

JONAS LONG'S SONS.

JONAS LONG'S SONS.

JONAS LONG'S SONS.

The Entire Stock of the Newark Shoe Co.

Will Go on Sale Saturday Morning at 9 O'clock
At Jonas Long's Sons

The Newark Shoe Co., at the corner of Lackawanna and Wyoming avenue—one of the largest exclusive fine shoe stores in the city of Scranton—have decided to close their store and relinquish business in this city. In order to do this and convert their stock into money as quickly as possible, they have turned over their entire stock to us, at such a low price as will enable us to give to the people of Scranton the

Greatest Bargains in Good Shoes Ever Known or Heard Of

In some instances prices will be less than half of first cost—and in every instance less than manufacturer's wholesale cost price. This is done to effect the quickest sales possible at the present moment.

Shoes For Men, Women and Children Are in This Great Sale.

The best makes in every size and width and style, and all are

At such low prices that you can afford to buy a year's supply whether you need them or not.

To accommodate the thousands of buyers that will be here we have given over several aisles of the store to the selling as well as the space of our regular shoe store and every possible effort will be made to serve you all both promptly and satisfactorily.

Remember, the Sale Starts Saturday Morning and without reserve every pair of Shoes from the Newark Shoe Company's stock will be sold.

JAMES A. BANISTER COMPANY,
WHOLESALE MANUFACTURERS OF
Fine Boots, Shoes and Slippers, for Men and Boys.
185 AND 187 WASHINGTON STREET.

Newark, N. J., March 28, 1902.
Messrs. Jonas Long's Sons,
Scranton, Pa.

Gentlemen:—

After due consideration of your offer for the stock of our Scranton Shoe Store, we have decided to accept your terms, and will turn the entire stock over to you at once. We may further state that we believe by our doing this we are not only sacrificing the handsomest stock of shoes that was ever in Scranton, but at the same time giving you the opportunity to give the people of Scranton the greatest bargain in good and reliable shoes ever known, and we believe without doubt you will sell every pair in ten days' time.

Yours very truly,
The Newark Shoe Store
James A. Banister Company

The High Quality of the Shoes in This Sale

Stands out so conspicuously that every thoughtful money saving person in Scranton, will become interested in

This Great Sacrifice Sale

Cheap and shoddy shoes never had a place in The Newark Shoe Company's store any more than they have in our store.

Their chiefest aim was to sell Shoes of merit, Shoes that bear the stamp of perfection, Shoes that the finest exclusive Shoe stores pride themselves on, and the biggest, broadest varieties of the Shoes shown in Scranton was at the Newark Shoe Company's store. But this announcement tells a new story of Fine Shoes—it tells that

You can buy the Finest Shoes Made, here on Saturday at half worth prices and less.

JONAS LONG'S SONS.

The News of Carbondale.

BRILLIANT WEDDING AT ST. ROSE CHURCH

Unequalled Splendor of Ceremony Marks the Fashionable Wedding of Miss Ella Agatha Boland and Patrick F. Hughes—Their Union Blessed with Nuptial Mass—Details of the Elaborate Event.

A wedding surrounded with a wealth and magnificence of ceremony was solemnized in St. Rose church yesterday forenoon in the nuptials of Miss Ella Agatha Boland and Patrick F. Hughes. The principals were members of families which have been conspicuous in the city's life for years, and they themselves were equally prominent in their social set, as well as in the positions they hold. These facts gave an interest to the marriage that was manifested in an attendance at the wedding that overflowed the church. And the anticipations that the event aroused were fully realized in the rarely beautiful ceremony that led the couple from the single state to the new life in which their interests and their happiness will be as one. The details of the ceremony were simply elaborate to harmonize with the beautiful surroundings of St. Rose church. It was a ceremony that has not been equaled in splendor and beauty since the re-modeling of the church, and the immense gathering that crowded the edifice must have been deeply impressed and edified with the manner in which the solemn contract was satisfied. The marriage ceremony was the highest in the ritual of the Catholic church, which is filled with so beautifully impressive ceremonies. The marriage service was followed by the nuptial mass to invoke in the belief of the church the choicest blessings on the married couple. The music was elaborate and inspiring, the Mozart orchestra supplementing the choir and soloists of St. Rose church, under the direction of Prof. Stockman. The beautiful Italian marble altar of the church was still resplendent with the wealth and fragrance of the decorations for the feast of Easter, lilies and blooming plants, and the brilliance of the illuminations, made a background of indescribable beauty for the rare tableau that was formed when the bridal party was grouped at the sanctuary gates while the vows were pledged. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock. The officiating priest was Rev. P. J. Boland, assistant priest at St. John's church, South Scranton, a cousin of the bride. When the bridal party entered the thronged church, the ushers led the procession that moved along the centre aisle, while the "March of the Priests" from Mendelssohn's "Athalia" was played by the orchestra, under the direction of Prof. W. A. Lyman, and the organ. The ushers were, Patrick F. Fox, Thomas W. Loftus, Thomas Scott and Thomas Boland, a brother of the bride. Miss Ella Harts, the bridesmaid, a classmate and an associate teacher, came next with the groom's best man, who was Common Councilman John T. Loftus. The bride and groom concluded the procession. At the sanctuary gates the party disposed itself by forming a line that had two ushers at either end, while the celebrant, Rev. P. J. Boland, came from the sacristy, accompanied by Very Rev. T. F. Coffey, V. G., who assisted in the nuptials. The vows were pledged and the couple united, while the orchestra produced the beautiful melody of "Hearts and Flowers."

The music was a conspicuous feature of the nuptial celebration. The full choir of St. Rose church and soloists participated in the splendid programme arranged by Prof. Stockman and so creditably given. The mass sung was Baitman's. During the offertory the duet, "Immaculate Conception" was rendered by Miss Catherine Flannery and Miss Elizabeth Powderly. When the procession left the church the inspiring strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding march filled the edifice. The title of lovely bride was merited by Miss Boland, who was most fair, graceful and charming in her gown of pure white duchesse satin, under a overdress of embroidered chiffon. She wore a massive picture hat of white and carried white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Hart, was likewise becomingly gowned. She wore white mulle over linen silk and carried pink roses. Her headgear was a white Gainsborough hat.

There was a reception after the sermon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Boland, at 255 Dunduff street. Here a host of guests offered their congratulations to the happy couple and brought with them many substantial remembrances. Prof. Firth provided music while the reception and breakfast were in progress. The breakfast was an occasion of the greatest social enjoyment, an elaborate luncheon being served. Among the gifts that will be highly prized are a cut glass water bottle from the scholars taught by the bride and the substantial remembrance that came from the employers of Mr. Hughes.

At 5:30 Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left over the Delaware and Hudson road for Wilkes-Barre, and thence on the Black Diamond express for Philadelphia. They will also visit at Atlantic City and New York city. After April 20 they will be at home at the corner of Eighth avenue and Washington street, in the Walker house.

Mrs. Hughes is endowed with graces that give her the dignity and worth of true womanhood. She has a charm of manner that makes her personality highly attractive and the cultivation of her friendship much to be sought for. Her qualities of mind have been proven in her efficient work as a teacher in the public schools of Carbondale. Just before her marriage she taught in the eighth grade and no teacher was valued more by the board of education than she. Mrs. Hughes is a graduate of the Carbondale High school and Mansfield Normal school. She has been a factor in the development of several women's societies, particularly the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association and the Catholic Women's Benevolent legion.

Mr. Hughes modestly enjoys the commanding place that he possesses among the younger men who are conspicuous in public life in this city. As a member of the Carbondale High school board, Mr. Hughes has shown he possesses the highest qualities of a citizen and of the man who is destined to be successful in this age of completion, simply because he has in his make-up the stuff that successful men are made of. Mr. Hughes not only showed his popularity but he displayed his qualities as a general by his reelection to the office of school controller. He has held the office of secretary, and is now president of the Carbondale board of education. He is the representative in this section of Dryfoos, Bloom & Co. of New York city, and commands a patronage for his house that is not exceeded by any other similar house represented hereabouts. All the success that he has achieved in his different stations is due solely to his merit.

No wedded couple in Carbondale could possibly receive more heartfelt wishes than accompany Mr. and Mrs. Hughes in their new life.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mrs. J. B. Murphy and daughters, Eleanor and Sarah; Dunmore; Mrs. James Boland and daughter, Mary; Archibald; Misses May Ferguson, Mary J. Hughes, Olyphant; Misses Charlotte and Anna Mahoney; Scranton; Hugh Logan, Scranton; Frank Ferguson, Edward (brother), John and Thomas Mack, Archibald; A. V. Hughes, Schenectady.

UP-TO-DATE BOOK CLUB HOLD UNIQUE AFFAIR

An Interesting Time with April Fool Frolics at Home of Miss Elizabeth Thompson—A Maple Sugar Lick.

The Up-to-Date Book Club, the personnel of which is made up of a number of young ladies who are conspicuous in the city's social life, had an interesting and amusing time in the enjoyment of April fool's day frolics at the home of Miss Elizabeth Thompson, on Spring street, on Tuesday evening. The means chosen to observe the day was quite unique, each of the original ideas were most successfully carried out.

The merriment was started so soon as each guest arrived, and she was presented with a dance cap, of various colors of tissue paper, which was worn during the evening. Then followed the telling of jokes, each guest having one to relate. As an inducement for the best kind of amusing tales, prizes were offered for the best and the poorest. The usual order of things were reversed and instead of the best real joke getting the first prize, the poorest joke took the chief prize, and the best told, the booby, Miss Lena Bronson won the first prize, and Miss Mary Yarrington the booby.

English wifnuts were passed around, twelve of which contained slips of paper on which were questions to be answered by the name of some nut. As before, the order of prizes was reversed and for the best correct answer, Miss Lena Bronson took first prize, and Miss Agnes Mills the booby for the most correct.

Even the refreshments were unreserved. There were salmon salad, sandwiches, olives, coffee cake, candy, bananas, salted peanuts. The candy was stuffed with cotton and onions; the bananas had been stuffed with cotton and (sugar); the sandwiches had paper between the bread. Small white boxes, covered with frosting, were distributed. Each contained a gift—chickens, rabbits, dolls, lobster, whistles, etc.

As the invitation read: "Bring your horn and blow a blast," many of the guests obeyed and made things lively.

During the evening a flashlight picture of the party was taken. The guests departed well pleased with the night's fun.

A maple sugar "lick" was held Tuesday night, for the benefit of the Methodist Episcopal church, at the home of Mrs. P. M. Tallman, on Seventh avenue. Everybody had an enjoyable time. There were over a hundred tickets sold. Mrs. Charles Craft and Mrs. P. M. Tallman had charge of the successful enterprise.

One of the features of the occasion was a cake heavily laden with candy. There was a guessing contest to see who could guess what was in the cake. Miss Henderson, of Clark's avenue, proved a good guesser. It was a nutmeg grater that was in the cake, and her guess was correct.

Among the other features of the evening were recitations by Miss Rose Griswold and Miss Helen Watkins, and graphophone selections.

Those present from out of town were: Messrs. George Marsh, Guy Mosier, Harle Mosier, Gibson Smith, Ralph Gillespie and Misses Ida Sayres and Mable Merton, of Scranton.

TWO SUDDEN DEATHS

Mrs. Ella Burritt, Wife of Hon. Philo Burritt, Expires Suddenly at Her Home, in Uniondale—Daughter in This City—Mrs. Frank Dawson's Sudden Summons.

Mrs. Ella Burritt, wife of Hon. Philo Burritt, mother of Mrs. Frank Couch, of this city, died very suddenly at the family home in Uniondale yesterday morning. Several weeks ago she suffered a bad attack of heart failure. She rallied, however, and was able to be about the house. Yesterday morning she arose and did the work connected with preparing the breakfast, as she was wont to do when in good health. A few hours later she was taken with heart weakness and expired before those about had any realization of her dangerous condition.

Mrs. Burritt was Miss Ella Ellis before her marriage. She was a native of Uniondale and always resided there. She was born on January 18, 1845. Mrs. Burritt was well known in this city, where she had numerous friends, who placed a high value on her friendship, which was never found wanting when tested. She was a good neighbor, kind, sympathetic and willing, and the residents of Uniondale will truly mourn her loss. Her friends here will likewise sustain the severe loss that befalls one who is thus afflicted by death.

Her only daughter, Mrs. G. Frank Couch, of Carbondale, Mrs. Burritt is survived by her husband, Hon. Philo Burritt, former member of the legislature, and one son, who is a student in a college at Washington.

The funeral will take place at the Burritt home, Uniondale, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Burial will be in Uniondale.

Mrs. Frank Dawson died somewhat suddenly and unexpectedly at the residence, on Columbia avenue, yesterday morning. She was taken sick on Tuesday morning and when the physician reached her he discovered an injury in the abdominal cavity, that caused death in a few hours.

The deceased was formerly Miss Minnie Sornberger. She was born in New York state on October 31, 1868, but had lived in this city since infancy. She was a member of the First Methodist church, and highly esteemed among a wide circle of friends.

Mrs. Dawson is survived by her mother, Mrs. Robert Wheeler; her husband; three sons, Albert, Willard and Arthur, of this city; two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Hobart, of Chicago, and Mrs. A. D. Spencer, of East Davenport, N. Y., and one brother, Frank, stationed with the regular army at Fort Riley, Kansas.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Deputy Probationary John F. Cunniff and James O'Malley, of Olyphant, were in the city last evening and occupied a box at the Grand, as the guests of Manager Murray, of the Murray & Mable comedians, who are playing in this city this week. Mr. Cunniff and Mr. Murray are warm friends.

The Purple Undertaking company, of this city, are branching out in their business. A few weeks ago they located a branch office in Uniondale, in order to meet the wants of their patrons in that section. Yesterday they more fully established themselves there by purchasing the business of Undertaker Henry J. Orec, of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clune, of Dunduff street, have gone to Atlantic City. They will spend the summer there, at least, and may decide to locate there permanently.

There will be a business meeting of the First League of the First Methodist church in the War building, North Church street, this evening, after the regular weekly prayer meeting of the congregation.

C. O. Mellen yesterday received word from New York that Mr. James B. Lathrop, who was for a number of years one of the most prominent and esteemed residents of this city, is dangerously ill with pneumonia.

Charles Swan has resigned his position at the Hendick works and accepted a position at the Ontario and Western machine shop at Mayfield. John Burnett has resigned his position at the Mayfield yard shop of the Ontario and Western company and accepted a job at the Delaware and Hudson locomotive shop.

The new vestry of Trinity church will meet at 8 o'clock on Thursday night to organize for the year and transact other business.

G. Nelson Pannell, of Chicago, was at the Harrison House yesterday. Mr. Pannell, who is well known among the financial men of this town, has changed his relations since his recent visit to Carbondale a few months ago. He is now assistant secretary of the Trustbridge and Silver company, of Chicago, dealers in bonds, securities, etc.

A. W. Martin and J. T. Morgan, both of New York city, the former representing the White Star line, and the latter the Anchor line, were in the city yesterday the guests of Common Councilman Gabriel Puglino, who is the company's agent in this city. The companies represented by Messrs. Martin and Morgan control the greater part of the ocean-going passenger business from this city.

Bernard F. Golden, of Olyphant, the well known vocalist, was a visitor in Carbondale last evening.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.