SEAMAN PETER FLYNN

THOUGHT HE WAS ROBBED It Cost Him Ten Dollars to Learn

That He Had Made a Mistake. A tall, finely built man, bronzed by exposure to the weather, came into Superintendent of Police Day's office yesterday afternoon in a hurry and explained in an excited way that he had been robbed of $400 in a disorderly house on Centre street, kept by Kate Lewis. He had the money in his vest pocket, he said, and when he left the place he discovered it was missing. The superintendent sent Detective Deiter down to the Lewis house, where a thorough search was made for the money, with no success. The inmates of the place, one and all, denied having taken it, and the detective accordingly swore out a warrant for the proprietress, on a charge of maintaining a disorderly house. She and four women found in the place were arrested and ocked up in the Centre street station. Then the detective took Peter Flynn, the gentleman who said he had been obbed, in hand, and asked to be taken to his quarters. Flynn took the detective to his room, and, at his suggesper annum, and there is sufficient ore ON HAND ($10,000,000) to continue dividends at this rate for the most fifteen years, own and operating Smelter 225 tons daily; no debts.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE REV. WILLIAM F. EDGAR

Services Conducted in the Dunmore M. E. Church, of Which He Was Formerly Pastor.

The funeral of the late Rev. William F. Edgar, of Owego, N. Y., occurred esterday afternoon from the Dunmore Methodist Episcopal church, of which he was formerly pastor. The spacious edifice was crowded with friends and former parishoners of the deceased ho were anxious to pay their last tribute of respect to one who had been so beloved in life.

The service began with the rendering by the church choir of the hymn, "My Times Are in Thine Hands," after which Rev. Charles H. Newing, of the Dunmore Methodist Episcopal church, offered a most fervent and touching prayer. Rev. J. F. Warner, presiding elder of the Honesdale district, read the Scripture lesson and Rev. Dr. L. L. Retail Clerks' association; John Harrison, United Mine Workers; Thomas C. Phillips, United Mine Workers; Thomas C. Phillips, United Mine Workers; David Harris, United Mine Workers; David Harris, United Mine Workers; Barling H. Anthony, Teamsters; Miles H. Millard, Typographical union; John E. Galligan, Machinists' union; T. P. Walek, Printing Pressment is' union; T. P. Walck, Printing Presmen; Providence and Dunmore Methodist Episcopal churches.

Rev. H. H. Dresser, presiding elder of the Owego district, made a short address, during which he paid the highest his hearers that their efforts should be to live as truly, as nobly, and as grandly as had the life just closed.

Rev. Austin Griffin, presiding elder of the Wyoming district, delivered a short eulogy. Among other things, he

"It is apportioned to but very few to accomplish what the deceased had wrought out. His faith was beautifully shown in his last hours, when his only thoughts were of those dear ones who had gone before and who he was so scon to meet. He was possessed of an unusually well-rounded Christian character. In the pulpit, he was thoughtful, in the home life, meek and generous; in the social meetings, spiritual, and in the management of church affairs conservative. He was in all ways successful as a Christian minis-

Dr. Griffin closed by invoking the heartiest sympathy of the church for those bereft of both father and mother o recently. The rendering by the choir of two favorite hymns of the deceased, "Beauiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Sweet Bye and Eye, 'was very touching, the last one being the last hymn upon his lips before the spirit left him.

The pall bearers were Revs. H. C. McDermott, A. H. Chaffee, F. P. Doty, Frank Young, James Benninger and G. A. Cure. The flower bearers were Clinton and Edward Benjamin and A. E. Wagner.

Among the ministers present, the following were noted: Revs. G. A. Cure, William Hiller, C. M. Suydam, C. B. Rogers, W. G. Simpson, H. Kelly, L. C. Murdock, W. J. Hill, J. B. Davis, C. B. Henry, E. LICENSE ORDINANCE.

Committee Considered Measure Taxing Hucksters.

Messrs. Costello, Schroeder and Coscomprising a quorum of the nembers of the select council license committee met last night and heard arguments in favor of the passage of the ordinance requiring bucksters and peddiars of all kinds to pay a license The arguments were made by T. Fellows Mason and Gus Storrs representing the Retail Merchants Associa-

They pointed out that the competition of hucksters who sell from wagons and from door to door greatly injures the business of the merchants occupying stores and paying rent. The committee took no definite action on the ordinance because of the absence of Messrs, Merriman and Evans.

Charity Ball Gowns

Never has there been a time when all that is beautiful, graceful and elaborate have been so combined, as today's showing in Satin Foulards and Grenadines.

Satin Foulard

Exquisite all over designs, closely resembling lace overdress and woven so peculiarly as to defy imitation. The exclusiveness of the beautiful pattern is seen at a glance. Indeed, Satin Foulard holds high favor this season, and unfortunate, indeed, is the one who does not possess such a gown.

Grenadine

These goods need no introduction. They are too well known, and liked by up-to-date women. In searching for beautiful patterns, we have been well rewarded, and it is difficult to realize, after noting the beautiful new designs, that it's simply an old friend in a new gulse.
