FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Forest City, April 3.—F. M. Gardner was in Honesdale yesterday.

The lecture of Rev. Dr. Watkins, of Ottawa, Can., in the Congregational church last evening on "Anglo-Saxon Supremacy" was a remarkably able and interesting effort.

The death of Mrs. Philo Gerrit, at her home in Uniondale yesterday morning, was due to a paralytic stroke. She was about 55 years old, and besides her husband, is survived by a daughter, Mrs. G. Frank Couch, of Carbondale, and a son, Samuel.

The funeral service will take place at the house at 2 o'clock Saturday.

At the instance of the Hillside Coal and Iron company two boys were arrested Saturday on the charge of beating a mule over the head with an iron bar. The case was before the grand jury Tuesday, and was ignored.

Isaac Purdy, a veteran of the Civil war, was buried Sunday in the Hillside cemetery. He was a resident of Richmond, and about 80 years old.

John Bullock, a prominent resident of Equinunk, is visiting in town.

SPRINGVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Springville, April 3.—F. R. Dougherty has sold his farm and is moving to Rome, Bradford county, where he will have charge of a grist mill.

The Scranton Sporting club is having a club house built at Elk Lake. The school here closed last Friday, and the principal, M. L. Allen, moved his goods into the old creamery for storage, having sold his house. Mr. and Mrs. Allen will visit friends in Scranton for a short time.

A year ago M. C. Avery moved to the Volney Avery farm in Wyoming county. This spring he comes back to his own and will have charge of the Baker creamery.

W. S. Brown is the owner of two ewes that gave birth to a lamb each last week, one of which fourteen pounds and the other thirteen.

Delbert Button has sold his farm and moved into Burr Button's house.

Mrs. E. L. Button was taken sick Sunday, and is now under the care of a physician.

The Montrose branch of the Lehigh Valley railroad has been ordered repaired by the railroad commissioner or abandoned. It is not very likely that either will be done very soon.

A. S. Scott, of Chenango county, New York, was here on Wednesday last looking after property interest.

The following changes have been made heretofore this spring: L. E. Squier has moved to the Ezra Strickland farm, Sam Lattimer occupying the place vacated by Mr. Squier; Clark Barber goes into Ira A. Strickland's tenant house; Jason Button moves to his mother's farm, having rented his place to John Underhill, who took possession Monday; O. B. Risey comes over to the Woodhouse farm, which he owns; W. E. Lott moves into the old creamery, which he purchased; T. F. Kellogg goes over to his farm, and N. M.

HARFORD.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Harford, April 3.—Mrs. Babcock, of Binghamton, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Polly Tiffany.

Miss Clara Tiffany entertained a number of young ladies at tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Carolina MacConnell's seventeenth birthday.

Highland Estabrook, of Montrose, will spend the summer with his parents and resume his studies at law at Montrose in the fall.

Rev. Hawkins has purchased a fine horse.

Miss Nellie Pickett, of Scranton, spent her Easter vacation with her sister, Mrs. Lew Burdick.

Mrs. Paris Tiffany visited in Factoryville Saturday.

The warm sugar social that was to have been held March 28, was postponed on account of the weather until April 4. It will be in the lecture room of the church for the benefit of the Endeavor society.

Mrs. F. A. Orchard and Miss Frances

Orchard spent several days visiting friends in Scranton. Mrs. Orchard has been troubled for some time with her eyes, she is now being treated for the same at the Scranton Private hospital. No new cases of smallpox have developed. The scare has subsided to a large extent and business has resumed its normal condition. Miss Croft, the only victim, has entirely recovered, and is now engaged in house cleaning.

LONG RANGE PHOTOGRAPHY.

Negatives Are Taken Now at Distances of About A Hundred Miles. From the London Telegraph. Some of the dangers and difficulties of photographing wild animals have been removed by the tele-photographic lens, by the use of which Lord Delmege obtained some striking pictures of wild beasts in Central Africa. In the ordinary way long exposures are necessary to secure greatly enlarged pictures of distant objects with the tele-photographic lens. But by using a fixed focus tele-photographic lens small instantaneous pictures may be taken up to about three-quarters of a mile. Such a lens can be fitted to hand cameras at a cost of about £5, and would add a fascinating department to the branches of photography, in which the amateur may indulge. This is, of course, quite different from the long-range tele-photography. That covers distances up to 100 miles. It is reported that

PICTURE PUZZLE.

Do you see a goose, a dog and a rabbit in this picture?

Irwin's Company at Star.

Without flourish of trumpets or unusual promise, the Irwin's Company, a celebrated day gave one of the best burlesque performances seen at the Star theater this season. The company contains some "chambers." It approaches nearest to the "Irwin's" in its repertoire, with its variety of songs, dances, and other features. The company is headed by William H. Richmond, Richmond Hill, 425 N. Main avenue, Scranton, Pa.

The Power of Money.

The Irwin's Company presented "The Power of Money" at the Academy of Music last night before a crowded house. It was a presentation of a highly interesting play and evoked the most enthusiastic applause.

The Songs in "Friend Karl."

"Friend Karl," the title of the play in which Ernest DeWitt will make his appearance at the Lyceum theater, is a play of songs, music and drama. It is a suggestive of singing and music in this respect the audience will have their expectations fully realized. The songs have been written and composed by the author, D. B. Sorlin, and hence they are entirely appropriate to the different scenes and situations.

"Are You a Mason?"

Next week at the Lyceum theater (Monday) will be filled by the play entitled "Are You a Mason?" The history of which has its prominent scenes culled from the life of George Washington. The play is a patriotic one, and will be a grand success. It is a play of songs, music and drama. It is a suggestive of singing and music in this respect the audience will have their expectations fully realized.

Sheep Have Ear Trumpets.

From the Youth's Companion. A correspondent has found that the spiral horn of a wild sheep, when placed that the ear is in the axis of the coil, makes the ticking of a watch more audible in one particular direction. The ear of the sheep is surrounded by the horn, he infers that the latter acts as an ear trumpet, not improving the hearing for distant sounds, but disclosing the direction of the sound. This would be useful in making the sheep ascertain the exact points from which sounds come when there is a mist or fog covering its feeding grounds.

THE ODD PENNIES.

For the sake of saving odd pennies don't buy an inferior emulsion when you really need Scott's Emulsion. The difference in price is pennies. The difference in results is pounds—pounds of new flesh—and days of strength and comfort.

Those who have lost flesh can regain it more quickly by means of Scott's Emulsion than in any other way.
