SCRANTON

E. C. W. BOYS STAR BOWLERS

MADE HIGHEST SCORE EVER ROLLED IN THE LEAGUE.

Defeated the Elks Three Games, with 466 Pins to Spare-"Beatty" Williams Made a Record of 574, with an Average of 191 1-3-Lecture on "Ben Hur" in Welsh Baptist Church-Funeral of Thomas Watkins - Several Sleighing Parties. Other Notes and Personals.

The games rolled by the Electric City Wheelmen's bowlers last night on their own alleys were the best ever rolled in the Northeastern Pennsylvania league, and places the team at the head of the league again.

Four 200 scores and over were rolled, "Beatty" Williams being high man with a single score of 213, and an average of 191 1-3 for the three games, Captain Wettling rolled 201 the first game, and 209 the second, making an average for the three games of 182. Sam McCracken had a 200 score the first game and an average of 178 1-3.

Barry Davis also rolled an excellent game, making a total of 523 pins, an average of 174 1-3, while Frank DePue rolled a total of 499, an average of 166 1-3. The team's total number of pins were 2,677, an average for the three games of 892 1-3.

Williams also made the highest individual total score yet made in the league games, and the team score beats the highest record yet made by 17 pins The Wheelmen's team is the youngest in the league, and out of the eighteen games played they have won twelve losing two to the Backus team, two to the Green Ridge Wheelmen and one to the Elks on the latter's alleys.

The Elks rolled a rather poor game last night, the best bowling being done Gschwindt, whose average was 159 1-3. Rhiel was second high man with an average of 155 1-3. Gunster, who rolled in Bartl's place, had an average of 125 2-3. Phillips, who usually rolls a strong game, had an average of 148 2-3. Madenspacher's average was

The Elks' total score was 2,209 for the three games, an average of 736 1-3. The visitors spoke in the highest terms of the Electric City Wheelmen's alleys, and say they are equal to any, and better than most in the city. The club boys are enthusiastic over the showing

Dufour's French Tar

Will promptly relieve and speedily cure coughs, colds and all lung trouble. For sale by G. W. JENKINS, 101 South Mair

February

Selling of

Muslin Underwear

Of All Things in This World

Don't Buy Muslin Underwear

Just Wherever You Happen to Be

Muslin Underwear prices as we now offer.

Long Skirts, 49c to $10.00

Short Skirts, 25c to $2.00

Corset Covers, 18c to $3.00

Gowns, 49c to $5.00

Chemise, 25c to $3.00

Drawers, 23c to $3.00

yourself and then judge.

Remember, Too,

The Infants' Wear

This sale of Muslin Underwear has set the town talking. Selling fine muslin things at the prices we ask for them is having its effect. Great values we think. You'd

There are little secret goodnesses about the reliable kind that it will pay to come here for. It was never clearer the extravagance of home-making in the light of such

We bought these at less than the usual cost, and sell them to you at a slight margin above what they cost us.

Prices on paper can't tell the story-see the goods for

There's everything here for the "autocrat of the breakfast table," Every mother wants to see her baby looking the best and she can find here the things to do it with. And there's special prices on Infants' Goods this

Globe Warehouse

think the same if you knew what these goods cost us.

made by the team. The tabulated score will be found in the bowling column,

A large party of West Scranton people journeyed to Peckville recently, where they were entertained at a hotel

In the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pedrick, Mrs. W Williams, Mrs. W. W. Evans, Mrs. Thomas Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Jones Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. S. Davis, Mrs. Stark, Mrs. Mary James, Misses Anna Lewis, Cora Watkins, Margaret Hughes, Tom Thomas, Oliver Jones and

Another party that went to Peckville were entertained at the home of Miss Ruth Whitehead. Among them were: Misses Elizabeth Davis, Elizabeth Jenkins, Emma Martin, Margaret Thomas, Edith Davis, Margaret Davis, Edith Jones, Lettie Morgan, May Jenkins, Ida Jones, Thomas Jenkins, John Jones, David Jones, George Hodges, Walter Heston, Mr. and Mrs. Evan

Enjoyable Surprise Party.

Mrs. Werkmaster, of Everett avenue, gave a surprise party at her home recently in honor of her brother, Anthony Krager. A large number of guests were entertained. The hostess was assisted in receiving and serving by Mrs. Krager and Miss Jenkins. Among those present were:

Louisa Hen, Gwennie Phillips, Sarah Douse, Alma Davis, Fannie Wagner, Anna Gleason, Mary James, Lena Johnson, Anna Walthers, Anna Whorle, Anna Bartosch, Howard Davis, James McCormick, Fred Tingler, Evan Davis, Abe Jenkins, Frank Bennett, Will Bennett, Arthur Henry, Jacob Hen, Forest Longworth, George Schuster, George Morton, Fred Krager, George Krager, Anthony Krager,

Sleighride to Olyphant.

The following party enjoyed a sleighide to Olyphant last evening: Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. Richard B. Evans, Misses Ida Lewis, Frances Roberts, Mamie Williams, Ethel Thomas, Flossy de Gruchy, Gwennie Roberts, Grace Roderick, Ethel Wagstaff, Bessie Thomas, Stella Morgan, Marjory Harris, Gertrude Seaman, Irene Harris, May Crook, Freida Lewis, Stella Seaman, Grace Harris, Jennie Reese, Messrs, David Evans, John Scholl, Earl Lewis, Frank Williams, Arthur Williams, Willard Thomas, David Williams, Roy Laman, Stewart Lewis.

Calvin Coons, a well-known member of the Electric City Wheelmen and Bachelors' club, left last evening for it the station to bid him farewell.

Recent Sleighing Parties.

during the storm which overtook them.

Howell Howells,

Misses Bertha Whorle, Lillian Gennal,

Left for Colorado.

Colorado on the 6.45 o'clock Lackawan-A large number of his friends were Funeral of James Watkins. Rev. H. C. McDermott, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, conducted the funeral services over the emains of the late James T. Watkins yesterday afternoon. A large delegation from the Electric City commandery, No. 177, Knights of Malta, and Panooka Tribe, No. 141, Improved Order of Red Men, attended the services.

The obsequies were held at the family

1825 Lafayette street, where many friends and relatives of deceased gathered. The Simpson male quartette, Messrs, Jones, Acker, Wrigley and Abrams, rendered a number of selections, Interment was made in the Cambria

The pall-bearers were W. J. Hughes and John Godfrey, from the Knights of Mafta; John Richards, Hugh Williams, H. J. Harris and William Williams,

Lecture by Dr. Pierce.

The lecture which was given last evening in the First Welsh Bantist church, South Main avenue, by Rev Robert F. Y. Pierce, pastor of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, was attended by a large audience.

The lecture was given under the aus pices of the Men's league of the church and the topic of the lecture was "Ben Hur," written by Lew Wallace. story, as illustrated by moving pic-tures, was thoroughly enjoyed by all, and was especially interesting to most readers who are familiar with the work

Simpson Church Notes.

At a special subscription taken a the Sunday services, over $600 was pledged towards liquidating the debt

Miss Ethel McDermott, daughter of the pastor, who recently came here from Oneonta, N. Y., has consented to act as planist at the meetings of the Epworth Lengue.

The City Union of Epworth Leagues will meet this evening in the Cedar avenue Methodist Episcopal church, and will attend are requested to meet in the church at 7 o'clock.

The regular weekly prayer meeting will be held in the lecture room tomorrow evening.

League will be tendered a reception on Thursday evening. The young Ladies' Auxiliary to the Women's Foreign Missionary society will meet next Friday evening at the of Miss Alta Kresge, on North

Events of This Evening. The regular rehearsal of the Ladies

Hyde Park avenue

hoir will be held in the Plymouth Congregational church this evening. The Park Hill Sewing Circle will meet at the home of Miss Celia O'Boyle this evening The William Connell Glee club will hold a regular meeting this evening in Ivorite hall. Members are requested to

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Born-To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Price of 538 Decker's court, a son. Joseph McAndrew, of Tripp Park, who had his back broken some time ago, is now able to sit up, and his recovery is assured.

Philip Schnell, the West Lackawanna avenue hotel keeper, had the German flag hoisted on his flag pole yesterday in honor of Prince Henry's arrival. The stars and stripes were also there above the German flag.

Benjamin Switzer, of North Sumne avenue, employed as a fireman on the Lackawanna railroad, was severely scalded while at work recently by a steam valve bursting.

William Owens, an employe of the Lackawanna machine shops, was

The Christian Endeavor society of the Washburn street Presbyterian church will conduct a social in the church parlors next Thursday evening. The Mt. Pleasant kindergarten will e re-opened tomorrow.

The Robert Morris Cambro-American society will hold a meeting Thursday evening to arrange for their annual St. David's day celebration.

The Royal Crusaders will meet at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening in the basement of the First Welsh Congregational

The arrangements under way for the annual banquet and entertainment at the Tabernacle Congregational church on St. David's day, March 1, insure the usual standard of excellence maintained at this event, and all who attend will get their money's worth.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mrs. William H. Hagen, of North Sumner avenue, is confined to her home by illness. Miss Ada M. Lambert, of Frink street, had her foot injured while skating recently. Miss Clara Waller, of Fairview avenue, has returned home from a visit with friends in Bloomsburg. Tudor R. Williams, of South Main avenue, who is home from Cornell, underwent an operation on his foot yesterday and will be unable to resume his jury. studies for a few days. Mrs, Patrick Crossin, of North Lincoln avenue, sustained severe injuries by falling on the icy pavement a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Davis, who ago, have returned home, and will reside in the central city. Prof. George Howell, of Washburn street and Bromley avenue, is attending a convention in Chicago. Mrs. John McAndrew, of Swetland street, is recovering from an attack of rheumatism. Walter Jones, of the West Side bank has returned home from a few days' visit with his brother Oscar, at the Bloomsburg state normal school. Mrs. Morgan Evans, of 1216 Academy

Mrs. John Randolph, of South Hyde Park avenue, underwent an operation yesterday, and is improving slowly. Miss Freida Jones, daughter of Druggist and Mrs. David M. Jones, of South Main avenue, has recovered from an attack of diphtheria.

street, has recovered from a week's ill-

DUNMORE.

The election for chief of the fire departme in the election of J. T. O'Neil, of the J. B. Smith company. There were 286 votes cast against 263 last year when Mr. O'Neil was deated by one vote. The vote was: O'Neil, 12c evan, 122; Purcell, 6. The officers of election Judge, A. C. Haggerty; inspectors, Harry and M. H. Dempsey; clerks, Frank Fuhr The Junior Endeavor society of the Presbyerian church will give an entertainment in the hurch parloss on Tuesday evening, February 25,

A GREAT SURPRISE

atore for all who use Kemp's Balsam for the Recitation, "What Was the Secret!

tecitation, "The Hard to Please", Julia Mowery Recitation, "Who Was It?" ...... Anna Allan Tableau, George Washington in the Cradle, Recitation, "The Poolish Maiden's New

Tableau-The Cherry Tree Episode. Recitation, "The Boy Who Could Not Lie," Ruby Cooke

Recitation, "The Song of Brother William, Duct, Selected Sallie Chamberlain and Eleanor McKane Recitation, "Two Little Girls" ... Emma Krotzer Recitation, "Wanted a Wife" ... Edna Protheroe

Tableau-Washington's Wooing. Recitation, "Winkum, Blinkum and Nod," Recitation, "John Henry Jones" ... Freddie Haut "Good Night Drill" ... Eight Little Girls Recitation, "Boyless Town" ... Florence Haut Recitation, "Like Washington" ... Earle Moffatt

Tableau-Peace. The revival meeting at the Tripp Avenue Christian church continues with increased interest. Notwithstanding the inclement weather of the week there has been excellent audiences and many conversions. The audience was very much interested in the topic last night, "The Faith That Saves." The question for tonight is "The Greatest Sermon Ever Preached." at the close of which the rite of baptism will be administered. There will be special services tomorrow night, when the admittance will be by tickets,

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES

August F. Schneider Tendered Reception in Athletic Hall Last Night-Other News Notes.

A most enjoyable affair took place last evening in Athletic hall when all members of Simpson chapter who party of prominent residents gathered in honor of August F. Schneider, junior member of the Schneider Bros.' hardwas firm and a life long resident of this side. The merrymakers gathered about 9 o'clock and a message was sent The new members of the Epworth for Mr. Schneider to come at once and mend a leak in one of the pipes. He repaired to the hall at once, his mind full of business and great was his astonishment when a bevy of female acquaintances who were masked grabbed him and led a merry dance around the hall. The truth soon dawned upon him and he admitted the surprize was complete.

Refreshments were then in order and after a dainty lunch had been served several jolly hours were spent in danc ing and social converse.

Brief News Notes.

Musician John Hayes, who died on Saturday after a long illness, will be laid at rest with full military honors this morning. General Gobin command of Spanish War Veterans to which he belonged will have charge of the obsequies and the pall bearers will be chosen from their ranks. The will be closed to view at body 8.45 and all comrades are requested to be present at the residence, 328 Pittston avenue by that time. Services will be held in St. Peter's Cathedral and interment will be made in the Cathedral cemetery.

A regular weekly session of the South Side Bowling club was held on Zulager's alley last evening and there was a large attendance. After a business meeting a match was arranged between the first and second teams which was closely contested throughout. Comet Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will meet in weekly session this even-

Dr. Schley's Lung Healing Balsam burned while at work recently but not is guaranteed to cure all coughs. "No cure; no pay." For sale by all dealers.** A special meeting of St. Mary's Glee and Dramatic association was held in St. Mary's hall last evening. Mid week services will be held in the Hickory street Presbyterian church tomorrow night.

NORTH SCRANTON NEWS.

Young Boy in a Runaway-Colonial Party Given Last Night-Other News Notes.

Ray, the fourteen-year-old son of William Simms, of West Market street, had an exciting experience while driving along Putnam street yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Young Simms had been on Putnam street, delivering some goods with his father's horse and sleigh, when the horse became frightened and started at a maddened pace down Wayne avenue. The plucky young lad stuck to the reins until the horse turned the corner at West Market street. He was thrown from the sleigh to the ground, but still clung to the reins and finally stopped the horse on Market street, near the square, after having been dragged quite a distance. He was not injured, but badly shaken up. The horse and sleigh escaped without in-

Colonial Party.

A very enjoyable time was spent at the Colonial party which was held in the parlors of the Young Women's Christian association rooms of North were married in New York a few days | Main avenue, last evening. The auditorium in which the entertainment was held was elaborately decorated with the national colors. Many of those present were dressed in colonial costumes.

The following programme was ren dered: Piano selection, Miss Laura Gabriel; recitation, Miss Ruth Whyte; duet, Misses Tiril and Anna Reese recitation, Miss Elizabeth Jones; violin solo, Miss Marian Hill; duet, Misser May Jones and Jane Williams; dia logue, Misses Bertha Whyte and Esther Mackie; piano selection, Miss Laura Gabriel; conductor, Mrs. J. B. Pierce,

News Notes.

Anthony Patribus was arraigned be fore Alderman Meyers yesterday for being disorderly and fighting on a charge preferred by Harry Chappel. Patribus, it is alleged, on Saturday evening entered Chappel's hotel in an intoxicated condition, and in a short while began fighting with some one in the place, breaking a large pane of glass. Alderman Meyers fined him $5 and in default thereof committed him to the county jail for twenty days,

Martin and Anthony Gravel, on complaint of Dominick Strogus, were fined $10 by Magistrate Fidler yesterday for breaking the furniture at the latter's home The Sunday school of the Memorial Baptist church will have the final rehearsal of their Easter exercises Friday evening. The Lithuanian club will meet this evening in the basement of their church.

'The Women's bible class of the Mem orial church taught by Mrs. Annie F

Davis, will not meet this week on ac-Personals.

David Games, of Warren street, has returned from a short visit with friends G. L. Gurney, of Carbondale, district deputy of W. O. W., was in town yes-Lilian, daughter of Dr. Jenkins, of in Jermyn.

Olyphant, called on friends yesterday. Ruth Hughes, of Peckville, is spending a few days with friends on Wayne avenue.

PARK PLACE.

Mr. Harry Francis, of Kingston, pent Sunday with J. S. Pritchard, of 325 Court street. Mrs. George Treverton is ill at her ome on North Main avenue. The George Washington birthday entertainment held at the Court Street M. E. church was an enjoyable affair and was well patronized.

Joseph Archer has purchased a new

GREEN RIDGE.

offed oliver Phone, 53-4. New 'phone, 927.

PECKVILLE. Great excitement prevails in Jessup at the present time. A case of supposed smallpox has been discovered in the home of Charles Sheridan, the victim being Frank Sheridan, the 19-year-old son of Mr. Sheridan. Dr. Smythe, Dr. Grover and Dr. Van Doren were called yesterday, and agree that the young man has all the symptoms of smallpox. The Jessup board of health has been notified, and no doubt a strict quarantine will be enforced today. Dr. Smythe, the attending physician, stated last evening that it would be known today for a certainty whether it was a genuine case of smallpox or not. Messrs. Charles Brong and William Hughes are confined to their homes by Frank Callender is spending a few days with Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Guest, of Worcester, N. Y.

There will be a regular meeting of the Wilson Fire company at their rooms this evening. Harry Clark has resigned his position as driver for the Wilson Fire company and has accepted a position as teamster

for the Consumers' Powder company

William Warfield is driving for the William Vaughan was in Hyde Park yesterday, attending the funeral of a Charles Wallick has recovered from C. E. Laning, Mrs. C. W. Stevens and his illness, and has again resumed his Mr. J. F. Wardle of Scranton and Mrs.

OLYPHANT

labors as coal inspector.

A special meeting of the Rebekah degree staff will be held in their rooms, in Sweeney's hall, this evening. All members are requested to attend.

Councilman John Pettigrew, of Blakehas gone to the Lackawanna hospital, at Scranton, to receive treatment for inflammation of the eyes. Miss Agnes Hull gave a delightful sleighing party to the members of the physical culture class on Saturday. The class went as far as Archbald and re

The employes of No. 2 and Eddy Creek collieries were paid yesterday.

Miss Mary Ward, of Avoca, is visiting relatives here. Rev. P. J. Murphy left yesterday to spend the week at Dansville, N. Y. Miss Mary Rogan spent yesterday at Rev. Dr. Spencer, of Blakely, attended the ministers' conference held in the Penn Avenue Baptist church, at Scranton, yesterday.

Miss Deborah Powell, of Carbondale, spent Sunday with her father, on Bell Mrs. David P. Reese, of Providence,

When Joyce Cuts a Figure The Cut Is Deep

He believes in the adage that "things done by halves are never done right."

For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

Joyce's Best XXXX Flonr $3.95 a Barrel.

Sugar Cured Hams, 103-4c a pound.

Fresh Bread 3c a Loaf, Regular Five Cent Size.

The ()Joyce Stores() Popular Priced Provisions

was the guest of Mrs. Letitia Rees over Sunday. James O'Malley, of Dunmore street who has been seriously ill, is slow! improving.

ELMHURST.

The little daughter of Mrs. Bertha Tolemie is suffering with scarlet fever Dr. Knedler attends her. Mrs. Byron Buckingham entertained the following ladies and gentlemen at let. her home on Friday last: Mr. and Mrs

F. T. Pelton of Moscow. Mr. O. E. Kizer, of Dunmore, and Miss Bertha Wall of Factoryville visited friends here on Sunday afternoon Rev. G. H. Cole is visiting friends as Clark's Green.

Louis Humiston entertained hi young friends at a party on Friday evening given at his home in honor of his twentieth birthday. A very enjoy able evening was spent. Miss Anna Jenny, of Scranton, i spending some time with her parents Mr. F. B. Williams, of New Haven 'onn., is looking after his propert; Mr. J. M. Rhodes has returned hom-

AVOCA.

The death of James Clark which occurred yes nto Bright's disease. Deceased was born in liv-and fifty-six years ago, coming to Scranto nen he was but a boy and afterwards removin o Acoca. He was a charter members of the atholic Mutual Benefit association and the Ascient Order of Hibernian societies. Miz. Thomas Haston, Frank, Nellie, Kate, Anna, William, James, Jennie, Newman, Hortense, Mrs. Theo-

AMUSEMENTS,

Lyceum Theatre M. REIS, Lessee and Manager, A. J. DUFFY, Business Manager.

Tursday Night Only, Feb. 25. Louis Clara
MANN. LIPMAN.
In the funniest of their funny hits,

All on Account of Eliza

Prices-$1.50, $1.00, 75c., 50c. and 25c Seats on sale Saturday, February 22. Wadnesday, February 26. The Talented Young Comedian, Andrew Mack

IN HIS NEW PLAY, TOM MOORE

Special Matinee at 2:15.

Seats on sale Monday. Academy of Music

ALL THE WEEK. Maud Hillman

Playing the best of the higher class plays Monday Night, "REAPING THE WHIRLWIND," Matinees daily, commencing Tuesday,

Prices, 10, 20, 30 cents. Matinee, 10 and 20 cents. STAR THEATRE

ALF. G. HERRINGTON, Manager.

'Bon-Ton Burlesquers' Matinee every day.

HOTELS-ATLANTIC CITY. Hotel Chelsea

Atlantic City, N. J. Now Open. 300 Ocean front rooms. 100 private sea water baths. Send for book

Wilkes-Barro, are sisters; Mrs. Daley and Miss Kate Clarke, of Old Forge, are half-staters. The funeral is not yet announced There will be a special meeting of the Catholic Mutual Benefit association this evening to make net of the Sons of St. George at Ferest City last Coroner Berge has so far recovered as to spent Senday with his parents on Spring street.

Michael Buckley left yesterday to undergo an

The third child of Mr. and Mrs. James Burns, of York avenue, died yesterday morning of diphtheria. The hones is closely quarantined and the family are in need of assistance. Some neighbors, it is said, will solicit aid for then in a few days.

Mrs. Michael Lavelle, of Hill atreet, is seri

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets