THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1902.

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Honesdale, Feb. 25.-New maple syrup has not as yet appeared in the Honesdale markets.

Candidates for state senator are booming up from all quarters of Wayne county. The Republicans will present the names of H. N. Farley, of Equinunk; Riefler, of Tanners Falls and Cook, of Hawley. The Democrats are ex-Judge Joel G. Hill, W. N. Nelson, and more to hear from.

Major Charles P. Clark, Brigade In-spector, Captain D. B. Atherton, and

Captain Frank Vandling, held the inspection of Company E in the armory last night. Major G. H. Whitney entertained the inspection officers and the officers of Company E, after the inspection. There were also present Chaplain William H. Swift, Captain Murphy, of Company C and D. C. Osborne, former ry Sneidman, Thomas Morgans, of tion. There were also present Chaplain captain of Company E. Scranton, and Glen Hollister and Gar-

The funeral of Charles E. Mills will be held at his late residence Wednesday at 1.30 p. m. and will be in charge of Rev. William H. Swift of the Preswere served. byterian church.

Mrs. Anna M. Lee, aged 74 years, died Sunday at midnight at the residence of her son, William H. Lee, on East street, where she has made her home since the death of her husband in 1890. She had been in feeble health for long time. Funcral services will be held at her late home Wednesday at 2.30 p. m., Revs, C. L. Percy and William H. Swift officiating. Mrs. Lee was a member of the Honesdale Bap-tist church. Deceased is survived by five daughters and four sons.

Manager W. J. Silverstone has been spending several days in Newark and New York city on opera house business. A jolly company of Odd Fellows assembled in Freedom hall Monday eve ning: They were there to enjoy a smoker given by Mr. A. C. Lindsey in commemoration of his tenth anniverary as an Odd Fellow. He also gave in address on the progress of Odd Fellowship during the past ten years, presenting interesting figures and statements. A pleasing programme was rendered consisting of several selec-tions by male quartette, coronet solos, piano solo, etc The surprise of the vening was in the hands of Mr. George P. Ress, who in a well prepared speech full of wit and humor, presented Mr. A C. Lindsay with a beautiful gold ring bearing the emblems of the order giv-en by the members in appreciation of faithful services as treasurer for many years. After Mr, Lindsay had recovered from the surprise, which was complete one, he thanked the doners in well chosen words. The after speeches by those present were many and were bright and crisp, full of good cheer. The whole affair was a most enjoyable one.

song service, conducted by Prof. J. A. Sophia, of Susquehanna. Rev. C. A. Spaulding made the address of welcome, and Rev. H. J. Crane, of Uniondale, responded. F. A. Davis, of Clif-ford, read a paper on "How to Superintend a School," and C. P. Tobey talked on "Successful Teachers." The rest of the morning session was taken up with business. E. E. Wells, of Dundaff, conducted the praise service which began the afternoon session. Prof. Sophia told of "Successful Meth ods in the Musical Department," and Rev. Charles Newell spoke on "How to Bring a Scholar to Christ." Mrs. R. L. Clark and her class gave an interesting illustration of "An Hour's Work in the Kindergarten."

Rev. C. H. Newing, A. M., B. D., of Dummore, gave an address in the evening on "The One Thing Needful," which was an aspiring effort.
