applications filed by parties seeking licenses for places whose licenses were recently revoked for illegal selling, but only two were forthcoming. As yesterday was the last day for remonstrances, there will not likely be any more forthcoming. Following is a list of the applicants remonstrated against: MICHAEL J. O'BOYLE, Blakely street, First ward, Dunmore. W. D. ROZENFELD, Olyphant,

TO HELP OUT THE HOME

School Board Contemplates a Bit of Charity Combined with Speculation-No. 18 School to Reopen.

At its last regular session for the 1901-02 fiscal year, the school board last night proceeded to be a bit charitable. A proposition came from Mr. Jayne that the school board follow the example of the city and reduce the tax on the Home for the Friendless' vacant building on Adams avenue, from a $6,600 basis to a $1,100 basis. Mr. Jennings objected to the form of the proposition, as it was tinged with the illegal procedure of exempting tax on real estate, but when the motion was changed to read that the collectors should take note of the reduced valuation, he withdrew his objection. The discussion brought to the front the great hardship the Home is enduring because of its inability to find a buyer for this property, and how the taxes are fairly eating it up.

President John Gibbons was quietly drinking it all in and thinking. When everybody had expressed regret at the Home's poverty and this unfortunate tax burden, Mr. Gibbons suggested that the property is a valuable one, centrally located and for sale cheap, and, if only as a matter of speculation, the board ought to buy it in. Mr. Jayne caught on to Mr. Gibbons idea and at once moved to have a committee of five appointed to consider the advisability of buying the property. The motion prevailed without opposition and President Gibbons appointed Messrs, Jayne, Jennings, Schriefer and Barker together with Mr. Welsh who is to be the member from the Ninth after tonight. It was agreed that this com-

If the board does not dispose of the property in five years, and wishes to give it up, it is and it reverts back to the Home. School district property, it is to be remembered, is not subject to taxation. The purchase of the lot north of No. 25 school for a playground was agreed to. Mr. Francois declined to vote. The price is $4,500. A motion was adopted to close the night schools March 11. No. 18 school, which has been closed because of the proximity of a smallpox case, is to be reopened today. No one not vaccinated will be admitted. The board adjourned to meet at 7.30 tonight for reorganization. President John Gibbons, Secretary E. D. Fellows and Solicitor David J. Reedy will be re-elected without opposition. The vacancy caused by the death of Patrick Golden is not to be filled for two weeks. The son of the deceased, Patrick Golden, jr., is likely to be ap pointed to the place.
