MISSIONARY WORKERS FINISH CONVENTION

Twenty-fourth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Scranton District of the Lackawanna Presbytery Closed at Noon Yesterday—Old Officers Re-named, with Two Exceptions. Resolutions Adopted—An Uplifting Devotional Meeting—Led by Mrs. W. H. Scranton—The Day's Doings.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Scranton district of the Lackawanna Presbytery is now in its twenty-fifth year. The closing of the year just ended closed yesterday at noon in the First Presbyterian church in this city.

Among the most important transactions of the sessions, which was brimful of interest and helpfulness to the enthusiastic and zealous missionary workers was the selection of officers for the present year. A few changes took place, new names appearing in the place of the second vice president and the secretary of literature. The officers are: President, Mrs. Martin Kays, Scranton, re-elected; vice president, Mrs. Charles Lee, Carbondale; second vice president, Mrs. Andrew Thompson, Honesdale; financial secretary, Mrs. T. S. Morgan, Scranton, re-elected; corresponding secretary, Miss Grace Chamberlain, Dunmore, re-elected; secretary of literature, Mrs. W. H. Freeman, West Scranton; assistant secretary, Miss Louise Williams, Green Ridge.

It will be somewhat of an honor to be an officer this year, as this is the year which will mark the silver jubilee of the Scranton district. Another interesting feature of the last meeting was the devotional hour conducted by Mrs. W. H. Scranton, whose deep, religious feeling left its impress on those who joined with her in offering thanksgivings for the rich harvest in the missionary field, at the same time asking for renewed strength and zeal in the blessed work of spreading the light of the gospel in the darkened lands.

There was a splendid paper presented by Mrs. J. E. Burr, on "Progress of Missions During the Last Decade," which contributed largely to warming the zeal of those who heard it.

That these meetings were as interesting and helpful as any that have been held in the district, the delegates, who came filled with zeal, left stronger in their resolution and courage to further the progress in which they are enlisted. The only regrettable circumstance was

A NEW BABY. Old One Made Over by Grape-Nuts. A delicious food that is nourishing for both mother and infant may be depended upon to fit other people. This mother's story is interesting.

"My baby is now a fine, robust little fellow two years and six months old, but I had a dreadful time with him at first. I could not nurse him because I was so weak I did not have the milk for him. I gave him different kinds of foods, but he was crying nearly all of the time and would vomit after every meal.

"His condition worked on my nerves dreadfully and I called in Dr. Campbell. After inquiring carefully into the case, he said, 'You send at once for some Grape-Nuts. Take four teaspoonfuls in a cup of hot milk on going to bed, also feed your baby on some of the food in hot milk.'

"Well, I followed the doctor's advice with good results at once. I could nurse my baby and he began to improve immediately. I, myself, got strong and well very rapidly.

"The neighbors were, of course, interested and they would always say, 'How fast you are improving.' 'How the little boy grows.' 'He don't look like the same baby, what are you feeding him?' 'I have had to tell them, one and all, how Grape-Nuts have brought us both back to health. I wish other mothers knew of the value of this food.'

that more of the townspeople were not present at the meetings, which were of interest to everybody.

The delegates leave Carbondale with the pleasantest thoughts of the hospitality of the ladies of the First church who entertained them during their stay in the city.

The Last Session.

The final session opened with an hour's devotional meeting, led by Mrs. W. H. Scranton. The objects of the prayers of the devoted workers were those in far-off lands who left here to unselfishly carry on the work of the Master among those who know not the faith. Many a fervent appeal went up for their success. During the hour, singing of anthems inspired and uplifted the band of workers.

The report of Miss Grace Chamberlain, corresponding secretary of the district, was eagerly listened to. On the whole it was quite satisfactory. The number of auxiliaries in the district for the year was 13, with a membership of 622, a gain of 84 over the previous year. There were 14 bands, with a membership of 316, indicating a loss of 47. There was a falling off in the 12 senior Christian Endeavor societies of 169 members; the total membership was 406. The Junior Christian Endeavor, 7 societies with a membership of 182, decreased 13 members. Two new societies were added: Junior, of Olyphant, and the seniors of the Washington street church, Scranton.

The banner society for the "Woman's Work" and "Over Land and Sea," was the society of the Second church, Scranton, having to its credit 60 of the former and 27 of the latter. It also led in the contributions.

The First church remains undisputed in its title as the largest membership and average attendance. The latter number is 45. In noting this, Miss Chamberlain suggested it would be well if the First church would give a hint as to how it managed to secure and maintain such good results.

The report of the secretary of literature, Mrs. T. J. Luce, while it showed an increase over last year, was not what Mrs. Kays, the presiding officer, held it should be. In discussing the report, Mrs. Kays affirmed that one could not take the proper interest in the work without being informed, and the only way to acquire information is to seek the source, namely, the magazines that report the labors of the missionaries in the field.

The paper on the mission work of the past decade, which Mrs. J. E. Burr, of this city, presented, was remarkably comprehensive, and to present all the facts which she marshaled so well called for a good deal more reading of various magazines and religious publications than one who did not have to deal with the subject, can conceive of. It was likewise replete with interest, the citing of the results of the past year, the banner year in foreign lands, being particularly edifying and an incentive to increased efforts.

Mrs. F. L. Hitchcock, of Green Ridge, gave an interesting report of her visit as a delegate to the general assembly in Philadelphia last April, and Mrs. Wells, of Green Ridge, read extracts from letters received from several missionaries.

There was some discussion as to whether it would be expedient to send a delegate from the district to the general assembly in Cleveland on April 23 next, but it was decided upon affirmatively. Mrs. George Blanchard, Mrs. Harriet Seymour and Mrs. S. M. Young were appointed to select a delegate. Mrs. Young was the choice.

The Resolutions.

After the nominations, which are given before, the committee on resolutions presented the following, which were adopted:

"Resolved, That in the name of the Scranton District of the Lackawanna Presbytery, we tender most hearty thanks to the ladies of Carbondale; to those ladies whose labors of love made the church bright and cheery with flowers artistically arranged; to Mrs. Briggs for her kind words of welcome to the hearts and homes, where the rich strings ever hangs out, as it were, put; to the entertainment and supper committees who so carefully provided for our comfort in the beautiful feast of good things so daintily served.

"Resolved, That the beautiful solo of Mrs. George Mills and the sweet singing of the choir were thoroughly appreciated, and added much to the spirit of praise.

"Resolved, That we especially thank Rev. Mr. Lee for his impressive words as we sat at the table of our Lord, words that brought us in close touch with the Master and one another; also to the elders who so kindly assisted him.

"Resolved, That the soul-stirring addresses of Mr. Janvier shall be held in grateful remembrance, and so far as in us lies, shall be seed sown in good soil, bringing forth fruit a hundred fold.

"Resolved, That we regret the removal from the city which takes from our midst, Mrs. Charles E. Robinson, of Scranton, our beloved co-worker whose influence will always remain; and we wish her God-speed in her journey through life. That we heartily commend the work in office and fittingly recognize the services and influence of Mrs. Rockwell, of Honesdale, retiring vice president, and Mrs. T. J. Luce, of Scranton, who leaves the office of secretary of literature with a faithful record. That we heartily thank Mrs. W. H. Scranton for her interest and devotion in leading the spiritual meeting of the morning, which proved so helpful.

Mrs. Kays was sincerely appreciative of the confidence which was expressed by the delegates in her re-nomination for president, indicating her feelings in kind earnest words.

Mrs. Wells addressed helpful words to the delegates, and Mrs. Kays wished them God-speed. Rev. Mr. Lee offered prayer and invoked the blessing, the doxology was sung and the meeting closed.

MONAHAN JOINS MONTREAL.

Promising Young Carbondale Player Goes Into Eastern League.

Richard runs with the speed of a young deer, uses the stick right or left and there are few twirlers whom he cannot hit. He and Christy Matthews played together in Honesdale's celebrated nine and in the practice games he was one of the few who could "find" the famous New York man's mystifying curves.

Mr. Monahan is young, wiry, his mode of living is clean and sober, and his play is confident. He will uphold the honor of this region on the diamond. He has been engaged for the season at a handsome salary. Seventy days of the season will be spent by his club in the historic city of Montreal.

ALDERMAN GRIER AGAIN.

The Irrepressible 'Squire' Is Heard From Again in Somerset County. Poor Board Wrestles with Doctor Problem Again.

The irrepressible "Alderman" Grier, of this city, is heard from again. His roving tendencies have made him celebrated. A few weeks ago the Carbondale poor board received an inquiry from the Somerset county officials as to how they would be recompensed for the support of the alderman at the almshouse there. He was their boarder for a week or more and referred to Carbondale as the town that would settle his account. He said that he had a residence in Carbondale. The poor board then the request came for the alderman's board, didn't devote any evening to discussing the merits of the claim. It was decided forthwith that the alderman might have had a claim on Carbondale some time ago but that he had no residence here and was entitled to nothing in the way of support.

Last night the poor board heard from the alderman again. He is again at the Somerset county almshouse, with apparently fixed intentions to remain there until removed. The Somerset officials have tired of supporting him with no prospect of paying his bill, and threatened in the communication read last night, to get an order of removal on Grier. As this would mean that the roving alderman would be sent up Carbondale way and the Carbondale poor district would be compelled to settle, the directors hastened to rid themselves of the obligation by directing their solicitor, Attorney H. C. Butler, to explain to the Somerset officials that Grier has no claim on Carbondale.

The board was thrown into a kind of a ferment at last night's meeting by the resurrection of the doctor question, which it was supposed had gone into an eternal sleep. The stir was caused by an offer that came from Dr. Fike, of Dundaff. The doctor agreed to visit the poor farm once each week, and provide all medicines, except cod liver oil, for $5 per year.

Mr. Lynch was in favor of accepting the proposition, but in urging his acceptance he had in mind that the physicians from Carbondale proposed to charge five dollars per visit to the almshouse. He deemed it a matter of economy in the face of this to engage Dr. Fike.

Chairman McCabe protested against engaging a doctor outside of Carbondale, who was not a tax-payer while there was a number of Carbondale doctors who were heavy tax-payers. Mr. McCabe also suggested that he was informed by one of the doctors here that he would make visits to the farm for three dollars per visit.

When Mr. Lynch learned this he withdrew his support of Dr. Fike's proposition, agreeing to wait until something definite in the way of a proposition would be received from Carbondale physicians. The matter will rest until it is ascertained what the disposition of the local practitioners is.

The bond of Morgan Thomas, treasurer, for $6,000, the Fidelity company, sureties, was received and accepted. The board decided to visit the poor farm on Monday, the newspaper men to accompany the directors on the inspection.

A HOUSE RAIDED.

Three Persons Taken in a Pull by Constable Moran.

Constable Moran, of Alderman Atkinson's court, early yesterday morning raided a house along the Delaware and Hudson railroad opposite the Hendricks works. Three persons were taken, Bruno Yonnett, Mrs. Blackmore and Nora Bryden.

Yonnett is the alleged proprietor of the ill-governed place. Mrs. Blackmore and the Bryden woman have been in the courts on several occasions heretofore. Yonnett was able to furnish bail, but Mrs. Blackmore and her companion were sent to jail in default of security.

Two More Big Houses.

Two more thronged houses were at the Grand yesterday, when May Fiske and company gave a matinee, "Peg Woffington," and an evening performance, "Under Two Flags."

While the dramatic part of the performances was satisfactory, the vaudeville features were easily the most popular. In fact, nearly all of the interest and enjoyment centered round the three midlets, Mrs. Tom Thumb, her husband, the count, and the baron. Their entertainment is certainly clever and is rollickingly funny. The musical act and the illustrated songs likewise meet with much applause. There will be two performances today, matinee and evening.

The Recherche's Dance.

The dance conducted in the Burke building last evening under the patronage of a coterie of young men, under the name of the Recherche dancing class, was a highly enjoyable social event. There was a host of young people present, who found the dancing and other social diversions a continued source of pleasure. Fifth provided music.

At Work Again.

It will be good news to the many friends of Fireman Charles Hull to hear that he is well enough to return to work. He is back at his old job as lithograph man for the Grand Opera house, and will quit today about town yesterday for the first time since his terrible disaster of last November.

FOR FIRE ALARM KEYS.

Convenient Boxes to Hold Them Erected Throughout the City.

The small glass boxes which were ordered by council as receptacles for keys for the fire alarm boxes were put in place this week.

The convenience which they will provide will be fully appreciated before the glass-fronted boxes. Their use will dispense with the delay that might be occasioned in the event of a holder of one of the keys, as in the past, not being at home, or in the event of a delay in arousing one in the middle of the night. The danger of the old custom was so obvious, it would seem that the wonder that it was not abolished long ago. It was more through good luck than anything else that some disaster did not follow in the wake of the custom that has been got rid of with the introduction of the new boxes. The keys now hang in the glass-front box, beside the alarm box, and can be gotten at once in the case of fire.

The Tribune agitated this new plan only it suggested the same style of box as that now in use in Scranton. By the scheme in vogue there, the key kept in the key hole of the alarm box all the time and cannot be removed by any one except the chief or his assistants. A small metal box, with a glass front, the box being not more than two inches square, covers the key. When one wishes to turn in an alarm, he breaks the small thin piece of glass, which exposes the key. The key is then turned and the box is opened.

To Councilman John Evans, of the Sixth ward, however, is due the credit for the adoption of the plan which has just been given its trial. He introduced the resolution providing for the boxes, and it was adopted by both branches of council. The wisdom of the resolution will be amply justified before long.

Mr. Evans, it might be of interest to mention was impelled to the step leading to the introduction of the resolution by a personal experience the night of a fire during the week of the centennial celebration. Some one wanted to procure the fire alarm key which was kept in his house. The stranger had considerable difficulty in making his wish known to Mr. Evans, who had retired for the night. The delay that was experienced impressed Mr. Evans with the necessity for a change from that plan of distributing keys among private residences. The introduction of the resolution followed soon afterward.

TWAS RECORD TIME.

Response Made by Mitchell Team in Trial Wednesday Night.

The members of the Mitchell Hose company, discussing with interest and satisfaction the record which was made in hitching the team on Wednesday night, before the guests at the banquet, who repaired from the hall to the quarters to witness the exhibition.

Two tests were made, one while the men were down stairs, the other when they were in the bunk room. From the time the tap was sounded in the first instance until the horses were hitched and the driver had the reins in hand, it was 13 1/2 seconds. The men then went up stairs. The tap was sent in once more. There was a scramble for the sliding pole, and in an instant every man was ready for the start. In 2 1/2 seconds the horses were ready for an alarm. The members are exceedingly proud, and they have right, too, over the splendid record.

The guests who made up the delegation marveled at the work and heartily congratulated the wide-awake Mitchell boys.

A UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT.

Mr. C. Edgar Rosencrans to Appear Here Wednesday, April 23.

The chalk talk is now generally recognized as a most popular form of modern entertainment, but it has never been given in this city by a master of the art, under auspices to invite an appreciative audience.

Mr. C. Edgar Rosencrans, a pleasant announcement that Mr. C. Edgar Rosencrans, "The Humorist of the Paint Brush," will appear in this city under local management, Wednesday afternoon and evening, April 23. He is under the general management of the Antin Bureau, and after winning fame in every well known city, he is now presented as their very best attraction. Every child in the city should see Mr. Rosencrans in the afternoon performance.

HEADACHE CHARMED.

It is the Experience of Scranton People That Proves the Magical Effect of Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills with Sick and Nervous Headache. HOW A DRUGGIST WAS CURED OF GRIP AFTER EFFECTS. He Tells a Reporter the Reason Why He Recommends Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

A man who can speak authoritatively on medicines is Mr. J. S. McEliwee, Ph. G., manager of the Red Cross Drug store, in Dover, N. J. Years of experience has demonstrated to him that one preparation excels all others as a remedy for diseases arising from the blood and nerves. When asked by a reporter what he considered the best medicine for such diseases he said: "I have recommended hundreds of people to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People for I know both from observation and personal experience what they will do in restoring health."

"You say you have tried them yourself?" "Yes, and with the best of results. I had a severe attack of the grip last spring," he continued, "and it left my system in a bad condition. I was much run down, weak and listless, nervous, food didn't appeal to me—in short, I was generally miserable. I had had previous experience with other tonics and they had done me no good. But I knew what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills would do and I began taking them. Three boxes restored me to health, strength and good spirits. They are a splendid blood-maker and nerve tonic. My wife has taken them with great benefit and she believes in them as thoroughly as I do."

It is of the utmost importance to your health if you have suffered from the grip, that you should cleanse the system of the lingering germs and put it in condition to resist and ward off diseases.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves and they are an unfailing specific not only for the after-effects of the grip, but for fevers and all other acute diseases but also for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions and all forms of weakness either in male or female. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, fifty cents a box; six boxes, two dollars and fifty cents, by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. OBITUARY.

MRS. JAMES R. LATHROPE, who left Carbondale ten years ago, after a residence here of about twenty years, died at her home in New York city on Thursday night. The end came somewhat unexpectedly. Mrs. Lathrope had been suffering from an attack of acute pneumonia, but appeared to be improving. Wednesday, a relapse came that was quickly followed by death.

Mrs. Lathrope was beloved by many friends in this city, among whom she exerted her gentle influence during her years of association here. Her loss will be deeply mourned. Mrs. Lathrope was a native of Richmond, Va., and went with her family to Washington, D. C., by reason of the feeling that arose during the war. She wedded James Lathrope in Washington about thirty-five years ago, coming to Carbondale in 1872, when her husband became cashier of the then newly-organized Miners' and Mechanics' bank. Until recently, she was matron of Roosevelt hospital, in New York city, of which her husband was superintendent. Besides Mrs. Lathrope, one daughter, Mrs. Rothschild, of New York, also survives.

The Last of Mr. Waring's Series of Lectures.

Rev. Luther Hess Waring, of Scranton, who has delivered monthly lectures at the Berean Baptist church for the last five months, completes his course of five lectures next Monday evening. His subject will be "A Sunday in Rome." The interest and attendance upon these lectures have so increased as to warrant the opening of the auditorium, and the inviting of the general public.

Mr. Waring is a delightful lecturer upon travel, and should be heard by a large audience. A silver offering will be taken for the work of the Baptist Young People's union.

The Sick Who Are Improving.

Ex-Councilman John Evans, of the Sixth ward, who has been confined to his home by sickness for two weeks, was able to be about yesterday. Mr. Evans' affliction came at a most inopportune time, preventing him from attending the ceremonies making the change of city officials.

Mrs. Thomas Davis, of Eighth avenue, who has been in a critical condition at varying periods for several weeks, is able to sit up these days.

The Men's Meeting.

Glen Tallman will lead the men's morning prayer meeting tomorrow morning at the Berean Baptist church. These meetings have now entered upon the last half of their first year, with a growing interest.

The Knights' Dance.

Carbondale council, Knights of Columbus, will hold the annual dance in the Burke building, on Wednesday evening, April 23. Arrangements are under way to make it the big social event that it is each year.
