JOYFUL MUSIC OF RESURRECTION MORN

Hearts Attuned to the Spirit of Easter Send Up a Chorus of Alleluias in the Churches of Carbondale—The Observance of the Day.

Yesterday was an ideal Easter Sunday, and it was taken advantage of by Carbondalians to observe both in a religious and social way. The beautiful weather, except towards evening, attracted hundreds to the streets, where the busy air was enjoyed by the throng that promenade until the threatening clouds sent down their rain. It was such a day that induced one to put on the brightest spring attire, and in the passing throng were moving pictures of color. There were many visitors in town, and many Carbondalians spent the day with friends in nearby towns.

The religious observance. In the religious observance of the day, the spirit of the Easter tide was expressed in the joyful music that sounded in all the churches in the awakening of resurrection morn. Hearts returned to the joyful spirit of the day united in a grand inspiring chorus of praise and glory in all the congregations of the city. The most elaborate programmes ever rendered were heard in some of the churches, and in all them there were overflowing congregations. The sermons by the pastors all sounded the glories of the resurrection of the Savior.

At Trinity Church.

At Trinity Episcopal church unexcelled music was the order of the service, before a congregation that crowded the edifice, which had a profusion of flowers about the altar.

The programme which appeared in The Tribune Saturday was observed in detail. Organist and Choirmaster Llewellyn Jones directed, and with the cooperation of the choir and soloists gave some of the most inspiring music ever heard at services in Trinity. The soloists were Miss Lydia Sattler and Ralph Williams, of Scranton, Fred Widmayer, violinist, of Scranton, assisted with great credit to himself. All the solos were finished with effect.

The sermon which followed, and of the members, Fred Cundy, J. Barry Rowland, Mrs. J. B. Nicholson, Mrs. T. G. Smith distinguished themselves in the solo parts.

Rev. R. A. Sawyer preached on the resurrection in the unfolding the lessons of the feast with clearness and force. He was assisted in the reading of G. Smith and George Hart. In concluding the sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Sawyer, of Montchestr.

At St. Rose Church.

The beautifully impressive ceremony marks Easter in the Catholic church, was present at the late mass at St. Rose church. It was a solemn high service. Rev. George Dixon officiated. Very Rev. T. F. Coffey, V. G., Deacon, and Rev. Bernard O'Byrne, Vicar. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Bader, a Redemptorist. The altar was decorated with lights and flowers.

The choir, composed of the Mozart orchestra, sang Neill's St. Cecilia's mass.

At Berean Baptist Church.

There was an overflowing congregation at the interesting and inspiring services at the Berean Baptist church. The morning service, Dr. Whalen, pastor, expounded the ordinance of baptism on eight candidates. The music was especially fine, the Albert E. Estabrook was in charge. In the evening the programme was similar to that of the morning. At 4 o'clock there was a special baptismal service.

The Encampment Project.

Thomas W. Early, of Scranton, addressed the members of St. Aloysius' society yesterday, on the project of joining the regimental encampment to be held at Lake Lodore this summer. The matter was referred to committee.

The St. Aloysius Dance Tonight.

The St. Aloysius Total Abstinence and Benevolent society has made final arrangements for their social, which is to take place at their hall this evening. From all indications it will surpass anything of its kind in this town. The best talent throughout the valley has promised to assist in the entertainment. A double quartette from Scranton will participate. A full orchestra will furnish music.

and Benevolent society, will fittingly open the social season after the Lenten festival with a social in Burke's hall.

It will be the first anniversary of the society, and the event will be opened in this manner. The assurance can be given that an enjoyable evening will be spent with the young men of the society.

First Presbyterian.

The music at the First Presbyterian church was a feature of the Easter service. The floral decorations of the Berean church were of rare beauty and, perhaps, have never been approached in church decorating in this city before. They comprised the choicest productions of the conservatories of Hon. E. E. Hendrick.

His Business Was Burning Breakers

This Is What Poor Henry Dressel Gave as His Occupation—The Unfortunate Man Who Burned the Northwest and No. 1 Breakers Will Be Adjudged Insane and Committed to an Asylum—Hearing in His Case in County Jail on Saturday.

Henry Dressel, the unfortunate and homeless wanderer, who, it has been established, destroyed the Northwest breaker of the Temple Coal and Iron company, and No. 1 breaker of the Delaware and Hudson company, in this city, by setting them afire in December last, was yesterday brought to court and will be committed within a week to an asylum for the insane. Dressel's mental derangement was fully established at an examination by a commission on lunacy, held in the city on Saturday afternoon. The commissioners, Attorney Ralph Levy, Dr. H. V. Logan and Thomas Walkey, all of Scranton, will make up their final report on Wednesday next. The report will then be presented to the court and the necessary steps for Dressel's commitment will follow.

LUDWIG BRAUER LAID AT REST

An Old Carbondale Merchant Receives Tributes of Respect from Many Friends.

The late Ludwig Brauer was laid at rest in Maplewood cemetery yesterday afternoon amid the tokens of respect and esteem which his life of probity and uprightiness deserved. From among his neighbors and fellow citizens, he received the reply that he (Dressel) was going over to the slope to order the mining of coal stopped, in accordance with instructions received from the Temple Coal and Iron company.

Week's Engagement Opens Tonight.

It will be pleasant news to a great many Carbondalians that the week's engagement of the Murrays & Mackey company will be at the Grand opera house all this week. They have won the warmest praise wherever they have appeared. The company is headed by J. M. Donavan, talented actor, and includes John F. McDowell, the funny fellow who has made all America laugh, besides other artists of repute. The vaudeville portion, which is a big feature, is headed by John J. and Florence Murrays, and mechanical effects. As a special feature, Murray & Mackey have added Middleton's Merry Marionettes. Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents. For Monday night only 300 tickets will be sold at 5 cents each, entitling that number of ladies to best reserved seats. These tickets will be secured before 7 p. m. this evening, and will not be sold after the doors open.

Cigar-makers' Dance.

Tonight in Watt's hall will occur the third annual social of the Cigar-makers' union, and they extend a general invitation to the public to make merry with them on that occasion. It will be a very pleasant place in which to celebrate the beginning of the large season, and all indications point to a large attendance. The committee in charge have completed all arrangements for the occasion and nothing has been left undone that would add to the enjoyment of their guests. It will be a gala occasion, and the cigar-makers' last night decided to present a pretty surprise to each of the ladies attending their Easter Monday social.

Elections of Tonight.

There will be a church meeting of Trinity Episcopal church this evening, at which the annual election of officers will take place. Rev. R. A. Sawyer, the pastor, will preside. Olive Leaf lodge will elect the officers tonight who were nominated at the last meeting.

Feach Hill House Raided.

An alleged disorderly house kept on Feach Hill by Mrs. Ida Spangenburg, was raided Saturday night by Constable Moran. Three women were taken, one of whom was released. Those detained for being today have been convicts before.

A Weak Stomach

Is a Source of Danger—A Vigorous Digestion is a Great Safeguard.

WHAT HE SEES

Do not think for a moment that the inconvenience and distress is all there is to dyspepsia. The disagreeable symptoms of dyspepsia are of the least account. Because the health depends on the proper functioning of the stomach, people seem to think it is more disagreeable than dangerous, but the reverse is true. Some slight indigestion, if not promptly relieved, is entitled with the fatal illness, but dyspepsia makes these diseases possible. Imperfect digestion was responsible for a case of chronic starvation, the half fed dyspeptic has little power of resistance and cannot stand the strain of any disease, but an now entirely cured and enjoy life as never before. I gladly recommend it.

DECKVILLE.

The social given on Saturday evening in Van Horn's hall by the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church was an enjoyable event and was well patronized.

The congregation of the Stewart Memorial church will open up their efforts to continue for three nights. The Ladies Aid society of the church have worked assiduously for weeks, preparing fancy articles, pillows, cushions, quilts, etc., for the occasion. The booths have been artistically arranged and beautifully decorated. A fine programme of musical and literary numbers will be rendered each evening. A door prize will also be given on each occasion.
