Five Divorces Granted.

Court granted five decrees in divorce Saturday. In each instance but one, the wives were the libellants. Louise Walters was divorced from her husalleged barbarous treatment, which aused her to leave him.

Sarah Evans, who was married to John G. Evans in 1896, and who left him in 1901, secured a divorce, as did also Rachel Harvey, who was married to Joseph K. Harvey on September 4, 1893, and from whom she became separated on August 24, 1901. Catherine Book, married to William Book in 1898 was divorced from him. Frederick Webb, who was joined in wedlock to Isabella Webb in England, in 1881, secured a legal separation from him.

Lavin Must Answer.

A bill in equity was filed Saturday gainst Borough Treasurer M. J. Lavin, of Olyphant, by Welles & Torrey, repesenting the Delaware and Hudson company. It is claimed that Lavin owes the borough $3,278.55 and the company asks for an accounting of this

A rule was granted directing Lavin to appear in court within fifteen days with an answer.

More Dickson Bother.

Attorney Joseph O'Brien, representing the anti-McGarrity councilmen, of Dickson City borough, secured a rule from court yesterday, directing the members of the McGarrity faction to show cause why their seats should not be declared vacant. The law provides that borough counclls must organize within ten days after the date fixed for organization, and it is contended that this has not been done. The McGarrity faction elected a chairman of their own, but it is contended that this election was illegal.

Other Court Matters.

A three weeks' term of common pleas court opens this morning.

The court handed down an order Saturday in the equity case of M. Friedman against R. Williams and Attorney George M. Okell, refusing to grant an injunction and dismissing the

In the case of the Traders' National bank against James Nealis, an opinion was handed down Saturday. The decision was in favor of the bank on all save one of the notes.

Do not think for a moment that the inconvenience and distress is all there is to dyspepsia.

The disagreeable symptoms of dyspepsia are of the least account. Because the health reports do not list dyspepsia as a causing death people seem to think it is more disagreeable than dangerous, but the roverse is true. Some other disease, as consumption or typhold fever, is credited with the fatal inness, but dyspepsia made these diseases possible.
