Your Spring Overcoat Or Suit

See the "Atterbury" System

The new creations we show in Spring Overcoats will certainly interest the swell and discriminate dresser. A decidedly new fashion, being cut full, both back and front hanging from a broad military shoulder. We are the first to introduce this new style, it being cut to our orders from a French fashion plate. It's made from the same identical cloths as are shown by the best custom tailors including the new bottle green velvet finished Covert. Samples are displayed in our Lackawanna Avenue windows.

The "Atterbury" Suit

Most of the swell dressers of this city can tell you of the advantages of our "Atterbury" System of Ready-to-Wear Clothes. During the past two seasons many have left the ranks of the custom tailor and proved to their satisfaction every word of praise we have given this improved method of clothes making. The "Atterbury" System is a little ahead of the custom tailor's system, and has proved its advantages by comparison in many cases. Sample Suits of Spring cloth patterns are now displayed in our show windows.

A QUEER COINCIDENCE.
Husband Having Wife Arrested Meets His Boy Under Arrest.
There came very near being a family reunion under most peculiar circumstances in Alderman Ruddy's office last night. Michael Passo, an Italian living in West Scranton, came before the alderman early in the day and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. William Wandock, whom he charged with maintaining a disorderly house in Kelly's Patch.
He said his wife has been in the habit of frequenting the place and he desired the alderman to fix a time for the making of the raid when his wife could be caught in the place. Ruddy was sitting in the alderman's office last night, shortly before 8 o'clock, when Special Officer McDonald came in with two boys whom he had arrested for climbing up the fire escape at the Academy of Music and peering into the theater.
"Hello, pa," said one of the lads as he saw Ruddy. It turned out that the boy was Ruddy's 13-year-old son. The other boy was John Liddlek. Alderman Ruddy released them both, after severely reprimanding them.
"Come here and wait for your mother," said Ruddy to the boy. "She'll be here in a minute. I'm going to have her arrested."
But the mother came not and neither Mr. or Mrs. Wandock was arrested. Another attempt will be made to capture them today.
