FIREBUGS IN HONESDALE.

Several Conflagrations Thought to Have Been of Incendiary Origin.

Honesdale, March 10.—Saturday afternoon a passerby saw smoke issuing from the roof of a one-story addition to the residence of John E. Richmond.

Investigation proved that the house was on fire. The fire alarm was given but those near by extinguished the flames, which had just started, before the arrival of the first engine. The damage was slight. Mr. and Mrs. Richmond were out driving at the time.

The residence of Miss Millie Auger, with smoke, investigation revealed the fact that these fires were of an incendiary origin, as at the last one a cloth saturated with oil and a bottle of oil was found. Some years ago, Honesdale suffered from a number of incendiary fires. The cause was removed. Since that time there has been none.

These fires are of similar origin—apparently no motive further than being possessed with a mania for fires. Thus far, the damage is slight. The fires at Mr. Richmond's were wholly in the apartments occupied by his coachman. They were put out with the kitchen hose.

MONTROSE.

Montrose, March 10.—Montrose is filled with the spirit of spring. The air today is balmy, the robins have arrived and altogether life in Montrose again seems worth the living.

Politics have quieted noticeably since the county Republican convention held last Thursday. The fact that the Wright-Kilbuck political combination, after months of restless effort and the expenditure of no mean amount of money, was able to muster a total strength in the convention of only four votes, is matter of supreme satisfaction to the rank and file of the party and the unanimous nomination of Congressman C. Fred Wright to succeed himself, and of Colonel Charles C. Pratt for state senator meets with the approval of the majority of the loyal Republicans. The old adage that "it always pays best to fight fair" has again been proven true by the Republicans of Susquehanna county.

Selden Munger, of the department of claims of the New York Central, is on a brief vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Munger, in this place.

Arthur Griffiths, of Scranton, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Griffiths, at their home in this place. John A. Crow, a prominent lawyer and a brother of Congressman Galusha A. Crow, died a few days ago in New York city.

W. H. Turrell has had altered the interior arrangement of his popular stationary and news establishment. The change makes the store much more attractive and modern in its appearance and gives Mr. Turrell a much better opportunity to display his wares, besides adding convenience for his customers.

At the Republican primaries last week Captain R. J. McCausland, who aspired to the state senate, carried one ward, the Second, in which the captain resides, by nine votes. The First and Third wards went heavily for Colonel Pratt.

Owen McGeager, of Clarksville, Tenn., is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. R. J. McCausland, in this place. N. Sussman is on a business trip to New York and expects to welcome home America several relatives just arrived from Europe.

Alden Devine, of Rush, was visiting relatives in this place on Saturday. W. E. Thigley has been re-appointed to the position of borough night watchman and sworn in by the borough council. Olin B. Tingley was the guest of friends in Binghamton over Sunday.

HONESDALE.

Honesdale, March 10.—Nelson S. Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Woodward, died of diphtheria, after a very brief illness at his home at Blandin, Saturday, at noon. Funeral was held Monday at 2 p. m. Interment at Indian Orchard.

The remains of Patrick McAndrew, who died at Kingston, were brought to the residence of Mrs. Doud on Park street Saturday. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon. The deceased was for many years night watchman on the Delaware and Hudson canal here.

Mrs. Russell T. Whitney presided at the organ in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, in the absence of Miss Emma Ward who was detained at her home by the serious illness of her mother.

The first main which supplies the uptown portion of Honesdale, was carried away with the Main street bridge. As a result of the break water entered the pipes and the uptown people are still without gas.

Mr. Watson who was nurse for the Red Men with their lady friends will enjoy a minstrel entertainment in their regular meeting place on Friday evening of this week. The entertainers will be:

A Printer Greatly Surprised. It was never so much surprised in my life as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Asheville, (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so I bought a bottle of it and immediately had two-thirds of it my rheumatism taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since." Sold by all druggists.

composed wholly of Honesdale talent without any assistance from the anti-thracite town over the hollow. A quantity of lumber is already on the ground for the new Main street bridge.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Tunkhannock, March 10.—Hon. E. J. Jordan and wife leave today for Asheville, N. C., for an extended sojourn, where he hopes to be benefited by the mountain air. The Republican county committee will hold a meeting at the court house next Saturday afternoon to arrange for the election of a new county seat.

PITTSSTON.

Pittston, March 10.—Rankin Weir, aged 62, a Scotchman who resides at the lower end of the city, attempted to end his earthly career Saturday morning by the use of a razor.

Can you read here the names of four towns in Kansas?

the date for holding the county convention. The recent high water in the Susquehanna river left the wagon bridge at this place in such a dilapidated condition that it has been pronounced unsafe for public travel by the county commissioners and closed to the public, and for all practical purposes it was destroyed by the flood. An attorney representing the commissioners left for Harrisburg on Monday to lay a petition before the court of common pleas of Dauphin county, asking for the appointment of five viewers, under the statute of 1885, to inspect the location and make a report thereon; the object being to procure the state aid to rebuild the bridge. Wyoming county lost quite a number of bridges during the late flood, and the cost of rebuilding them will be more than the county can well afford, and if the state can be induced to assist us by rebuilding the Tunkhannock bridge, it will materially lighten the burden imposed on the taxpayers.

Judge E. M. Dunham will hold a session of argument court here on Wednesday. C. M. Parker, of Nicholson, county mercantile appraiser, was doing business in town on Monday. Theodore Borden and family will occupy the Buck residence, on East Tioga street, after April 1.

A number of new chairs have been procured for the use of the judges and attorneys in the court room, and were put in position by the janitor on Monday. Charles A. Sisk, of Factoryville, was a visitor in town on Monday. Mrs. Joseph Fassett, of Homer, N. Y., is the guest of friends at this place.

Clarence George, of Sayre, spent Sunday with friends in town. Patrick Boyce, who has been ill for a long time, is able to be about the streets again. The annual farmers' institute for Wyoming county will be held at the court house on Thursday and Friday of this week.

Ex-County Commissioner Charles E. Wheelock, of Eaton, has sold his long-established milk business, at this place, to G. Dow DeWitt, who took possession on Monday. Fred L. Jayne, of North Eaton, will remove his family to this place the coming season, and occupy the Denzison house, on Pine street.

HOPBOTTOM.

Hopbottom, March 10.—There was a temperance recital and lecture given in the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening by Mrs. Carrie Clasen. The Willing Workers will have a business meeting at the home of Mrs. G. H. Hays Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Miss Margaret McCarthy and Mrs. C. B. Sloat, of Kingsley, were calling on friends in town recently. Mrs. W. Z. Brown and daughter, Melba, who have been here for time at Newville, are visiting friends here, but expect to return soon. The Ladies' Aid society of the Universalist church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. M. Tiffany Wednesday afternoon. Supper committee, Mrs. O. D. Roberts, Mrs. Will Brown, Mrs. Will Jeffers, Mrs. Onicy Case and Mrs. E. M. Tiffany. All are cordially invited.

DURYEA.

Duryea, March 10.—The borough council held a meeting recently and reorganized. It is composed of the following citizens: Thomas Winn, Peter Krupinski, H. F. Edsall, Henry Jackson, Frank Rodgers, Thomas Joyce, Theodore Ostroski. Thomas Joyce was elected chairman and the following appointments were made: Street commissioners, M. Melinski and M. Nolan; William Bowen, treasurer; Thomas DeLaney, borough clerk; and George O'Brien, borough attorney; chief of police, Lawrence Cosgrove. Next meeting will be held on March 12. Dr. A. Y. Baker was arrested at the instance of Health Officer Bowen for not putting a sign on the Burns residence, when they were ill with diphtheria. He was tried before Squire Gibbey and discharged. He was then rearrested and tried before Burgess Burlington and fined $5. At the business meeting of the Epworth League, the following delegates were appointed to attend the Avoca sub-district convention, to be held at Avoca, Friday: Mrs. Anna Keller, Miss Edsall, Duane Dills. Miss Edsall Mainwaring has resigned her position as school teacher for the borough at School No. 4. Her successor has not been chosen.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review. New York, March 10.—Efforts were made to control the influence of the Saturday bank statement during the early hours of today's stock market, but the money rate by their bidding against each other and the influence of the British authorities that money would rule higher in the market and the influence of the British authorities in South Africa had a strong sentimental effect, although the direct influence was restricted to the London market. The market was closed when the news was received. Trades here sold stocks on the supposition that the news would be a heavy influence on the market, and closed active and weak, with a large number of bullish stocks from 1 to 2 1/2 points lower than Saturday's closing prices. The principal declines were in the following: Mexican Central and Mexican National securities. Total sales $1,000,000. The market was the buying of Mexican Central and Standard Oil and Texas Co. 400,000 shares, par value, $1,835,000. United States bonds were unchanged on all.
