PITTSBURGH.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittsburg, March 23.—While performing his labor as woodman, back of Yatesville, yesterday afternoon, Edward Wilson died very suddenly. May was employed by the Lehigh Valley Railroad company at the sawmill at the above place. With several fellow-workmen May had gone some distance from the mill and was assisting in cutting timber. They chopped down a large tree, and May and a companion were sawing it in two when he fell over and expired, death, it is thought being due to heart failure. Deceased was single, aged 49 years, and resided with his brother-in-law, Edward Montrose, at Brochu's patch, Exeter borough. The funeral will take place Monday morning, interment in the cemetery at Beaumont.

Peter McDonnell, an aged man, for many years employed on the street department here, died at his home, on Market street, last evening. Rev. D. M. George preached his farewell sermon, Tuesday evening. He is said to be a man of unusual power and his lecture will be given as a treat. Among the students home from normal schools for the vacation are the Misses Alice Melvin, and Grace Menhennett from Bloomsburg; Miss Loretta Powell and Irving Pentecost from Stroudsburg and Joseph Jennings from Lafayette college.

Mrs. A. D. Kehren and daughter are guests of Scranton relatives. Miss Estelle Allen is visiting friends in New York city. Mrs. John E. Bell, of Hudson street, is very ill. Among the grand jurors drawn for the week beginning March 31, are J. H. Antrim, late of the firm of Antrim & Co., will occupy the room at the Downing building, on Luzerne avenue, West Side, on April 1. The following is the list of prize-winners at the elstuffed held in the Welsh Congregational church last Friday evening: Children's solo, Blodwyn Evans, West Pittsburg; Impromptu Biblical contest, Miss Mary George, Pittsburg; baritone solo, divided between Daniel H. Lewis, of Edwardsville, and Richard Watkins, of Taylor; male chorus, Pittsburg; Male Glee society; Impromptu speech, Edgar Probyn, Pittsburg; soprano and tenor duo, Mrs. W. B. Evans, of West Pittsburg, and Richard Watkins, of Taylor; adult recitation, Miss Belle Allan, of Taylor; mixed chorus, West Pittsburg Congregational church.

The Consumers' Ice company is a new corporation of Pittsburg and West Pittsburg, capitalists that will furnish patrons here with Pococo mountain ice this summer. At a meeting of the Pittsburg Male Glee society this afternoon, Edgar Probyn was chosen leader, taking the place of William Giles, who had resigned at a recent meeting. Chris Bernhardt was elected assistant leader. The society decided to give a concert in the Water Street Baptist church, Thursday evening, April 17.

John Jones and young son, of Carbondale, were visitors today at the home of the former's aunt, Mrs. Esther Roberts, on Elizabeth street. Andrew Savonovsky, a Polish miner in the Phoenix colony of the Lehigh Valley Coal company, Duryea, met a terrible death Friday afternoon. He worked in the third vein. Four men were on the carriage about to be hoisted. They had given the signal to the engineer, who saw a rock fall from the top of the shaft, and he thought he could jump aboard the carriage with safety. The jerk of the carriage, which moved just as he reached it, threw the man backward and, striking against the edge of the shaft, he fell headlong into the opening. The stump at the bottom of the shaft, three hundred feet below, contained a few inches of water, and the man was drowned. A few hours later his body was recovered by the use of grappling hooks.

The exhaust pipe on a Lehigh Valley locomotive, of which William Burns, of Wilkes-Barre, was engineer, was out at the Coxton yard, Friday night, and Burns was badly scalded. Among the contemplated improvements to be made about the Hillside Coal and Iron company's collieries here, it is said, is the installing of an electric plant, which will furnish power for a twenty-ton motor which will be used inside the mine, hauling coal from the Chapman mine to Florence No. 2, the latter being used as the main engine.

FOREST CITY.

A literary and musical entertainment will be held in the Opera house Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Presbyterian church, at which Miss Cora A. Griffin, elocutionist, and Mrs. Lizzie Hughes Brundage, vocalist, both of Scranton, will entertain. They have appeared in Forest City before and have a host of admirers. Monday night begins the Welsh Congregational church fair which lasts for a week. The programme was given in Saturday's Tribune. Rev. G. E. Wilson, the evangelist, concluded services here Friday on account of his recent sickness and left for his home. The Rev. Mr. Smith, of Scranton, will lecture on "Mirch" in the Baptist church, Tuesday evening. He is said to be a man of unusual power and his lecture will be given as a treat. Among the students home from normal schools for the vacation are the Misses Alice Melvin, and Grace Menhennett from Bloomsburg; Miss Loretta Powell and Irving Pentecost from Stroudsburg and Joseph Jennings from Lafayette college.

BRADFORD COUNTY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Towanda, March 23.—Another case of "didn't know it was loaded," has been heard from. At a shooting tournament at Henrieville, on Friday afternoon, a young man named Struppeler was handling a hammerless gun, when it was accidentally discharged and the contents entered the leg of Harry Camp above the knee, badly shattering the limb. After the local physicians had done what they could, Camp was taken to the Packer hospital the same day. It was found necessary to amputate, which was done, but Mr. Camp died from the effects of the operation. He was about 28 years old and leaves a wife and one child. It is now officially reported that Lehigh Valley passenger trains Nos. 9, 10, 11 and 12 will again be running on schedule time on and after March 24.

Rev. Graves, of the Universalist church, on Sunday delivered an eloquent sermon on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the dedication of the church edifice at Towanda. The society was organized in 1866, and the church dedicated to public worship on March 13, 1877. The following tells the experience of Wyoming county boatmen: A ferry-boat, owned by Mrs. Mary Rosegrant, of Skinner's Eddy, broke loose during the highwater and was captured at Meshoppen, a few miles below. Jack Overdell decided he was competent to get the large boat back, and for a certain sum he agreed to do the work and the contract was closed. He placed his portable engine and boiler on the boat, made a few wheel and rudder on the rear, and the start was made, with John Sherwood and Omar Allen as his helpers. After a period of nearly six and a half hours, the boat and crew were safely landed at Skinner's Eddy. A building, "Uncle," owned by Mrs. J. H. Parrott, of this place, which recently captured first prize at a dog show in Syracuse, was stolen before it returned home. Jacob Freeman, of Towanda, had two fingers and part of his thumb taken off while using a cutting machine. U. G. Baker, who has accepted a responsible position on the Daily News, at Burlington, Vt., is in town, and on Thursday expects to move his family to that city. Mr. and Mrs. Baker have hosts of friends here, who, although regretting their departure, wish them success in their new home. "De colored people" will give a benefit concert at Nainal hall, on Tuesday evening, and a musical programme is the feature.

Roberts has moved into S. S. Miss Cora A. Griffin, elocutionist, and Mrs. Lizzie Hughes Brundage, vocalist, both of Scranton, will entertain. They have appeared in Forest City before and have a host of admirers. Monday night begins the Welsh Congregational church fair which lasts for a week. The programme was given in Saturday's Tribune. appear at the Academy of Music for three nights and three matinees, is one of the strongest companies on the road. The company, though new in these parts has earned a wide reputation through the East. Miss Karroll, however, is well known to all the theater going public as the original "Peck's Bad Boy," and has an excellent opportunity as Marie Brennan to show herself in the new part, "A Night in China town," the most realistic of all melodramas. The company carries its special scenery, and many new and novel electric effects.

The Oberammergau Passion Play, which will be produced at Weber's rink this evening and Tuesday evening for the benefit of the German Evangelical church will undoubtedly draw a very large house at each performance. Twenty-two scenes will be produced together with a great number of illustrations of the birth, life, crucifixion, resurrection and ascension of Christ. Miss Julia Young, a noted soprano soloist will also assist in entertaining the audience. The undertaking is for a worthy cause and deserves the liberal patronage of the public.

The Improver Order of Heptasophs, Conclave 219, will celebrate their tenth anniversary this evening with an entertainment and banquet in their rooms on Main street. The committee in charge has arranged for a very elaborate and interesting program. The entertainment will consist of songs and dances; Miss Yetta Peters will sing; Harry Antrim, the singing whistler in imitations, whistling and trick songs; Tommy Murray in songs and recitations; Marie Brennan, in the part of "A Night in China town," the most realistic of all melodramas. The company carries its special scenery, and many new and novel electric effects.

charge has prepared an excellent program which will consist of selections by the Anthracite Glee club, addresses by J. E. Watkins and George Howells, superintendent of Scranton schools; Mozart quartette, and solos and recitations by well known local talent. All members are requested to be present and help make the celebration a grand success.

Every member of Lackawanna lodge No. 112, American Protestant association, are requested to attend tomorrow evening a meeting. Business of importance pertaining to the welfare of the order will be transacted. The Methodist Episcopal church choir will hold two rehearsals this week in preparation of Easter exercises. Tuesday and Saturday evenings will be devoted to rehearsals by the members of the choir. Chorister Richard Watkins, desires the presence of all members of the choir at each rehearsal.

Mrs. William Powell, of Ridge street, is recovering from her recent indisposition. Funeral services over the remains of the late A. F. Doud, took place from his late home in Greenwood on Saturday and Sunday evenings will be devoted to rehearsals by the members of the choir. Chorister Richard Watkins, desires the presence of all members of the choir at each rehearsal.

The social held at the Welsh Congregational church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society was a success socially and financially. Richard Watkins a well known baritone of the town won the solo prize at the Pittsburg contest and on Friday evening, Mr. Watkins was also successful in the duet competition with Mrs. Thomas, of Pittsburg as his singing mate.

Two large audiences witnessed the production of "Up York State" at the Lyceum Saturday afternoon and night. The play was seen here before this season, and the audience that greeted it Saturday shows that it made a fine impression on its first appearance. A production of unusual magnitude will be given at the Academy of Music for three nights and two matinees, commencing next Monday evening. Lincoln Carter's superb melodrama, "The Fast Mail," its name indicates, deals largely with the railroad in its incidents, but it presents an abundance of effects that are dating in their magnitude and admirably in their execution. The strambolt is said to be a wonder of clever conception and masterly mechanical work, and the railroad scene, with its trains going at a terrific speed, makes the stage seem like a wonder of reality. The Niagara Falls scene is wonderfully beautiful, and it may safely be said, is more elaborate than anything of the kind ever before attempted in this city. A large number of people are employed in the production, which is in many particulars plainly the result of care and skill combined. Prices, evening, 15, 25, 50 and 75 cents; matinees, Tuesday and Wednesday, 15 and 25 cents.
