

WEST SCRANTON

FATHER FOUND FOR EMIGRANTS

CHARLES JENKINS LOCATED IN PECKVILLE.

Read in The Tribune About the Predication His Sons Were in, and Came Down and Met Them—Evangelist Wells at the First Baptist Church—Hallucination of a Dickson City Man—Funeral of a Child, Jackson Street Baptist Notes—Other Matters of Interest.

Through the publication in The Tribune yesterday of the predication of John and Charles Jenkins, recent arrivals from Wales, their father, whom they had not heard from in six years, was located in Peckville.

Yesterday morning he read in The Tribune of his sons' arrival here and immediately telephoned to police headquarters in this city and the officers in charge referred the matter to B. G. Morgan, the steamship agent, who was instrumental together with D. D. Evans, in bringing the young men to this city.

Later in the day, Mr. Jenkins came down from Peckville and called on Mr. Morgan, who acquainted him with the whereabouts of his sons.

Father and sons met in a matter-of-fact sort of way, and after greetings were exchanged, the elder Jenkins invited his boys to visit him at Peckville, where he is employed in the mines.

Mr. Morgan sought employment for them with District Superintendent Thomas of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and in all probability places will be found for them in the mines.

The father offered no explanation as to why he had not communicated with his family during the past six years.

Strange Hallucination.

Peter Rutledge, of Dickson City, came to town Thursday afternoon, and by the time he was ready to start for home had a fair-sized cargo of drink aboard. Instead of going north he started south.

At 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning Patrolman James Thomas found him digging holes in the snow on North Main avenue, and sympathizing with him in his befuddled condition, took him to the station house, where he warned his feet.

He was still under the impression that he was in "Chief" Albert Henne's

Dufour's French Tar
Will promptly relieve and speedily cure coughs, colds and all lung trouble. For sale by G. W. JENKINS, 101 South Main avenue.

Great Offerings of Table Linen and Napery

We have cut slices from the prices of Table Linens and Muslins simply because we want to sell them now. The only regret in this offering is the temporary paralysis it will give to the local retail linen business. But neither you nor we are responsible for that. Ours to bring such chances. Yours to avail of them.

See the Bargains At Our Linen Sale

It is said that a word spoken in one ear oftentimes goes out at the other, but what enters the eye stays there. Therefore look. In staple and practical things the best sorts are here. And in prices the advantage of the reductions goes to the customer.

Table Linens, Towels, Napkins, Towelings, Cloths, Muslins, Bedspreads, Ready-Made Sheets and Pillow Cases.

Get a Glimpse of the Spring Cloaks and Suits

The New Suits are here in exquisitely tailored effects. Chic and dainty examples of originality, newness and style conspicuous in every line. Here is a special suit worth your attention: Made of Wombo Venetian, the Jacket with blouse front, corded Peau de Soie collars and revers, three taffeta bands running from center of back to point in front, stitched belt attached. Sleeves have cloth cuff finished with taffeta bands and three rows of stitching. Skirt with extra full flounce, trimmed with taffeta bands, in fact a very natty suit and the price is only Twenty Dollars. Does it tempt you?

Globe Warehouse

NORTH SCRANTON

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF A CHURCH CHOIR.

Given Last Night in the North Main Avenue Baptist Church—Surprise Party Tendered to Miss Mae Guest, Miss Lilly Strong, State Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., and to Speak at the Service Sunday Afternoon—Annual Meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society.

The members of the North Main Avenue Baptist church choir were given a reception last evening after their rehearsal. During the evening several musical numbers were given, and an entertaining evening was spent. Professor MacMaster acted as pianist for the evening. Refreshments were served at a seasonable hour.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stoppel, Mr. and Mrs. William Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans, Misses Clark, Owens, Thomas, Piers, Evans, J. J. Thomas, Huntsman, Morgan, Mock, Finn, Sherwood, Beale, L. Beale, Misses Thomas, Jones, R. Thomas, Evans, Aten, Richmond, Williams and Tenney.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Mae Guest at her home on Watkin street, Thursday evening, by a number of her friends. The usual party diversions were indulged in up to a seasonable hour. During the evening several pleasing numbers were given by the following: Whistling 60's, Bert Thomas; vocal solos, Alfred Finn; recitations, Miss Lulu Constantine. After the programme was over a light luncheon was served.

Among those present were: Misses Grace Eason, Cathryn, Lulu Constantine, Belle Robinson, Diana Watkins, Georgia Cure, Mae Guest and Miss Reynolds; of Factoryville; Messrs. Edward Hunt, Alfred Finn, David Briley, Bert Thomas, Clarence McAlister, Joseph Edward Collins and William Langan.

STATE SECRETARY HERE.

Miss Lilly Strong, state Young Women's Christian Association secretary, will address the Sunday service at 3:30 p. m. Miss Strong has just returned from the World's Missionary Conference, held in Toronto, Canada, where there were three thousand college student delegates present.

It was one of the most inspiring conferences ever held and Miss Strong will give glowing reports therefrom. She is a highly attractive speaker and will surely delight her audience.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

The Olympia Social club defeated the clerks of Mulley's store in a bowling contest, at the North Scranton bowling alleys, last evening.

The North Scranton Republican club held a well-attended business meeting last evening. A social session followed.

Wanted—Three boys to work in the North Scranton bowling alleys from 6 o'clock at night. Apply at the alleys for contract by Shotton and Davis.

"Convention Notes" will be the subject of Miss Strong's talk at the North End Women's Christian association rooms, Sunday afternoon at 3:30. All young women and girls are invited.

Mrs. W. H. Sadler gave a very pleasant thimble tea at her home on North Main avenue, Thursday afternoon.

The Foreign Missionary society of the Providence Presbyterian church held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. W. Moras, on North Main avenue.

Rev. A. H. Stinson, pastor of the North Main Avenue Baptist church, made a call in Peckville last evening.

The condition of Mrs. Samuel Davis, of North Main avenue, is somewhat improved.

Christian Bowman will take possession of his newly purchased home, in Weston place, April 1.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Christian church, on North Main avenue, will conduct an old folks' concert on March 28.

Green Ridge street was opened yesterday, after the repairing of the bridge had been completed.

The 17-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton, of West Parker street, died Thursday evening at 10 o'clock. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Graves, who have been the guests of Alderman Meyers, of Church avenue, have returned to their home in Jermy.

William Lewis and Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas Lewis are visiting the home of Mrs. William R. Owens, of Brick avenue.

Common Councilman James B. Casterline, traveling agent for the Faragon Photo company, will return to a business trip to New York.

A special service for the children will be held at the Memorial Baptist church tomorrow evening at 6 p. m. The children will have charge of the Scripture lesson and the singing. Some of the little ones will sing appropriate solos.

The pastor, Rev. W. F. Davies, will preach a sermon adapted for the children. All are invited to attend.

W. J. Wright, of Washington, D. C., will occupy the pulpit at the Christian church tomorrow morning at 11 a. m.

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archer of Court street, Park place. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Breig; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Terwilliger; Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Terwilliger; Mr. and Mrs. J. Tuttle; Mr. and Mrs. W. Sweet; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dean; Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Clark; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Reel; Mr. and Mrs. B. Bedell; Mr. and Mrs. E. York; Mr. and Mrs. A. Jenkins; Mr. and Mrs. F. King; Mr. and Mrs. G. Thayer; Mr. and Mrs. Evans; Mrs. Poulter; Mrs. Mills; Mrs. Wren; Mrs. Lynn; Mrs. McCusker; Mrs. C. A. Dewitt; Miss E. Archer; Mr. A. Dean. Supper was served.

GREEN RIDGE.

The E. A. S. club, of Green Ridge, gave another of their "good times" Thursday evening in the form of an informal party at the home of Miss Beulah Phillips, 1225 Maple street. An enjoyable time was had by all present and the evening passed only too quickly to those who were there. In the prize drawing Miss Eva Bales was the lucky one, the first prize being awarded to her. F. L. Moore receiving the consolation prize. A list of those present follows: The Misses Jennie Ray, Daley Duner, Marion Chase, Mabel Reynolds, Lady Brady, Ethel Jackson, Nellie Brundage, Eva Bales, Hattie Fisher, Ella Potter, Agnes Nicholson and Mrs. A. J. Campbell; Mr. E. Moore, H. M. Moore, Henry Whitmore, Benjamin Snyder, William Snyder, Robert Jones, Joseph Haverstick, Charles Hall, Dearly Wall, Ed Phillips, Will Phillips, Henry Zint.

Green Ridge Camp of Woodmen initiated sixteen new members at their regular meeting last night. After the initiatory exercises a reception, which took the form of a "banquet," was tendered the new members and a general good time enjoyed.

Charles H. Jacobs, of Dickson avenue, left last night for a business trip to New York and Philadelphia.

Misses Ina and Vera Spencer, of Thompson, who have spent the past two weeks with Mrs. J. E. Peck, of Capouse avenue, will return to their home today.

The charity excites given at the Green Ridge Wheelmen's club house yesterday afternoon and evening was well attended and of an unusually pleasant character. At the afternoon game, to which only ladies were invited, there were ten tables. The first prize, a pretty center piece, was won by Mrs. George Sanderson, and the second, a pretty piece of china, by Miss May Hall.

At the evening game, which included the gentlemen, there were thirty-one tables, the favors of the evening game were a tobacco jar and a deck of cards. The chairs and stands used by the ladies were furnished without charge by D. B. James & Son, and the floral decorations which were elaborate and beautiful were by the kindness of Morrell Brothers. A bevy of charming young ladies furnished refreshments both afternoon and evening. The ladies having charge of the affair

The Territory of Jefferson.
By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Washington, March 7.—The house committee on territories decided today to report the bill giving the Indian territory a territorial form of government to be known as the territory of Jefferson.

THE HOMELEST MAN IN SCRANTON

As well as the handmen, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get for a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is guaranteed to cure and relieve all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Price 25c and 50c.

WEST SCRANTON

FATHER FOUND FOR EMIGRANTS

CHARLES JENKINS LOCATED IN PECKVILLE.

Read in The Tribune About the Predication His Sons Were in, and Came Down and Met Them—Evangelist Wells at the First Baptist Church—Hallucination of a Dickson City Man—Funeral of a Child, Jackson Street Baptist Notes—Other Matters of Interest.

Through the publication in The Tribune yesterday of the predication of John and Charles Jenkins, recent arrivals from Wales, their father, whom they had not heard from in six years, was located in Peckville.

Yesterday morning he read in The Tribune of his sons' arrival here and immediately telephoned to police headquarters in this city and the officers in charge referred the matter to B. G. Morgan, the steamship agent, who was instrumental together with D. D. Evans, in bringing the young men to this city.

Later in the day, Mr. Jenkins came down from Peckville and called on Mr. Morgan, who acquainted him with the whereabouts of his sons.

Father and sons met in a matter-of-fact sort of way, and after greetings were exchanged, the elder Jenkins invited his boys to visit him at Peckville, where he is employed in the mines.

Mr. Morgan sought employment for them with District Superintendent Thomas of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and in all probability places will be found for them in the mines.

The father offered no explanation as to why he had not communicated with his family during the past six years.

Strange Hallucination.

Peter Rutledge, of Dickson City, came to town Thursday afternoon, and by the time he was ready to start for home had a fair-sized cargo of drink aboard. Instead of going north he started south.

At 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning Patrolman James Thomas found him digging holes in the snow on North Main avenue, and sympathizing with him in his befuddled condition, took him to the station house, where he warned his feet.

He was still under the impression that he was in "Chief" Albert Henne's

Dufour's French Tar
Will promptly relieve and speedily cure coughs, colds and all lung trouble. For sale by G. W. JENKINS, 101 South Main avenue.

WEST SCRANTON

FATHER FOUND FOR EMIGRANTS

CHARLES JENKINS LOCATED IN PECKVILLE.

Read in The Tribune About the Predication His Sons Were in, and Came Down and Met Them—Evangelist Wells at the First Baptist Church—Hallucination of a Dickson City Man—Funeral of a Child, Jackson Street Baptist Notes—Other Matters of Interest.

Through the publication in The Tribune yesterday of the predication of John and Charles Jenkins, recent arrivals from Wales, their father, whom they had not heard from in six years, was located in Peckville.

Yesterday morning he read in The Tribune of his sons' arrival here and immediately telephoned to police headquarters in this city and the officers in charge referred the matter to B. G. Morgan, the steamship agent, who was instrumental together with D. D. Evans, in bringing the young men to this city.

Later in the day, Mr. Jenkins came down from Peckville and called on Mr. Morgan, who acquainted him with the whereabouts of his sons.

Father and sons met in a matter-of-fact sort of way, and after greetings were exchanged, the elder Jenkins invited his boys to visit him at Peckville, where he is employed in the mines.

Mr. Morgan sought employment for them with District Superintendent Thomas of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and in all probability places will be found for them in the mines.

The father offered no explanation as to why he had not communicated with his family during the past six years.

Strange Hallucination.

Peter Rutledge, of Dickson City, came to town Thursday afternoon, and by the time he was ready to start for home had a fair-sized cargo of drink aboard. Instead of going north he started south.

At 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning Patrolman James Thomas found him digging holes in the snow on North Main avenue, and sympathizing with him in his befuddled condition, took him to the station house, where he warned his feet.

He was still under the impression that he was in "Chief" Albert Henne's

Dufour's French Tar
Will promptly relieve and speedily cure coughs, colds and all lung trouble. For sale by G. W. JENKINS, 101 South Main avenue.

WEST SCRANTON

FATHER FOUND FOR EMIGRANTS

CHARLES JENKINS LOCATED IN PECKVILLE.

Read in The Tribune About the Predication His Sons Were in, and Came Down and Met Them—Evangelist Wells at the First Baptist Church—Hallucination of a Dickson City Man—Funeral of a Child, Jackson Street Baptist Notes—Other Matters of Interest.

Through the publication in The Tribune yesterday of the predication of John and Charles Jenkins, recent arrivals from Wales, their father, whom they had not heard from in six years, was located in Peckville.

Yesterday morning he read in The Tribune of his sons' arrival here and immediately telephoned to police headquarters in this city and the officers in charge referred the matter to B. G. Morgan, the steamship agent, who was instrumental together with D. D. Evans, in bringing the young men to this city.

Later in the day, Mr. Jenkins came down from Peckville and called on Mr. Morgan, who acquainted him with the whereabouts of his sons.

Father and sons met in a matter-of-fact sort of way, and after greetings were exchanged, the elder Jenkins invited his boys to visit him at Peckville, where he is employed in the mines.

Mr. Morgan sought employment for them with District Superintendent Thomas of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and in all probability places will be found for them in the mines.

The father offered no explanation as to why he had not communicated with his family during the past six years.

Strange Hallucination.

Peter Rutledge, of Dickson City, came to town Thursday afternoon, and by the time he was ready to start for home had a fair-sized cargo of drink aboard. Instead of going north he started south.

At 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning Patrolman James Thomas found him digging holes in the snow on North Main avenue, and sympathizing with him in his befuddled condition, took him to the station house, where he warned his feet.

He was still under the impression that he was in "Chief" Albert Henne's

Dufour's French Tar
Will promptly relieve and speedily cure coughs, colds and all lung trouble. For sale by G. W. JENKINS, 101 South Main avenue.

WEST SCRANTON

FATHER FOUND FOR EMIGRANTS

CHARLES JENKINS LOCATED IN PECKVILLE.

Read in The Tribune About the Predication His Sons Were in, and Came Down and Met Them—Evangelist Wells at the First Baptist Church—Hallucination of a Dickson City Man—Funeral of a Child, Jackson Street Baptist Notes—Other Matters of Interest.

Through the publication in The Tribune yesterday of the predication of John and Charles Jenkins, recent arrivals from Wales, their father, whom they had not heard from in six years, was located in Peckville.

Yesterday morning he read in The Tribune of his sons' arrival here and immediately telephoned to police headquarters in this city and the officers in charge referred the matter to B. G. Morgan, the steamship agent, who was instrumental together with D. D. Evans, in bringing the young men to this city.

Later in the day, Mr. Jenkins came down from Peckville and called on Mr. Morgan, who acquainted him with the whereabouts of his sons.

Father and sons met in a matter-of-fact sort of way, and after greetings were exchanged, the elder Jenkins invited his boys to visit him at Peckville, where he is employed in the mines.

Mr. Morgan sought employment for them with District Superintendent Thomas of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and in all probability places will be found for them in the mines.

The father offered no explanation as to why he had not communicated with his family during the past six years.

Strange Hallucination.

Peter Rutledge, of Dickson City, came to town Thursday afternoon, and by the time he was ready to start for home had a fair-sized cargo of drink aboard. Instead of going north he started south.

At 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning Patrolman James Thomas found him digging holes in the snow on North Main avenue, and sympathizing with him in his befuddled condition, took him to the station house, where he warned his feet.

He was still under the impression that he was in "Chief" Albert Henne's

Dufour's French Tar
Will promptly relieve and speedily cure coughs, colds and all lung trouble. For sale by G. W. JENKINS, 101 South Main avenue.

WEST SCRANTON

FATHER FOUND FOR EMIGRANTS

CHARLES JENKINS LOCATED IN PECKVILLE.

Read in The Tribune About the Predication His Sons Were in, and Came Down and Met Them—Evangelist Wells at the First Baptist Church—Hallucination of a Dickson City Man—Funeral of a Child, Jackson Street Baptist Notes—Other Matters of Interest.

Through the publication in The Tribune yesterday of the predication of John and Charles Jenkins, recent arrivals from Wales, their father, whom they had not heard from in six years, was located in Peckville.

Yesterday morning he read in The Tribune of his sons' arrival here and immediately telephoned to police headquarters in this city and the officers in charge referred the matter to B. G. Morgan, the steamship agent, who was instrumental together with D. D. Evans, in bringing the young men to this city.

Later in the day, Mr. Jenkins came down from Peckville and called on Mr. Morgan, who acquainted him with the whereabouts of his sons.

Father and sons met in a matter-of-fact sort of way, and after greetings were exchanged, the elder Jenkins invited his boys to visit him at Peckville, where he is employed in the mines.

Mr. Morgan sought employment for them with District Superintendent Thomas of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and in all probability places will be found for them in the mines.

The father offered no explanation as to why he had not communicated with his family during the past six years.

Strange Hallucination.

Peter Rutledge, of Dickson City, came to town Thursday afternoon, and by the time he was ready to start for home had a fair-sized cargo of drink aboard. Instead of going north he started south.

At 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning Patrolman James Thomas found him digging holes in the snow on North Main avenue, and sympathizing with him in his befuddled condition, took him to the station house, where he warned his feet.

He was still under the impression that he was in "Chief" Albert Henne's

Dufour's French Tar
Will promptly relieve and speedily cure coughs, colds and all lung trouble. For sale by G. W. JENKINS, 101 South Main avenue.

WEST SCRANTON

FATHER FOUND FOR EMIGRANTS

CHARLES JENKINS LOCATED IN PECKVILLE.

Read in The Tribune About the Predication His Sons Were in, and Came Down and Met Them—Evangelist Wells at the First Baptist Church—Hallucination of a Dickson City Man—Funeral of a Child, Jackson Street Baptist Notes—Other Matters of Interest.

Through the publication in The Tribune yesterday of the predication of John and Charles Jenkins, recent arrivals from Wales, their father, whom they had not heard from in six years, was located in Peckville.

Yesterday morning he read in The Tribune of his sons' arrival here and immediately telephoned to police headquarters in this city and the officers in charge referred the matter to B. G. Morgan, the steamship agent, who was instrumental together with D. D. Evans, in bringing the young men to this city.

Later in the day, Mr. Jenkins came down from Peckville and called on Mr. Morgan, who acquainted him with the whereabouts of his sons.

Father and sons met in a matter-of-fact sort of way, and after greetings were exchanged, the elder Jenkins invited his boys to visit him at Peckville, where he is employed in the mines.

Mr. Morgan sought employment for them with District Superintendent Thomas of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and in all probability places will be found for them in the mines.

The father offered no explanation as to why he had not communicated with his family during the past six years.

Strange Hallucination.

Peter Rutledge, of Dickson City, came to town Thursday afternoon, and by the time he was ready to start for home had a fair-sized cargo of drink aboard. Instead of going north he started south.

At 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning Patrolman James Thomas found him digging holes in the snow on North Main avenue, and sympathizing with him in his befuddled condition, took him to the station house, where he warned his feet.

He was still under the impression that he was in "Chief" Albert Henne's

Dufour's French Tar
Will promptly relieve and speedily cure coughs, colds and all lung trouble. For sale by G. W. JENKINS, 101 South Main avenue.

WEST SCRANTON

FATHER FOUND FOR EMIGRANTS

CHARLES JENKINS LOCATED IN PECKVILLE.

Read in The Tribune About the Predication His Sons Were in, and Came Down and Met Them—Evangelist Wells at the First Baptist Church—Hallucination of a Dickson City Man—Funeral of a Child, Jackson Street Baptist Notes—Other Matters of Interest.

Through the publication in The Tribune yesterday of the predication of John and Charles Jenkins, recent arrivals from Wales, their father, whom they had not heard from in six years, was located in Peckville.

Yesterday morning he read in The Tribune of his sons' arrival here and immediately telephoned to police headquarters in this city and the officers in charge referred the matter to B. G. Morgan, the steamship agent, who was instrumental together with D. D. Evans, in bringing the young men to this city.

Later in the day, Mr. Jenkins came down from Peckville and called on Mr. Morgan, who acquainted him with the whereabouts of his sons.

Father and sons met in a matter-of-fact sort of way, and after greetings were exchanged, the elder Jenkins invited his boys to visit him at Peckville, where he is employed in the mines.

Mr. Morgan sought employment for them with District Superintendent Thomas of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and in all probability places will be found for them in the mines.

The father offered no explanation as to why he had not communicated with his family during the past six years.

Strange Hallucination.

Peter Rutledge, of Dickson City, came to town Thursday afternoon, and by the time he was ready to start for home had a fair-sized cargo of drink aboard. Instead of going north he started south.

At 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning Patrolman James Thomas found him digging holes in the snow on North Main avenue, and sympathizing with him in his befuddled condition, took him to the station house, where he warned his feet.

He was still under the impression that he was in "Chief" Albert Henne's

Dufour's French Tar
Will promptly relieve and speedily cure coughs, colds and all lung trouble. For sale by G. W. JENKINS, 101 South Main avenue.

WEST SCRANTON

FATHER FOUND FOR EMIGRANTS

CHARLES JENKINS LOCATED IN PECKVILLE.

Read in The Tribune About the Predication His Sons Were in, and Came Down and Met Them—Evangelist Wells at the First Baptist Church—Hallucination of a Dickson City Man—Funeral of a Child, Jackson Street Baptist Notes—Other Matters of Interest.

Through the publication in The Tribune yesterday of the predication of John and Charles Jenkins, recent arrivals from Wales, their father, whom they had not heard from in six years, was located in Peckville.

Yesterday morning he read in The Tribune of his sons' arrival here and immediately telephoned to police headquarters in this city and the officers in charge referred the matter to B. G. Morgan, the steamship agent, who was instrumental together with D. D. Evans, in bringing the young men to this city.

Later in the day, Mr. Jenkins came down from Peckville and called on Mr. Morgan, who acquainted him with the whereabouts of his sons.

Father and sons met in a matter-of-fact sort of way, and after greetings were exchanged, the elder Jenkins invited his boys to visit him at Peckville, where he is employed in the mines.

Mr. Morgan sought employment for them with District Superintendent Thomas