MORE BUSINESS CHANGES

Clarke Bros. of Scranton to Locate in Carbondale—Emery Lee Disposes of His Livery Business.

The possible tenant of the Aitken building at the corner of Main street and Salem avenue and the Albrecht store which adjoins on Main street, has been widely speculated on among business men. It is known now who proposes to locate in each place. Clarke Bros., of Scranton, it is announced, have secured leases for both stores and are arranging for the stocking and opening of the vacant places. An opening will be cut in the dividing wall, which will be arched and will give free access to either store. The manager of the new store will be a Carbondale man. The necessary repairs and alterations will be commenced in a few days.

Emory Lee, who has conducted one of the most successful liveries in the town has disposed of all his stock and proposes to retire from business for a while. Whatever he may choose to follow, the best wishes of a host of friends will accompany Mr. Lee. The sale took place on Monday. Every horse and carriage and all the fittings were sold. Mr. Lee, however, retains his pacer and will keep him for his enjoyment and pleasure. Irving L. Snyder will move his livery from the rear of Main street to the place vacated by Mr. Lee. John Devine, the West Side merchant has moved his family into the living apartments of his splendid new store building at the head of Scott street. The store which is being stocked is a highly creditable one to the section of the city in which it is located.

AMONG RAILROAD BOYS.

Some Humorous Things That Will Interest Men Who Follow the Railroad—News of the Shops.

To work the road to its fullest capacity on Good Friday and Easter Sunday and observe Thanksgiving day is getting to be the custom on the D. & H., as when some of the humorously inclined boys think and say lately. Engine 200 is minus its sand-box, bell and whistle on account of trying to run through a knot hole. An engineer on a western road delayed a train and made the following report: The wind was high, the steam was low, the train was heavy, and hard to tow; The coal was poor, 'twas mostly slate; Hence the detention of No. 8.

The same had had plenty of time to write the next day. The Levil Sluice is around the yard after a siege of sickness contracted during the blizzard. Anson Bailey has been forced to take another vacation, on account of sickness. James Lindsay who has been running on the Wayne county side of the Honesdale branch since its completion removed his family to Honesdale last week. Edward Atkinson, who has been at Honesdale for sometime, is back on the lower end. A child arrived at the home of John Cawley, but it will not be a railroad boy. It's a girl. Engines 128 and 135 have been overhauled and sent to a western firm. Passenger engine 357 has been making an extra trip between Scranton and Olyphant the past two weeks, but will probably be discontinued on account of settlement of the street car strike.

Some Shop News. The funeral of Dominick Barrett, formerly of the shop, which took place Sunday and was largely attended by the boys who loved him well. Henry Sieber has accepted a position with the Krantz Brewing company. George Lowery has taken the position on the air brake system, left vacant by Leon Briggs. Robert Craig of the night force has been changed to the day force. An employe who had never spent a cent on reading matter was presented lately by a kind-hearted engineer with a copy of Engineers Journal, dated 1885, telling about the C. B. & Q. strike.

A FIGHT ON

When You Tell People to Quit Coffee.

"At least 75 people among my acquaintances have been helped or cured by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee in its place," writes a little woman from Independence, Ia., "I will mention one case. Miss Cora — I learned she was suffering from nervousness and constipation and went to call on her. Found her in bed, and she looked like a living skeleton, so wild and haggard that I feared for her reason. I asked Cora if she was improving any. She said not but was gradually growing worse. The doctor was coming twice a day and giving her a powerful medicine. She said: 'I am so miserable that I tell you privately if I don't get better, soon I will end it all myself some day.' I told her not to talk that way for I believed it was something she ate or drank that caused the trouble and she might get well by making a change in her diet. I told her my own experience in leaving off coffee when I was in almost as bad a shape as she, but as soon as I mentioned coffee I had a fight on my hands, for she insisted that coffee helped her and her mother backed her in it saying that it was the only thing she did enjoy and 'she did not believe coffee hurt anyone.' I talked with them a long time and finally got Cora to agree to let me make a cup of Postum Food Coffee for her supper. She was surprised that it was so good. Said she that heard it was terrible wishy-washy stuff. I told her it was because they did not follow directions in boiling it enough. She promised to use it faithfully for two or three weeks and if she was not better I would admit that I was wrong. I want to see her again in about ten days and Cora met me at the door with a smile and said 'Ada, your doctor Postum is the best doctor of them all. I can sleep all night, can eat heartily after a growing stronger every day. Ma and all the rest of us use Postum now in place of coffee.' The facts are the girl was being actually poisoned to death by coffee. Cora has since, married and has a happy home and you may depend upon it no coffee is allowed to enter there." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

been tendered a position on the Erie railroad.

Harry Peddar has been added to Smith's varieties. With electric lights and the telephone at our command, our hats are getting too small. Now let the chain at the foundry be kept out of sight, and an arc light be placed at the end of John street, and in November next, we'll all give thanks.

Owen Timmens told Henry Lavey that he heard that Frank Lavelle said, that Jerry Walsh reported that Dave Harvey up and told Tom Cornish that Oscar Cole accused him of using his soap.

CHARLES HULL WEDS.

The Daring Fire Fighter Married to Miss Ida Gardner, of Scranton.

Charles Hull, the daring member of the Columbia Hose company, who will be remembered for his daring and fearlessness that almost cost him his life, at the Methodist church here last November, added new interest to his career last night by entering the wedded state.

Mr. Hull's bride was Miss Ida Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Gardner, of West Scranton. The ceremony was solemnized at the parsonage of the Methodist church, Rev. A. F. Chaffee officiating.

The bridesmaid was Miss Lillian Hull, sister of the groom, and Henry Gardner, of Scranton, brother of the bride, was the groom's best man. The bride and her maid were becomingly arrayed. A reception and supper, attended by a few intimate friends, followed at the home of the groom's parents, on Dixon Hill. The couple will reside there for a while.

The groom is noted for his fearlessness in the face of danger, often rushing into places at a fire where no other fireman would think of entering. On more than one occasion disastrous fires have been prevented by his efforts. He has a host of friends in Carbondale.

Mrs. Hull formerly worked in this city. A host of good wishes go with them.

SOME OF OUR VISITORS.

JOHN J. HART, of Pittston, who was at the Harrison house yesterday, as the representative of Ross & company, of West Pittston, is one of the foremost men of that city, filling about the important offices in that city, with the exception of its chief executive. At the present time he wears a beautiful gold badge presented to him in recognition of his services as chief of the fire department, which position he now fills most acceptably. Mr. Hart has been a councilman for a many terms as he is cared to serve, though he could go back again if he so desired. For six years he was chairman of common council, an exceptional record. He was also chief-of-police. Mr. Hart's geniality is one of his pleasant characteristics and though he has been coming to Carbondale only a short time he has acquired many sincere friends.

WADE M. PINN, ex-select councilman of Scranton, illuminated the Carbondale office of The Tribune yesterday with his broad cheery smiles. Mr. Pinn is a frequent visitor to Carbondale, where he has a host of friends, acquired on his frequent visits to this city from his summer home at Crystal Lake. This is one of the rare delights of Mr. Pinn's life, the sojourn he makes each year beside the shores of this beautiful sheet of water. Here from June 1, until the chill of October, he forgets about the city's strife, and he loses himself in the pleasures of enjoying the biggest bass in the lake. By the way, some of the biggest fish taken from the lake last summer, dangled from the end of Mr. Pinn's hook.

HENRY GARDNER, of Scranton, who came to the city was the guest yesterday of Captain Thomas Murphy, is one of the soldier boys who came back from the Philippines with a record for bravery and loyalty that would make any volunteer feel proud of. He saw real service, the kind in which Philipino soldiers fairly rained. One of these death messengers struck Sergeant Gardner, that was his rank, in the right shoulder passing over the lung and stomach and coming out at the left hip. The wound almost caused Gardner's death, but he was too strong to die and he is now ready to again take up arms if the country needs him. Gardner was a sergeant under Captain Thomas Murphy, of this city, when the latter was a lieutenant in the Philippine campaign. The lieutenant credits him with being one of the bravest and most willing soldiers under his command.

EDWARD SIMPSON, who was in the city this week, as the representative of a big medicine manufacturing company of Chicago, was a former resident of Richmondsdale, where his father superintended the construction of the breaker there. The younger Shipman has achieved considerable success since leaving this section a few years ago. The knowledge he acquired of breaker construction through being associated with his father in the work, has served him well and he has succeeded in advancing himself to a high place with his company, with a bright promise of still better things in the near future.

WILL TAKE A REST.

Miss Florence Wright, Superintendent of Emergency Hospital, Goes to Canada to Recuperate.

Miss Florence Wright, superintendent of Emergency hospital, who has so long recovered from her recent severe illness as to be able to take an active interest in the work of the hospital, has decided to take a rest, and will leave on Friday for her Canadian home, where she will spend some time in recuperating.

Miss Wright goes to Mount Forest, Canada, and will be absent for two months or longer, if she deems it prudent to extend the rest period. It was Miss Wright's heroic devotion to the arduous duties of superintending the hospital that so reduced her condition of health that for a time it was feared she might not rally. It will be assuring and cheerful news, therefore, to the numerous persons who have become her friends through coming in contact with her at the hospital, that she has decided upon this sorely needed period of relaxation and recuperation. The best wishes that she may return in vigorous health will accompany her.

During Miss Wright's absence, the acting superintendent will be Miss Williamson, of Philadelphia, a graduate of the training school of Blockley hospital, Philadelphia, who is well qualified for the position.

NEW SWITCHBOARD ARRIVES.

Accommodations for 400 'Phones at Carbondale Telephone Exchange.

The new section of switchboard which has been expected for some time has arrived and is now in place in the exchange of the Carbondale Telephone company, in the Burke building. The work of installing and connecting new 'phones will be pushed with expedition, but as there has been an exceptional demand for telephones, and as there is considerable work connected with the switchboard, Manager Hughes would suggest that prospective subscribers who are anxious for service be indulgent for a little while until the necessary readjustments, reconstructions, and the like can be made.

With the new section of switchboard in place, there will be accommodations for one hundred additional 'phones, making the total number in service four hundred. Already there are enough orders for 'phones to occupy the new section. In a short time the Carbondale company will make arrangements for the extension of its service to points north and to Crystal Lake and Dundaff.

TONIGHT WITH LONGFELLOW.

A Privilege That May Be Enjoyed at Berean Baptist Church.

To spend an evening with the great American poet, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, is a privilege that the people of our city will doubtless appreciate. Rev. Ernest Melville's interpretations of the poet's masterpieces will make a delightful entertainment, and the trustees of the Berean Baptist church make it possible for all to hear him, since only a silver offering will be asked to defray the actual expenses.

Remember that it is tonight, at the Berean Baptist church, at 8 o'clock.

Miller Is Improving.

Stanley Miller, of Forest City, who has been in a critical condition at Emergency hospital, from injuries received while at work in the mines, is somewhat improved. He is not regarded as out of danger, as yet.

Newsdealers Make Improvements.

Roberts & Reynolds, the hustling newsdealers, are making improvements in their store on North Main street, which will greatly change the appearance of the store and will appreciably add to the convenience of patrons. The office, which was at the rear, has been moved to the center of the store, and the room which it occupied will be quite acceptable for shelves for papers. The changed position of the office does not interfere, but facilitates the business relations. On the right, as one enters the store, a neat rack will be erected, which will contain all the dailies and other publications which are most in demand. The papers will be so arranged that the customer can see at a glance what he desires.

OBITUARY.

JOHN MARTIN, who passed the four-score year mark, and one of the city's most respected citizens, died yesterday morning at 3 o'clock in Emergency hospital, where he was taken a few weeks ago suffering from a fracture of the hip, sustained by falling down stairs during the night. The injury, owing to his advanced years was the cause of his death. He was home from the Soldiers' home a few days when he met with the fatal accident.

Mr. Martin was born in New Jersey about eighty years ago. He married Miss Elizabeth Ulmer. At the breaking out of the Civil war, Mr. Martin entered the federal army and served during the entire rebellion. At the close of the war he received an honorable discharge and returned to New Jersey.

About thirty years ago he came to Carbondale and resided here from that time on till about six years ago when he went to Scranton. About a year ago he returned to Carbondale to make his home with Mrs. Harriet. While he made no display of friendship, those who knew him intimately became strongly attached to Mr. Martin and valued his friendship.

The deceased is survived by his aged wife and the following daughters: Mrs. Joseph Harris, of Belmont street; Mrs. Adam McMillin, of Dundaff street; Mrs. John Clark, of Philadelphia; Mrs. William Rhodes, of Scranton and Miss Emma Martin, of this city.

AN INFORMAL DANCE.

Will Be Conducted in the Burke Building on April 18.

There will be an informal dance in the Burke building on Friday night, April 18, that will be one of the swell functions of the post-Lenten season. The dance will be conducted under the patronage of a coterie of young men, who have figured in earlier conspicuous social successes. It might be mentioned that the enterprise will be somewhat after the fashion of the "Cee-Ess-Cee" dance of last fall, which will be recalled with pleasure by those who attended. The Mozart orchestra will provide music, and the dance room will be illuminated with decorations.

Unclaimed Letters.

List of letters remaining in the Carbondale postoffice, April 9, 1902, for persons unknown: William Banker, John Horn, Wallace Inch, T. J. Lamb, M. D. (2), Elie Lindsey, William Michael, Michael Murray, W. C. Nicholson, V. P. Stephens, Horton Walcott, Miss Beatrice Danc, Miss Marie Doyle, Miss Katherine Mangan, Miss Mulraney, Miss Nellie O'Nea, Miss Jennie Parker, Mary Ann Mills, Mrs. F. S. Corby, Mrs. D. S. Clark, Mrs. Susie Walker, Mrs. Caroline Decker, J. H. Thomas, Postmaster.

Successful Basket Social.

A successful basket social was conducted in Watt's hall last night by Diamond lodge, Hall of Honor. The occasion was the eleventh anniversary of the lodge. The evening was highly enjoyable, despite the witness of the night, which was calculated to dampen one's social spirit. Firth was the musician, and Collins conducted the dances.

Butler Goodman Dead.

Butler Goodman, the well known shoemaker of Schuylkill avenue, an old and respected resident of Carbondale died last evening after a long illness.

Repertoire at the Grand. Miss May Fiske, the youngest and newest of repertoire stars, will make her bow to a Carbondale audience at the Grand Opera House Thursday night for a three days' stay of repertoire. The opening play is "Little Magnie." Miss Fiske is but 19 years of age, and this is her first year as a repertoire star. Her talent was first directed to musical comedy, and she spent some time with the Rogers Brothers in "Wall Street." She also had the benefit of a dramatic schooling in Augustin Daly's "Runaway Girl." Miss Fiske has her own orchestra and will introduce that trio of clever little people, Mrs. General Tom Thumb, Count and Baron Magri at each and every performance.

In Memoriam. Carbondale Council No. 924, Royal Arcanum has again been called upon to lose one of its members by death. Brother Ludwig Bauer has passed into the great beyond. Brother Bauer was one of the oldest members of our order, and a strict adherent to the old-time principles. In his passing, the community is bereft of an able and upright citizen, and we are again forcibly impressed with the uncertainty of life. The Royal Arcanum joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved family, and has ordered its charter draped for a period of thirty days.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD. The Jersey foot ball team, which journeyed to Peckville on Saturday afternoon, had an easy time in defeating their opponents by a score of two goals to one. Had the Jersey players desired they could have easily administered a crushing defeat, as the Peckville team were not in it at any stage of the game. The local players, although they did not exert themselves, played well together. The two goals were won by Deakin, the captain, and Patterson. A return game will be played on the Jersey grounds next Saturday afternoon.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Altman, of Third street, is ill of diphtheria. Outside Foreman Brown, of the Edgerton colliery, has been transferred to the Strick Creek colliery, at Peckville, to succeed William Berch, who owing to his health, has been compelled to relinquish his duties and who contemplated a trip to Colorado.

Mrs. J. T. Griffiths, Mr. E. E. Griffiths, Mrs. Edna Griffiths and Miss Kate Griffiths attended the funeral of the late William C. Davis, at Carbondale yesterday afternoon.
