BEAUTIFUL CEREMONY AT EVENING NUPTIALS

miss May Kilpatrick and Herbert F. Clark, the Bride and Groom at the Kilpatrick Home, on Darte Avenue.

Kilpatrick, on Darte avenue, was the scene of beautiful nuptial splendor last evening, when their daughter, Miss May was married to Herbert F.

in the second parlor of the home, which color with the generous illuminations and its decorations of evergreen, brightened here and there with a sprinkling of cut flowers and blooming plants. There was a big assemblage of guests to witness the tableau formed by the bridal party before the green festooned altar, and the wellwishing hearts present were swelled to hundreds throughout the city, for the couple were highly conspicuous in the social life of the town and were warmly esteemed by those who knew their friendship. In fact, the marriage was quite a society event, which had been eagerly anticipated since the announcement of the wedding night.

The strains of the march from "Lohengrin," played by Miss Alice Bridgett, announced the bridal procession, which led down the stairs and through the first parlor to the altar, over which ranged as to form a canopy. A huge bouquet of bright flowers burst from the central point, where the streamers of green met, spreading here and there until the bay window was a background of green.

The ribbon girls, twelve in number, lined the march of the bridal proces-They were the Misses Lillian Euhrman, Uniondale. The ushers, Frank and June Kilpatrick, brothers of the bride, led the procession; the groom and his best man, his brother, Frederick Clark, of Jersey City, followed; then the maid honor, Miss Eliazbeth Hovey, of Bainbridge, N. Y.; the page, little Elmer Kilpatrick, son of the officiating clergyman, who bore the ring on a silver plate; the flower girl, Genevieve Clark, daughter of W. H. Clark, and lastly, the bride, with her father,

At the altar, the father offered his daughter to the groom as his bride, and then Rev. Egbert Kilpatrick, of Oxford, N. Y., uncle of the bride, be gan the marriage service of the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. A. F. Chaffee, pastor of the First Methodist church, assisted in the service. While the yows were being plighted, "The Flower Song" was played and during the senson of congratulations and well wishes, immediately after the ceremony, music from selections from "Tanhauser" and Mendelssohn filled

The bride was enhanced in her appearance by a gown of white taffeta silk, covered with white silk mult. She carried a white Bible.

Miss Hovey wore green taffeta silk, with green silk mull and she carried pink roses. The flower girl and page were robed in white,

THE NEW VILLA.

Work on the Splendid Hotel at Sixth Avenue and River Street to Commence This Week.

Work on the villa that will grace the riangular plot at the corner of Sixth avenue and River street will be comnenced today or tomorrow, by Hanen & Son, who have been awarded the contract for the construction. This modern family hotel, which will e quite an important acquisition to the town, both achitecturally and in answering the needs of the town, which rave not been catered to in precisely this manner before, will be three stories high. It will be of brick, of the bright red variety, with mortar of the same olor. In other words, it will be similar to the Anthracite building in exterior appearance. The roof will be of the Mansard description. It will be almost flat, with four sides of slate, about four feet deep. In appearance it will reemble the roof on the Academy of Music, though somewhat different in construction.

The entrance will be on Sixth aveme. The ordinary stoop steps will ead up to a sweeping plazza, which will run the whole width of the buildg. On the second floor, there will be mother plazza, or balcony, of the same ize. These plazzas, together with the cariety of grey-stone trimmings, will ound out the artistic showing of the villa. The building will be 28 feet wide

The villa will be modern throughout The finish will be in oak and maple. There will be eleven sleeping rooms. beside a reception hall, and several waiting rooms. The plumbing plans provide for splendid baths and the tecessary equipment. The dining room vill be exceedingly large, and will provide ample accommodations for a big

IN THE AIR.

The Germs of La Grippe are Conveyed Through the Atmosphere. No one can escape the La Grippe germ because when an epidemic of the disease is prevailing the air is laden with it. The reason that everyone does not have the disease at the same time is because the persons who are enjoying perfect health are able to successfully resist and throw off the infection. while those, who for any reason are not in the best of health, fall ready victims.

The first symptoms are acute catarrh resembling a hard cold and if prompt treatment is applied at this time, it can easily be broken up; one of the best remedies at this stage is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, sold by druggists everywhere and if taken freely, say one tablet every hour or two for two or three days, the danger of pneumonia and serious complications will be averted. The Rev. L. E. Palmer, Baptist clergyman of Ceresco, Mich., makes a statement of interest to all catarrh and grip sufferers. The says: "Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have certainly been a blessing to me. I have used them freely this fall and winter and have found them a safeguard against La Grippe and catarrhal troubles from which I have suffered for years.
