The tickets will be printed today and will be placed on sale tomorrow by nembers of the committee. The general admission will be one dollar, for gentleman and ladies, and it is expected the event will be the leading social vent of the season in West Scranton.

A Brave Young Hero.

Master Ralph Williams, of 207 South Hyde Park avenue, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Williams, proved himself a hero recently by rescuing his companion from drowning. The latter was Robert, the 10-year-old son of Mrs. Daniel I. Phillips, of South Hyde

The boys had gone down to the river bank below the gas house, and were threwing stones into the water, when suddenly the earth under young Phillips' feet gave way and he fell into the Young Williams stationed himself on a stone and when the Phillips boy came up the first time, Ralph grabbed him. Owing to his own perilous position, Williams could not pull Phillips out of the water.

Several other boys grasped hands and formed a human chain, and in that way Williams and Phillips were drawn to a point of safety.

An Appeal for Aid.

The officers and members of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church Bible school have issued the following appeal for aid:

To the Members and Friends of Our Rible School We wish to put to the test our adopted motto for this year, "Forward." Our lines have indeed fallen into pleasant places under very favorable ircumstances

Our church is very much in need of repainting and having so freely received, we ought to b willing to give. For this purpose we are dis tributing tithe gleaners that hold only dimes. They are to be returned on Easter Sabbath. We are also distributing envelopes for the us of those who do not have one of the gleaners we ask that you take one and use it. It is ou desire that each person shall help, it is the old story, "Little drops of water, little grains of sand." Each doing just a little will accomplish We trust that this effort will appeal to you in he same spirit in which it is made-"Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one, our comforts and To our friends we extend a cordial invitation to our Bible school sessions. Yours in work, Cases Heard Before Alderman Lentes. Annual Meeting of Hickory Street Congregation.

Alderman Lentes had a rush of busiess yesterday. The first case was one of aggravated assault and battery, the charge being preferred by John J. Myers, against Mrs. Bridget Fallon. Ac cording to the prosecutor's statement, Mrs. Fallon, who resides at 1034 Stone avenue, was bringing beer into th house when Myers, who lives in the adjoining residence, objected. In th mix-up that followed Myers was struck on the head with a beer glass, which at the time was in the fist of Mrs. Fallon. The evidence was sufficient in the case and the defendant was held for court in the sum of $500. A counter suit at once followed the nearing, when Mrs. Fallon swore to information against Myers for assault and threats. She showed by witnesses that Myers wielded a large butcher knife during the melee, and also exhibited several wounds to the court which, she alleged, were caused by th weapon in the hands of the defendant Myers was also held for court in $50

Mrs. Allen Carey was arraigned on charge of selling liquor without a li cense and selling to minors. The defendant lives a few doors from the Myers and Fallons, and the charges, in a way, were an outgrowth of the aforementioned troubles.
