

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

MONTROSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
 Montrose, April 4.—Billings & Van Campen have had a handsome new sign placed over the front entrance of their furniture store.

"The Owls" were pleasantly entertained by Miss Louise Warriner at her home, on South Main street, Monday evening.

The regular monthly union service will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening.

The men's 4 o'clock meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held on Sunday next at the fall and winter term.

There are eighteen members in the senior class of the Montrose High school this year—thirteen girls and five boys. The names of the students composing the class are as follows: Kathryn O'Mara, Grace Smith, Dora Smith, Ethel Horton, Ann Day, Winifred Young, Grace Davis, Edna Ely, Mattie Hilling, Anna Nash, Madeline Loomis, Nellie Jagger, Lulu Green, Ray Strouse, Russell Davies, Edward Birchard, Jean Towner, Bliss Lott.

Daniel G. Stark has accepted a position as general manager of the Montrose Co-operative store.

A late Company G order announces the following promotions: Private Arthur Smith to be corporal, to rank as such from March 28; Private William W. Nash to be corporal, to rank as such from March 31. Corporal Nash is detailed to take charge of the quartermaster's department.

Elder W. D. A. Alley has been elected to represent the Montrose church in the meeting of the Lackawanna presbytery, to be held at Kingston on April 21.

Ex-Sheriff E. A. Leonard, now a resident of Cooperstown, N. Y., has this week been a guest of his son, Deputy Sheriff F. L. Leonard, of this place.

Attorney B. Fenton Tinkham, of Scranton, was professionally engaged at court in this place this week.

Mrs. H. M. Cole, a macadam expert, has been visiting this week at the home of her aunt, Miss Alma Forthman, in this place.

M. E. Hedden, who has been traveling with a theatrical troupe during the winter, has returned to his home in this place for the summer.

DITTSTON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
 Pittston, April 4.—W. C. Farrington, of Sayre, Pa., a macadam expert, has been engaged by the West Pittston borough council for three months at a salary of $150 per month, to have entire charge of the construction of a macadam pave on Luzerne avenue. The work will be commenced immediately.

A charming post-lenten social event last evening was the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mercier, in honor of their daughter, Miss Cornelia, and her guest, Miss Sperry, of New York city. It was held in the Excelsior Club rooms on the West side and the guests numbered about seventy-five.

Music was furnished by seven pieces from Oppenheim's orchestra, of Wilkes-Barre.

Jack Lansing, of Philadelphia, and Thomas Quigley, of Luzerne, had a twenty round bout in Diana's hall, Sturmerville, last night, which was witnessed by about 200 people. The fight was a lively one from start to finish and lasted one hour and twenty minutes.

Although the decision was a draw, the Philadelphia it is said, had proven himself by far the cleverest boxer of the two. Quigley showed his usual aggressiveness and ability to take punishment.

A stranger who gives Wilkes-Barre as his home but who is said to reside in Philadelphia, and is quite an expert shot, has been circulating among the sportsmen here for a few days, and yesterday shot a 50 bird match for a side bet of $5 with William Stroth, the crack shot of this city. Stroth beat his opponent by five points.

The stranger expects to be in this vicinity for the first few days of next week and is endeavoring to arrange for a $100 match with the Evans and Drury family here.

Resident Physician Price has resigned his position at the Pittston hospital and will devote his entire time to his practice at Nanticoke. H. J. Lockhead, of Flint, Mich., a graduate of Jefferson college, has been chosen as his successor.

Constable Kelley, of Sturmerville, who went to Pittsburg in search of Mrs. Joseph Foster who eloped from Sturmerville with a boarder and $500 of her husband's money, has returned empty handed. He found that the bird had flown on her way to the city.

The marriage of the bride having been forwarded by friends of the woman here.

Talle Evans, of the Pittston Gazette staff, eldest son of Superintendent D. W. Evans, of the Stevens colliery, was united in marriage last evening to Miss Sarah A. Drury, of this city, daughter of Senator and Mrs. William Drury, of this city. The ceremony took place promptly at eight o'clock in the parlor of the Drury home on Kennedy street, Rev. D. W. DeForest, of the Methodist church officiating.

One of the members of the Evans and Drury families were in attendance. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Hannah Drury as maid of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Evans left on an early morning train for a Southern trip and they will be at home to friends at 127 Philadelphia avenue, West Pittston, after May 1.

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
 Forest City, April 4.—On Tuesday evening, April 15, Miss Cora Morris Griffin, the recitationist, and Mrs. Brudage, the vocalist, will give an entertainment in the opera house, under the auspices of the Presbyterian church. This will be a treat to the people of Forest City, as both ladies are capable artists.

It is reported that a new breaker will be erected on the old Leek tract of coal land, east of town. J. W. Curre and G. W. Cramer have secured the coal and mineral rights and will, it is said, have under on the ground this month for the erection of a breaker of fifty tons capacity. In the beginning they will apply the farmer trade.

There are about 120 acres in the strip, and it is claimed there is a five-foot vein of coal under it.

Mrs. John Finerly and daughter, Rene, of Providence, are guests at the home of Thomas Cavanaugh.

Stephen Miller, who recently was badly injured in No. 2 shaft, is at the Carbonade hospital, where he is not expected to live.

Mrs. G. A. Shepherd is in New York city, visiting her son, John.

Mrs. Augusta Loomis is sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Randall.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
 Tunkhannock, April 4.—An old-fashioned rag week was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Ace, on Second street, Friday afternoon.

The election for county superintendent of schools takes place on the first Tuesday of May next. Superintendent F. H. Jarvis is a candidate for re-election to that office.

James Wynd will engage in farming, on Shupp hill, this season.

The following are the chiefs-elect of Tunkhannock tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, for the ensuing term: Sachem, L. T. Felton; senior sachem, Joseph Furman; junior sachem, J. F. Wiggins; chief of records, Henry Kitchener; keeper of wampum, Charles Cooper; trustees, George P. Dersheimer, S. S.

The tour will leave New York and Philadelphia, Saturday, July 5, and return Sunday, July 20. Round-trip tickets, covering all necessary expenses for the entire trip, including one berth in Pullman sleeper, will be sold at rate of $150 from all points on the Pennsylvania railroad east of Pittsburg. When two persons occupy one berth the rate will be $142 for each person. Rates from Pittsburg will be $5 less than above.

Tourists will use a special train over the entire trip, with the exception of the six days devoted to the tour of the park, when stages and the fine hotels maintained in the park will be utilized. This special train will consist of a Pullman dining car, sleeping cars, and an observation car, all of the highest grade, and the passengers will find them fully as comfortable and convenient as the best hotels.

During the three days at the Convention in Minneapolis, July 7 to 9, inclusive, the palatial train will be at the command of the tourists, obviating the necessity of securing accommodations at hotels.

The beauties of the Yellowstone National Park, most aptly termed Nature's Wonderland, must be seen to be appreciated. From the top of the stages in which the tour of the park is made, there is spread out before the traveler a constantly-changing panorama of wonders—snow-crowned mountains; tumbling and tossing rivers; Yellowstone lake, like a great blue sea nestled among the beetling crags, at an altitude above that of the summit of Mt. Washington; the curious natural springs, where chemical deposits glisten in the sun's rays with all the colors of the rainbow; and the Geysers, ever presenting a scene of varied charm and awe-inspiring wonder.

The accommodations on this tour will necessarily be limited, and intending tourists should apply early in order to secure reservations of space. A detailed itinerary is in course of preparation, and all inquiries regarding accommodations should be addressed to Geo. W. Hoyt, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Pennsylvania Railroad, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Pa.

At the Academy of Music last night, "New York Day by Day" was presented by the Irene Myers company.

"The Power of Money will be the bill, and tonight, "War on Women!"

"Friend Karl," in which Emmet Devoe will be seen at the Lyceum this afternoon and night.

A German dialect comedy can be seen as well as singing of a phenomenon, and in this respect Emmet Devoe is almost in a class by himself. He can amuse by his comedy and in the same time can make sentiment and love scenes more charming when spoken in dialect. The play has several stirring incidents and exciting situations but the quieter scenes of true sympathy are his greatest attraction.

The play is handsomely mounted and the company is excellent.

"The New Yorkers," Seats go on sale this morning at 9 o'clock for the big musical success, "The New Yorkers," in which the famous comedian, Dan Daly, will appear. The box office will open promptly at 9 o'clock and from the numerous inquiries received a large audience is predicted.

This production scored a veritable sensation during its run of four months at the Herald Square theater, New York, and in its presentation here it is no exception. It is one of the great productions of this calibre ever seen in this city with the original personnel and in this case it is guaranteed.

"Are You a Mason?" The work of Leo Dietrichson in "Are You a Mason" is to be most engaging. It is in this play, which with the New York company and scenery, will be seen at the Lyceum theater Monday evening.

The Lyceum theater Monday evening will present to the public the most versatile comedians on the stage today.

It is being succeeded in this mirthful play by Emma Johnston, Mattie Ferguson, Esther Tittel, Sally Cohen and others.

The Waite Comedy and Stock company opens at the Academy of Music a week's engagement and on Monday, April 7, presenting an excellent list of plays and a powerful company. The past reputation of this powerful and popular attraction is too well known to need much comment.

The comedy is composed of ten people, well versed in the plays they present and excellent finished performances are guaranteed. A host of vaudeville features is carried aside a ladies orchestra, which is quite a feature.

Special attention is called to the production of "Under Two Flags," a complete scenic production, complete in every detail; the electrical effects introduced in the sand storm scene are of exceptional beauty. There will be a matinee every day, commencing Tuesday.

A report comes from Chicago that Mrs. Ezra Kendall (Jeanie Dunn) will join her brother Arthur next season, presenting the sketch in which they were so popular some fifteen years ago.

It is likely that "The Climbers" will be presented in London this season, Jessie Milward playing Amelia Bingham's part, and Fanny Ward in the role of the second Mrs. Popenoe, which is the second important role.

Mrs. Alice Dupree will be one of next season's stars, appearing in "A Rose of Plymouth Town," under the management of W. G. Swyth.

It is reported that Hilda Spruce returns to England at the close of the season and the remaining members of the Daniel Frohman Stock company will be shifted to the support of Bertie and her new play.

Arrangements have been completed for an Australian tour of Mrs. Leslie Carter in "Zaza" at the close of next season.

Charles H. Alford is having one of the most successful seasons of his career in "Fanning of the Shrew" and the one act play "The Old Guard." The western plays have not lessened in popularity since they were first introduced by the most eminent tragedians who have graced the American stage.

Wayne Ellis, the author of "Mills" and other longer dramas, is at work on a play in which Anne Sherry, the famous rival of the Buffalo Bill Wild West, will be a star in the event that the play comes to be an extravaganza.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE.

THROWN VIOLENTLY FROM HIS MOWING MACHINE.

Strikes Head-foremost on a Rock and is Severely Injured—Unconscious for a Quarter of an Hour.

John William Smith, a farmer of something over 60 years of age, while mowing on his place near Littleton, Mass., was thrown from the seat of the machine head-foremost against a large rock. He was unconscious and it was a quarter of an hour before he regained his senses. Then it was found that he had received a severe injury to his shoulder. Speaking about it afterward,

"For seven years I could not raise my hand as high as my shoulder as a result of the fall. I thought my shoulder was out of joint, but the doctors said it was not. Still, they didn't help me with all their medicine. Both arms and hands were numb, and every time I tried to raise the one it pained me very bad.

"Yes, I tried all sorts of things for it, but none of them did me any good at all and I was discouraged. My wife was troubled a good deal with rheumatism in her shoulder and it was hard for her to reach up to fix her hair or dress herself. If she made a mis-step on uneven ground it gave her such a pain that she could not speak for a minute.

"We are both cured now. It took about a week to fix me up and a little longer for her.

"What did it? Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They work their weight in gold. My arm and shoulders are as well as ever they were and so is my wife's. We recommend the pills to everybody, and many of our neighbors are taking them with good results."

The real cause of rheumatism is the presence of acid in the blood, which irritates the sensitive tissues that unite the joints and cover the muscles, thus causing those indescribable tortures which "rheumatic sufferers endure.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People go directly to the seat of the trouble, purifying and enriching the blood by eliminating poisonous elements and renewing health-giving forces, thus making a potent remedy for curing this disease.

As these pills act both on the blood and nerves they are used with the greatest success in the treatment of locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, nervous headache, after-effects of grip, fever and of other acute diseases, palpitation of the heart, anemia, pale complexion, general debility and nervous weakness. At all druggists, or direct from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.; 50 cents per box; six boxes for two dollars and a half.

act is a series of midair acrobatic feats by the Brotherton, which are quite on a par with Fratelli's bicycle acts.
