. The schedule which was originally prepared for the newly organized Scranton Bowling league is being altered to suit the convenience of some of the teams, but will be finished by Sunday. The first games are to be rolled on Wednesday night.

There will be eight teams and six alleys to roll on, the Backus, Hampe, Auditorium, Elks, Becker and Zuleger's The teams which have just finished their first series in the City league will be materially strengthened all around, and several of the best players in the Northeastern league have bid for and secured places on several of the teams. Higher scores and better all-around bowling should result.

Three match games between two picked teams, captained by Phil Roll and "Billy" Hopkins, were rolled last night on Zuleger's alleys. Roll's team won out by a small margin. The score:

Worthy of Consideration.

An editor's opinion is always worthy of consideration, for he is accustomed to giving a matter due consideration before expressing his ideas of it. David R. Forbes, editor of the Sun. Quarryville, Pa., says: "The name Chamberain is synonymous with everything that is good. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I can particularly endorse. having used it myself quite frequently with the best results, whenever bothered with a cold." For sale by all

HIGH AVERAGE & Creat Sale of Jewelry

Commences April 12th and continues for two weeks. We have made special arrangements with the manufacturers to have on exhibition and sale an extensive line of Jewelry and the prices are on a "50 Cents on the Dollar" basis. We do this to introduce our permanent jewelry department and you can have no idea of the "Bargains" without seeing them. You'll do well to, at least, look.

Remember the Special Prices Are Only While the Sale Lasts.

The more you know of this sale the greater your appreciation. Having bought for less we sell for less than the usual retail prices. In fact, this is a great underselling event. It won't interfere with our usual great selling of dry goods, however.

A return game will be played on the Green Ridge alleys in the near future

A very respectable "pot" was made up on Thursday night on the Electric City Wheelmen's alleys among the members of the Black Diamond team. The man making the highest average was to receive the total amount and Eddie Pryor made such good scores in the first two games that he thought he had it cinched. He was so busy devising ways and means for spending the money that he became careles whereat one Frank Foley stepped in and rolled a splendid game, taking the prize. Pryor was so dissappointed that he hasn't recovered yet.

The splendid trophy won by the Backus team, the leaders in the Northeastern league second series, has been formally presented to Captain Hopkins and occupies the most prominent place in the Backus cafe.

ATTRACTIONS TODAY.

LYCEUM-"Way Down East." Afternoon ACADEMY-Waite Comedy company, Aftercon and night.

"Way Down East."

That this country is fond of the pastoral drama is now almost axiomatic. "That Way Down East," presented last night at the Lyceum is a primal favorite in this type of play is likewase a close approach to a self-evident truth. Leastwise, in Scranton is holds a first rank in this class of drama. Although it was to have three presentations and the weather was very forbid. presentations and the weather was very forbid-ding the box office had to shut down last night as the curtain went up on the first act.

It is not to be marveled at that "Way Down East" can pack theaters night after night, year after year. Lottic Blair Parker in this story of plain people and their homely joys and sorrows has constructed a tale so full of heart interest that the emotions of the most phlegmatic must be moved, and William A. Brady in producing it, and Joseph R. Grismer in embellishing it with various elever artiflees of modern stagecraft, have left nothing that might add to efficiency of the telling of the tale.

The presentation of "Way Down East" calls for not less than ten specialists, and they are to be found in the company now presenting the play here. Vina Ogden was born to fit the part of the village gossip. Had the whole of stageland been searched, it is safe to say, the equal of this clever young woman for this most exacting part could not be found. Her work is real art. Flora Fairchild, as "Anna Moore"; Scott Cooper, as the "Squire"; Fred Backus, as the villain, and Philip Yale Drew, in the heroic part comprise a quartette of players whose work adds im measurably to the excellence of a very excellen show. The principal comedy parts, with which C. Blanchard, Edwin Chapman and E. H. The Bostonians.

All that taste and money can suggest is exem-plified in the production of "Maid Marian." De Koven's comic opera which will be sung by the Bostonians at the Lyceum theater Tuesday next. This company is so firmly established in the affections of music lovers that it is unnecessary to expatiate upon its merits. This season the original group of singers including those famous artists, Barnabee, MacDonald, Frothingham, Jo-sephine Bartlett, has been strongly reinforced by the addition of several young singers who, it is promised, will create a sensation.

Among the new comers are Allen Hinckley, a distinguished basso; Adele Rafeer, contralto; Grace Van Studdiford, soprano; Frank Rushworth, a handsome young tenor; William Dorrington, a most engaging baritone. "Maid Marian" will enmost engaging baritone. "Maid Marian" will on list the services of all the singers with this great

The Mary Griffin lodge, No. St. Rebekul's Independent Order of Odd Fellows, enjoyed a visit of high officials of their order on Thursday evening last, after which an elegant repast was served.

Georgiana Sage, a niece of one of the United States ambascadors abload, has been engaged for a part in "Dolly Varden." It has been definitely settled that Edna May will be seen in this country text season under Charles Frohman's management. E. S. Willard is to have a new play for next season from the pen of Louis Parker, and will not appear in London until 1903.

The "Atterbury" System

It's the concentration of effort that has perfected this system of Ready - to - Wear Clothes, and made it appreciated by men who always had their clothes made to order. The distinctive style is but one item that has made the "Atterbury" popular. Much thought is given to the design-ing and tailoring. Every garment is cut by a system which insures perfect whether you are tall, short, stout or slim. If you try on the "Atterbury" no further argument will be necessary.
