adds to the healthfulness of all risen flour-foods, while it makes the food lighter, sweeter, finer-flavored, more delicious. Exercise care in purchasing baking powder to see that you get the kind that makes the food more wholesome and at the same time more palatable.

CLEVELAND BAKING POWDER CO. NEW YORK

Care must be taken to avoid baking powders made from alum. Such powders are sold cheap, because they cost but a few cents per pound. But alum is a mineral, which taken in food is deleterious to health.

SECOND WEEK OF THE TERM

JUDGE WHEATON, OF LUZERNE COUNTY, ASSISTING.

He Will Preside This Week in Court Room No. 3—Verdict for the Defendant in the Case of Mrs. Eliza O'Boyle Against Mrs. Margaret Stevens—Ejection Case of George W. Welland Against Reuben Morgan Given to the Jury—Cases Continued and Settled.

The second week's session of the March term of common pleas opened yesterday morning with the three local judges and Judge Frank W. Wheaton of Luzerne, present. Judge Wheaton was assigned to court room No. 3, Judge Newcomb is to preside in the main court room. Motions and the hearing of the Dickson City councilman's case occupied the time of the three local judges all day and no trials could be put on in the main court room.

In Judge Wheaton's court a verdict for the defendant was found in the case of Mrs. Eliza A. O'Boyle against Mrs. Margaret Storms. Mrs. O'Boyle, in 1899 left the Lackawanna hospital where she hovered between life and death for many weeks as the result of her husband's attempt to slay her with the revolver with which he afterwards killed himself. She engaged a room at Mrs. Storms' house on Penn avenue agreeing to pay $1 a week. She remained seven weeks. Some time afterwards she sued Mrs. Storms for $14 wages, claiming that Mrs. Storms agreed to give her $2 a week for helping with the housework and that she performed the services as per agreement. Mrs. Storms denied any such agreement. When the jury heard the two stories, yesterday, they decided that Mrs. O'Boyle did not prove her claim. Richard J. Bourke represented the plaintiff. The defense was looked after by Frank E. Boyle.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF.
A verdict of $500 for the plaintiff was entered by agreement in the damage case of John Yost against the Dickson Manufacturing company. John R. Edwards represented the plaintiff and W. J. Hand the defendant.

The ejection case of George W. Welland against Reuben Morgan was given to the jury just before adjournment. The suit is for the possession of a piece of land in Scranton. The plaintiff had a claim of $72.83 against the defendant, and after securing a judgment issued execution against the land in question, which he assumed was Morgan's property. The land was sold and Welland bought it in. He is now endeavoring to gain possession under his sheriff's deed. The defense is that the land belonged to Mrs. Morgan, wife of the defendant at the time of his sheriff's sale. The plaintiff attacked the sale by which Mrs. Morgan claims she secured the land, alleging it was not a bona fide transaction.

P. W. Stokes and T. P. Hoban represented the plaintiff. The defendant's attorneys were William W. Gaylord Thomas and B. F. Tinkham.

Other cases were dealt with as follows:
Continued—Martin Gerrity against T. F. Leonard; interpleader, Margaret Mullen against T. F. Leonard; interpleader, S. Harris against H. Oram; appeal, Greenfield township against J. F. Kenyon; appeal, Charles Lowery against Annie M. Lowery; replevin, City of Scranton against Edward Maloney; scire facias, Jennie Deane against Franklin Howell; assumption.

Settled—Thomas H. Spruak against William Klusack; replevin, A. Blair & Co. against M. Swartz; appeal.

NEXT WEEK'S LIST.
On the calling over of next week's list, cases were dealt with as follows:
Continued—F. C. Bunnell against Z. M. Ward; assumption, N. A. Hulbert against J. B. Leeb; replevin, B. M. Winton, administrator, against Lackawanna Coal company; interpleader, Joseph Melvin against A. P. Bedford; assumption, Orlando Roselle against B. S. Lewis, et al.; ejection, Elmer Blouck against Fred Stone; appeal, Bridget McLean et al. against the borough of Dunmore; trespass.

On list—John E. Welsh et al. against the city of Scranton; trespass, H. Goldschlager against Mary Curran; appeal, Jean Lindsay against Mrs. M. Dunleavy; appeal, Dougherty & Thomas against Alice Scanlon; appeal, John Curran against the Scranton Railway company; trespass, Discontinued—J. E. Marcy against E. A. Johnson et al.; appeal.

The case of Fleming & O'Hara against the City of Scranton was referred to Attorney C. B. Little.

Attorney M. A. McGinley is engaged as court stenographer in No. 3 this week.

An unusually large number of prominent men were drawn on this week's jury. The number was lessened somewhat, however, by petitions to be relieved from serving. Those excused were W. F. Hallstead, banker; E. L. Walter, architect; I. F. Megargel, broker; Rufus J. Foster, civil engineer, of Scranton; Frank P. Brown, restaurant keeper, Carbondale; Peter F. Finkler, farmer, Glenburn.

Arguments in Orphans' Court.
Yesterday was argument day in the Orphans' court, the most important case heard being the will contest in the estate of Mary Dockerty, late of Carbondale, deceased. The contestants allege that the decedent did not have sufficient testamentary capacity to make a will, but that she was unduly influenced.

The parties were represented by P. A. O'Boyle, of Wilkes-Barre, and John F. Murphy, for the contestants, and Joseph O'Brien and Hon. J. J. O'Neil for the executor and legatee. Judge Vosburg reserved his decision.

Dyer Wants Costs Remitted.
In the cases of the Commonwealth against Roger McGowan, Thomas Smith, John Connolly and William Bair, which grew out of street car strike disturbances, and in which the bills were ignored by the grand jury, the prosecutor, Stephen Dyer, who was saddled with the costs, presented a petition to court yesterday, praying that he be relieved from paying them.

He sets forth in his petition that he is a special officer and that he had no interest in the cases other than that of an officer of the law.

A rule to show cause why the petition should not be granted was made returnable at argument court, Willard, Warren & Knapp represent the petitioner.

A similar petition was presented by S. Cohen, who was the prosecutor in the case of the Commonwealth against Ike Seidman, who was charged with embezzling funds from the Independent Order of Bass Abraham. Mr. Cohen says he was acting for the society and had no personal interest in the prosecution. The society has no funds, and if he is called upon to pay the costs it will be great and unjust hardship to him.

Last Day in Liquor Licenses.
Yesterday was the last day for taking out liquor licenses, and the county treasurer and clerk of the courts were in consequence kept busy, the one taking in the license fee and the other issuing the certificates.

There were 695 licenses granted this year. Of this number, 235 were from the city of Scranton. About 75 licenses had not been taken out when the court house offices were about to close. What proportion of these were from the city could not be learned, as the clerks had not made computations.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.
Twenty judgment notes given by hotel keepers to brewers were entered in Prothonotary Copeland's office yesterday.

In the case of the Pennsylvania Central Breeding company against Peter Lipowicz, court yesterday made absolute the rule to strike off judgment.

David Freedman, of Old Forge, charged with keeping a tipping house, was released from custody yesterday on $500 bail, furnished by Philip Swartz.

Telesiano Martino, of Old Forge, was released from jail yesterday upon paying a fine of $5 for assault and battery and giving $500 bail to answer a charge of bigamy.

Application for divorce was made yesterday by Francesco Bonello against his alleged runaway wife, Antonia Bonello. They were married Jan. 1, 1881. The alleged desertion took place May 4, 1884. Clarence Balentine is the libellant's attorney.

In the matter of the satisfaction of the mortgage given by James McCown to Zeno Alben, an order was made by court yesterday, directing the holders of the mortgage to appear, May 12, and answer the petition for the satisfaction of the mortgage.
