NO "RIPPER" ON FOREST CITY LINE

The Story That the Trolley Rails Between Towns North of the City Branch Abandoned, Proves a Pipe Story-Officials Laugh at It.

It is the intention to tip up the rails of the Forest City line and abandon that branch.

cess amused the trokey people, the reason given for the application of the "ripper, namely—that the line was one of the tow strike jokes that is really worth laughing about. Now, to those who might be impressed with ing money on the Forest City line, or better still, that the branch is a source of expense, to these it might be said that the trolley company is not the least bit worried as to the revenue that the six miles of track above Carbondate produce. In other words, there need be no concern that the Forest City line is not paying: it abandoning the road.

The quietus which The Tribune thus puts on the ripping rumors will be appreclated by the merchants of this city, who have discussed, with some forebodings, the possibilities of the abandonment of the line. There is at immense trade among local stores from the villages between Carbondale and Forest City, and the shutting down of the trolley line would mean an approciable loss to Carbondale merchants It will be a relief, therefore to learn that the railway company has nothing in mind about tearing up or shutting down or otherwise disturbing traffon this division in the event of the strike being settled, as is the belief

It might be suggested that the story of the proposed abandonment of the thre was due probably to a remark passed by an official of the Scranton Hajiway company, during a visit to this city some weeks ago. He was naked, when the ears began to run constany's intention to run to Forest Chy. His reply was, "No: It would pay as better not to run cars on that line." But he was intsinterpreted. He ricant to convey that as no patronage or little, if any, could be expected, it Recording touri orem. Phone on the other hand, the company would run the rick of destruction to its cars and would also sisk the safety of its employes, but this was not the meaning that was taken from his words These who heard the remark interprefed it to mean that the line was not

TO BEAUTIFY THE PARK.

Provisions Made for a Wealth of New Shrubs and Flowers.

Memorial park, which is conceded by isitors to be the prettiest small park Northeastern Pennsylvania, will be ore of a garden of beauty this year than ever.

Superintendent of Packs Joseph Alexander, who is rightly jealous of the beauties of the park, has made additional provisions this year to enhance the appearance of the triangular plot of Nature's glories that Carbondale can so happily boast of. Among the means to improve the park will be new shrubs and flowers to take the place of the old ones which have given their best service. A goodly sum will be expended, and judiciously, too. Park Keeper Udy will give his best efforts to caring for the new plants.

Park Superintendent Alexander desires to publicly acknowledge his appreciation of the many aids that have been given the park board by Street Foreman John Killeen, Mr. Killeen's forts in this way have been quite a actor in the work of maintaining the ppearance of Memorial park and Mr. Mexander wishes that he be given the redit he deserves.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER. Candidacy of G. B. Van Gorder Is

Growing in Favor. The candidacy of G. B. Van Gorder one of Carbondale's prominent citizens, for county commissioner, seems to be meeting with more favor almost every day. Assurances come anew to Mr. Van Gorder that support will be given the idea to have Carbondale represented in the office of the county commissioners, which greatly encourages him a his efforts. Mr. Van Gorder has been one of the most faithful workers in the Republican ranks ever since his residence in arbondale, for over thirty years, and for this reason he feels warranted in asking for such support in his candidacy that will bring success. Althe first time he has sought a higher wiler, and this move he did not make until vigorously urged by his friends, not only in Carbondele, but throughout leading citiezns and always forward in every movement in Carbondale's be-
