DIDN'T FILE LIENS.

It Is Alleged That the City Was Negligent.

Referee A. C. Little heard testimony on Saturday morning in the Municipal building, in the suit brought against the city by O'Hara & Fleming, sewer contractors, to recover a balance due them for the construction of a sewer, known as Section A, of the Fifth sewer district.

This sewer was constructed in 1898 and about $5,000 of the $10,000 due the sewer contractors has been paid over to them. The city has failed to collect the balance from the property-owners because of the alleged failure to file the liens in time. The Supreme court has held that in such a case the city becomes responsible for the payment of the work.

The hearing was adjourned until this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

COUNCILS RE-ORGANIZE FOR FISCAL YEAR TODAY

Annual Message of Recorder Connell Will Be Read—City Controller Will Enter Upon Duties.

In the city hall today the city councils will reorganize for the ensuing year, the annual message of Recorder Connell will be read and City Controller-elect P. W. Costello will enter upon the duties of his office. John J. Fahey will be deputy controller, and former School Controller Charles J. Conrad will be one of the clerks in the office. The other clerk will be Eugene Cosgrove, who has been in the office for some time past under Mr. Howell.

Saturday Mr. Costello resigned the office of county auditor, and Hon. P. B. Timlin was named as his successor. On Friday night last the organization of the common council was up to E. E. Robathan and the fifteen Republicans who supported him in the caucus. It was stated positively yesterday, by one in a position to know, that they have capitulated and have agreed to the terms of Messrs. Paine, Farrington, Keller and Harvey.

The plan arranged for this morning's session, which begins at 9 o'clock, or one hour earlier than the re-organization of councils, is to accept the report of the conference committee on the appropriation ordinance, which report provides for the elimination of $800 for the salary of a clerk for the common council.

In order to accept this report it will be necessary to reconsider the action taken last Thursday night, when council voted down the report of the committee. Messrs. Keller and Paine changed their votes before the result was announced, so that they might be able to move for a reconsideration this morning.

John B. Gillespie, the candidate selected for clerk by the fifteen Republicans, who nominated Mr. Robathan, is to be sacrificed for the election of the latter, and Assistant City Clerk Evan R. Morris is to be elected clerk. This is the programme mapped out by Mr. Keller, et al., and it is pretty certain that it will be carried out.

The seventeen Democratic members of the common council held a sort of informal caucus in the St. Charles hotel on Saturday night, but nothing definite came of it. They seemed to have become discouraged by the announcement that Mr. Keller and his friends had succeeded in getting Mr. Robathan and his allies to flock to their standard, and didn't nominate any candidates. Adjournment was taken until this morning, just prior to the regular meeting.

The chances are that J. J. McAndrew will be elected chairman of select council. The rumors about the defection of a Democrat to the Republican side were floated again yesterday, but the Republicans do not appear to be building much on them.

TROLLEY STRIKE IS SETTLED

forgoing proposition for a settlement of the strike.

P. J. Shea, T. R. Edwards, P. J. Keegan, Committee.

The above proposition for the settlement of the strike is hereby accepted.

By Frank Sullivan, Jr., General Manager. April 7, 1902.

The strikers at midnight issued the following statement:

STRIKERS' STATEMENT.
Whereas, This long and tedious struggle has been brought to a successful termination, through the efforts of the Central Labor union, in co-operation with Local Division 168, Amalgamated Association Street Railway Employees, and the various labor unions of the valley, and

Whereas, We, the members of Division 168, will be greatly benefited by the settlement; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of Division 168, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees, do extend our sincere thanks to those who nobly stood by us in this struggle, particularly those who have at all times shown a disposition to help us and have helped us in the settlement of the same, although not identified with any labor union. Be it further

Resolved, That we, our supporters, to give their patronage to the Scranton Railway company.

(Signed) P. J. Shea, President. George Kagler, Secretary.

The Central Labor union's executive committee upon being informed officially of the adjustment of the strike gave out the following:

C. L. U.'S STATEMENT.

Scranton, Pa., April, 1902.

To Organized Labor and the Public in General:

By virtue of a contract entered into between the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees, Division 168, and the Scranton Railway company, the strike which has been in force since Oct. 1, 1901, has been ended to the satisfaction of all parties concerned.

We hereby declare all opposition to patronage by organized labor of the Scranton Railway company's lines withdrawn, and request trades unionists and the public in general, so far as possible, to restore the patronage so long withheld from that company.

This contract has been entered into in good faith by organized labor, and we would regret the necessity which might compel a repetition of the condition, which has existed in this city, during the past six months.

We appeal to both parties to the above-named contract that a conservative policy be adopted in the adjustment of the details of final settlement of the strike, that the harmonious relations re-established tonight, may be continued to the satisfaction of organized labor and the business interests of the city.

(Signed) J. H. Devine, President; E. C. Patterson, Secretary; George Gother, Secretary-Treasurer; Nicholas Burke, M. S. Lavelle, J. F. Hammes, William Corless, P. S. Coyne, Executive Committee Central Labor Union.

Basis of Settlement.

In a nutshell the basis of settlement is this: About 350 men went on strike. In the neighborhood of 150 returned to work or secured other jobs, which they do not care to give up for a place on the cars. The company has available at once places for 164 more men of regular runs and forty on the extra list. This leaves about half a hundred who will have to wait until places can be found for them.

About half a hundred have temporary employment at various jobs. They will be expected to continue at this temporary work until there is a place for them in the company's employ. If they do not wish to do this, they must accept whatever employment the company gives them, even if it should be working on the track gang. The sum of $32.50 per month, or $1.25 a day, is fixed as the figure on which to earn. One-half the difference between this figure and what he would average on his old regular run will be paid him as provident fund for his old regular run.

An extremely busy man these days is Charles D. Sanderson, chairman of the executive committee having charge of the arrangement for the annual convocation of the grand commandery, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, to be held in this city, May 26-28. Mr. Sanderson's offices in the Equity building are nominally devoted to the sale of stocks, bonds and the like, but these days it is a daily rendezvous for the two hundred and eighty-five Knights Templar of the two Scranton commanderies, who comprise the score of sub-committees looking after the various pre-conclude details. Mr. Sanderson is enthusiastic in his work for the success of the affair, and as he never fails to make a big success of anything he undertakes, it can be relied upon that when the Templars come here, May 26, there will be something good awaiting them.

Much of the excellence of several of the recent of those most excellent dinners, the New England banquets, has been due to the work of committees of which Mr. Sanderson has been the moving spirit. He has a happy faculty of anticipating things and arranging accordingly. Scranton's prestige as a convention town will be at no danger of diminution because of the manner in which the Knights Templar will be entertained.

John Howell, the young son of City Controller Esdras Howell, who retires from city hall today with his father, will immediately engage in business in West Scranton, where he will assume the management of a new steam laundry about to be opened by several enterprising young men.

Mr. Howell was until recently engaged in the retail cigar business, and made a success of it. He has received several tempting offers to go on the road for wholesale cigar houses, but prefers to remain at home, where he can count his friends by the score.

a bonus by the company until he gets a regular run.

The proposition emanating from the Central Labor union's executive committee three weeks ago forms the basis of the agreement on which the strike was finally settled.

Sunday last, when the executive committee of the strikers prevailed upon the Central Labor union and their own union to ignore the proffered terms, it looked as if the strike would continue indefinitely.

Hon. C. P. O'Malley, P. A. Barrett and Hon. John T. Farr, however, renewed the negotiations, and on Friday last had the two sides so close together that it was practically certain the strike was about to end. Saturday night at 11 o'clock the executive committee of the strikers, the executive committee of the Central Labor union, and General Manager Sullivan informally agreed to a proposition, substantially, the one printed above.

Proposition Endorsed.
The strikers at their regular meeting last night endorsed the proposition unanimously and it was duly subscribed to by their officers. Mr. O'Malley was called in, and taking the proposition to Mr. Sullivan secured his signature.

At 10:30 p. m. the proposition signed by both sides was returned to the strikers' meeting, and the strike was formally called off.

The strike began October 1, 1901. It was caused by the company's refusal to give definite reasons to the union for discharging two men. The first day of the strike the demand for the reinstatement of the discharged men was set aside, but the strike was continued for the redress of various other grievances, which the men claimed had accumulated since the ending of the first strike, six months previously. Among the principal demands was one for twenty cents an hour for all men with time and a half for every extra hour worked a day. The company refused the demands and declared that the union would never again be recognized on the road.

Propositions and counter-propositions have passed to and fro almost daily ever since. One intermediary after another failed, bringing the thing to a head until the newest movement, profiting by what progress the preceding ones made, framed a proposition which was possible of modifications that made it acceptable.

LEAGUE RE-ORGANIZED.

Name Changed to Scranton Bowling League and Two New Teams Added—To Begin Next Week.

The City Bowling league, which goes out of existence after next Wednesday night's games, was reorganized yesterday afternoon at a meeting held at Zulager's alley, in South Scranton.

Elected President of the Scranton Bowling League.

The name of the league was changed to the Scranton Bowling league, and it was decided to begin a second series of games next week.

Two new teams were admitted into membership and the six present teams continued. The new teams will represent the Becker alleys, in West Scranton, and the Auditorium alleys, in North Scranton. It was decided to purchase a trophy to be awarded to the team coming out in the lead and to award individual prizes to the players making the highest average and highest score.

W. J. Meister was re-elected president and W. H. Birchler was again chosen as secretary. The matter of arranging a schedule was referred to a special committee. Present at yesterday's meeting were the following representatives from the several teams: Arlington, W. J. Meister; South Side, P. W. Roll; Hepburns, Frank Roll; Central, Oscar Jones; Franklins, C. J. Birchler; Liederkranz, Charles Meyers; Beckers, Berrie Coons; Auditorium, Thomas Lloyd.

SCHOLARSHIP IN BUCKNELL

A MOST VALUABLE ADDITION TO THE TRIBUNE'S LIST.

The Scholarship Includes Tuition, Furnished Room, Heat and Light, and Will Undoubtedly Prove One of the Most Attractive Rewards in The Tribune's Great Educational Contest—This Makes a List of Twenty-eight Scholarships, and It Is Expected That Two or Three More Will Be Announced Shortly.

Arrangements have been completed whereby The Tribune is able to announce this morning a very important addition to its list of scholarships for the coming Educational Contest, which begins on Monday morning, May 5. This latest scholarship is a four years' course in Bucknell University, at Lewisburg, Pa., an institution which is probably as well known in this section of the state as any university in the country, because many of the residents of Northeastern Pennsylvania completed their educations there. The university has an Alumni Club of Northeastern Pennsylvania, of which Charles W. Dawson, esq., of this city, is the secretary.

The Tribune has arranged for a four years' scholarship in Bucknell, including tuition, furnished room, heat and light, of a total value of $500. This scholarship is for a young man. It covers four courses of study leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy and Science. Each of the courses extends through four years.

Attendance at Bucknell.

The fifty-second annual catalogue of Bucknell shows an attendance of 580; of these, 365 are in the college, 104 in the Freshman class. Twenty-eight are engaged in the work of instruction in the college. Hon. Harvey Murray McClure gives courses in Contracts and Practice; Frederick E. Bower, esq., in Crimes and in Torts; Albert W. Johnson, esq., in Realty and Equity. These subjects were added to the curriculum the present year. Llewellyn Phillips, A. M., a graduate of the college—class 1892—for seven years instructor in the college, and for the past three years a graduate student in the University of Chicago, has been elected Crozer Professor of Rhetoric and Oratory, and will enter upon his duties, September, 1902. The work in English Language and Literature, so ably performed for the past fifteen years by Prof. Enoch Pennington, J. D., will continue under his care. The new physical laboratory will be ready for use by the opening of the next school year. More than $800,000 has been invested in the fixed and working capital of the institution—the gift of friends of education. An effort is now in progress to add $100,000 to the working capital; of this amount, Mr. John D. Rockefeller, who on previous occasions has been a benefactor of the institution, promises the last $25,000. Rev. Calvin A. Hare, financial secretary, is canvassing for the other $75,000, and is meeting with encouraging success.

Twenty-eight Scholarships.

This makes a list of twenty-eight scholarships, with a total valuation of $8,200, and there are two or three others under consideration that may be added within a few days.

The following applications were made yesterday for enrollment in the list of entries:

Miss Edna Coleman, 218 Spruce street.

William Cooper, Priceburg.

All who desire to have their names on the list of contestants should send them in now, so that they may stand an equal chance with the others, who will be ready to begin work on the first day. All the necessary will be sent to the contestants in ample time for them to begin at the very beginning. Address all letters to "Contest Editor," Scranton Tribune, Scranton, Pa.

The Elmira Telegram on Sunday said: "The Tribune has another educational contest, in which scholarships valued at $7,500 will be distributed among deserving young men and women. This is the third contest of the kind The Tribune has inaugurated. The two former were carried to a successful finish. These contests have aided many young men and women, and given them an opportunity that otherwise they would never have reached. The Tribune is a progressive newspaper, and does a great deal of good in this valley."
