

The News of Carbondale.

FELICITOUS EVENT.

The Volunteer Firemen Commended and Lauded in Speeches at Celebration of Tenth Anniversary of Andrew Mitchell Hose Company.

Last night was an eventful one in the history of the Andrew Mitchell Hose company of Carbondale...

THOMAS E. CAMPBELL, President of Mitchell Hose Company.

that are linked by deeds of sacrifice and valor that shed glory on the career of the volunteer fire lads.

It was a most felicitous event, and it will mark an epoch in the history of the company, which will have good reason to recall the night that the tenth anniversary was observed...

the night turned in their kindness to him, and speaker after speaker before he sat down turned to Mr. Mitchell and paid him warm tribute...

Conspicuous in the gathering were the portraits of Mr. Mitchell, each guest as he arrived being presented with a large button on which was a splendid likeness of the company's patron.

The event took place in Germania hall. In the dance room the tables were spread and here the guests, after the cigars and speeches, enjoyed a party rest, admirably served by Conington & Thompson...

Prior to the repeat, the guests, each with his portrait of Mr. Mitchell on his coat label, assembled in the smoking room where they were served with appropriate "washes"...

Thomas E. Campbell, president of the Mitchell's, was a good-natured and happy toastmaster. The first speaker was Hon. James J. O'Neill...

Mr. Mitchell, when called upon, was so filled with emotion that he was not able to make a response. He was so overwhelmed with the generous and warm-hearted display in his honor that he wept silently.

Following Mayor O'Neill, the speakers were: Chief McNulty, ex-Councilman T. M. Nelson, School Controller G. F. Swigert, ex-Chairman of Common Council Alex. Kennedy, T. G. Coughlin, of the Columbus and ex-president of the Firemen's Relief association...

MISSIONARY MEETING.

Women's Society of the Lackawanna Presbytery Will Hold Convention in Presbyterian Church Today.

The twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Presbytery of Lackawanna will take place in this city in the First Presbyterian church today and Friday.

The sessions will take place this afternoon and Friday morning. On Friday evening supper will be served in the church parlors.

The presiding officer at the meeting tomorrow afternoon will be Rev. Chas. Lee. The address on this occasion will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Janvier. The devotional meeting will be led by Mrs. W. W. Scrimmon...

TOWN TOPICS.

Memorial park is trying hard to force a smile of spring, though it is not receiving much assistance or encouragement from Old Sol.

It would be quite timely now for Common Councilman Whitfield to re-assert the general sidewalk ordinance being specified, where the grade has been established and accepted by the city.

The backwardness of Carbondale in the matter of sidewalks is so patent that it would be more humorous than usual to debate upon the truth of the matter.

It is a short road to trouble when the food does not supply the right material to rebuild the brain.

It is a short road to trouble when the food does not supply the right material to rebuild the brain without breaking down small particles every day...

Down at the ferry I purchased an evening Journal and my attention was attracted to the headlines of a Grape-Nuts advertisement...

I candidly believe if I had known the remarkable sustaining power of the food prior to my illness I would not have needed a physician nor would I have been sick at all.

Advertisement for King Collar Buttons, featuring the brand name in large script and the words 'Shopping' and 'News' in boxes.

28,500 Collar Buttons at 1/4 and 1/3 Price. The Sale Begins Saturday at 10 O'Clock Sharp. The King Collar Button Co.

Makers of the collar button that is known the world over, have devised a very clever plan of advertising their buttons through one big representative store in each of the large cities.

Gold-Filled Collar Buttons at Marvelously Low Prices. This plan will introduce the "King" Collar Button in a very short time.

and we are willing to do likewise, for the purpose of advertising and giving the thousands of people who will be here this splendid article for practically no price at all.

Ladies will buy the King Collar Button wherever they find it. It is the best adapted button for shirt waists on the market. We have every shape and style, and every button is fully guaranteed, and new buttons will be given for every one returned damaged.

Price list for King Collar Buttons: 10-Kt Gold Filled Collar Buttons, regular value 10 cents. This sale . . . 2c. 14-Kt Gold Filled Collar Buttons, regular value 15c. For this sale . . . 5c. The Silver King Collar Button's regular value 25c. For this sale . . . 8c.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY OF KING COLLAR BUTTONS.

The Great Sale of Newark Shoes

Continues to be the topic of the day in the city of Scranton. Thousands of Shoes have been sold the last few days, and thousands more will be sold before Saturday night.

Scranton's Big Store

possibility that the property owners along Park avenue will see realized this summer the changes which they have waited for with patience and long suffering for years.

Mr. and Mrs. Connell will commence housekeeping in their home on Connell avenue, amid the well wishes of their friends.

Several persons from this vicinity have changed their residence. Several persons from Carbondale and vicinity left this week for the far West.

David Benzough and William Krenser, of Jersey, left Tuesday night over the Erie for Trinidad, Col., where they have secured profitable employment.

William Connell Brings Home His Bride from the Silk Capital. William Connell, a well known Carbondale, came home last night with his young bride, to whom he was wedded yesterday forenoon at her home in Paterson, N. J.

Those from This City Who Will Serve Next Month. Carbondale is well represented in the list of jurors drawn yesterday to serve during the weeks of May 12, 19 and 26.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

the nuptials which were solemnized in one of the Catholic churches at Paterson.

Last night, after the newly wedded couple reached the city on the 8.35 Delaware and Hudson train, they repaired to the furnished home that awaited them on Connell avenue, on the West Side, where a reception was tendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Connell will commence housekeeping in their home on Connell avenue, amid the well wishes of their friends.

Several persons from this vicinity have changed their residence. Several persons from Carbondale and vicinity left this week for the far West.

David Benzough and William Krenser, of Jersey, left Tuesday night over the Erie for Trinidad, Col., where they have secured profitable employment.

William Connell Brings Home His Bride from the Silk Capital. William Connell, a well known Carbondale, came home last night with his young bride, to whom he was wedded yesterday forenoon at her home in Paterson, N. J.

Those from This City Who Will Serve Next Month. Carbondale is well represented in the list of jurors drawn yesterday to serve during the weeks of May 12, 19 and 26.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

Clark Bros., of Scranton, who are to open a general store in the Aitken and Albrecht buildings, have not chosen their manager as yet.

the pulpit of the Welsh Presbyterian church. He preached in the morning and evening, in English at one service and Welsh at the other.

Arthur W. Haslam leaves today to take up his residence with his family in Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Haslam, it will be remembered was advanced from the position of local representative of the International Correspondence schools to a position on the road as special agent.

George Griswold has gone to Scranton to assume the duties of assistant superintendent for the Prudential Insurance company in that city.

Lucretia lodge, Daughters of Rebekah had a distinguished visitor on Tuesday evening, Mrs. Annie Cogswell, the state president of the order.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Raymond the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin, formerly of Fallbrook street, this city, died Tuesday night at the present home of the family in Scranton.

Bridget O'Malley against Patrick Scott was tried in criminal court at Scranton yesterday, and resulted in a verdict of not guilty, the defendant to pay the costs.

The case was somewhat trivial. The parties are neighbors on the West Side. Mrs. O'Malley said something that riled Scott, who, it is claimed, struck her.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D., assisted by Rev. Ernest Melville, pastor of St. James' Episcopal church, of Fort Edward, N. Y., a guest at the parsonage.

The bride was gowned in a beautiful brown bronzed silk, with trimmings of white-tucked silk, brown velvet, and white applique.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

The groom is one of the most highly esteemed among Carbondale's young men, and holds a responsible position among the conductors of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad company.

Kelly, who has been added to the corps of Carbondale teachers. She is a graduate of the Carbondale high school and has the essentials of a good teacher.

An Exceptional Repertoire Company. The May Fiske company which opens at the Grand tonight for five performances, is an exceptionally fine repertoire company.

A feature of the attractions are Mrs. Gen. Tom Thumb and her midget husband the baron. The opening performance will be tonight, when "The Little Maggot," will be produced.

McGowan Cases Settled. The reunion of Mr. and Mrs. John McGowan, through their marriage before Alderman Howe in Scranton on Saturday last, was the means of disposing of the three cases against McGowan, which were marked for trial in criminal court yesterday.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

When the cases were called, in all of which Mrs. McGowan would have to appear against her husband to seriously accuse him, it was announced to Judge Edwards that the couple were now reunited and seemingly forgetful of those happenings.

Advertisement for 'Every Woman' medicine, featuring a woman's portrait and text describing its benefits.