MONTROSE.

Montrose, March 31. -- Winter dies hard. Frequent flurries of snow and a cold, raw wind characterize the weather of this, the last day of March.

Dr. J. D. Kelly, of Susquehanna, spent Easter at the home of his parents and with friends in this place. The funeral of the late Thomas N. Qualley was attended from St. Joseph's church on Easter morning at 11 o'clock. His paster, Rev. Fr. Lally, officiated. the Christian life of the deceased. The paid off last week, Interment was in the churchyard cem-

With a large measure of regret. though with only partial surprise, did the congregation of the Presbyterian church receive yesterday the announce ment by the pastor, Rev. A. L. Benton, D. D., of his resignation as pastor of the church, the same to take effect upon the last Sunday of April, when Dr. Benton will finish his twentieth year of service with this people. There will be a congregational meeting to act upon the resignation though there is little doubt but what the evidently sincere wishes of the pastor will be reluctantly asquiesced in by the Lackawan na presbytery, and his severance of pastoral ties will be an inestimable loss to Presbyterianism in this district and state. Mr. Benton had won the affection of almost all of our townspeople, and his removal from among us will be very like losing a loved one from our own family. Dr. Benton has been a good and faithful pastor, and as such is dearly beloved. Our Presbyterian friends may seek a long while ere they find a successor who is so able a preacher, so faithful a pastor, and one who will "wear so well" as ha Mr. Benton during the last twenty

Pittston, March 31.-The members of the Pittston Male Glee society paid a surprise visit to their recent leader and organizer. William Giles, at his home on Butler street, this evening. Mr. doing business in town on Monday. Giles recently resigned from the leadership of the party, and was this evening given a presentation as a testimonint of esteem. On Thursday evening of this week, Tallie Evans, editor of the Pittston Gazette, will be united in marriage to Miss Sarah Drury, eldest daughter of Senator and Mrs. William Drury. The wedding will be private, attended only by the family of the bride and groom.

Lewis Nicholi, an Italian who resided at the Boston settlement, met with a peculiar accident Saturday afternoon. He was on his way out of the Fernwood mine, where he is employed and, while walking the gangway, stubbed his foot against a miner's needle. The sharp point pierced his foot, entering along the large toe and coming out at the ankle, breaking small bones. Dr. Barrett dressed the injury.

John A. Courter, a well-known resident of Delaware avenue, West Side, died very suddenly Friday afternoon, after a brief illness. He was taken sick while attending services in the Methodist Episcopal church the Sunday before. Deceased was 70 years of age, but had been quite active for one of so many years, working, up to the time of his illness, as teamster for T.

"I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as one of the best medicines for women," writes Mrs. Mary Murdock, Murdock, of 1045 Woodard Ave. Topeka, Kan. "I adder it the best medicine made. I know it has no equal. I am the mother of ten children and only one living—the tenth one. She is one year old and is as well and hearty as can be. She is a beauty. Of my other babies, one lived to be one year old, but she was always feeble. I tried different doctors, but none of them could tell me what my troude was. I have sead I was well and strong. I was examined by surgeons but they found nothing wrong, and they were puzzled to know what my trouble was. I did not know what to do, so I thought this time I would try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Italian translations maintain a fair and consistent rate, and Dutch and Scendinavian translations maintain a fair and consistent rate, and Dutch and Scendinavian translations maintain a fair and consistent rate, and Dutch and Scendinavian translations maintain a fair and consistent rate, and proceeding the form of the process of all none is paid better than the French, because American business men and manufacturers appear to be especially desirous of capturing the French market, and Prench of all continental languages is the most difficult to translate into.

A few translators, long established and with notably fine connections, do a business which thy yields them, on an average, 310 a day. There is, however, an element of uncertainty in the business. One translator said that which there were days in which he took in from 820 to 825 there were others, again, in which he didn't see a red cent turn.
