CITY ENGINEER F. E. KUPP RE-ELECTED fixed at $1.

Unanimously Chosen at Joint Meeting of Councils-His Efficiency Publicly Attested.

F. E. Kupp, whose term of office has just expired, was last night unanimously re-elected city engineer of Carbon-

In connection with his being returned te office, Mr. Kupp was given a flattering testimonial by the councilmen. Though only the councilman, Dr. Fletcher, who placed him in nomination, took occasion to speak of his effi-ciency, yet every one of the seventeen councilmen silently approved of the speaker's words, and would gladly endorse, orally, what Dr. Fletcher said if there was the oportunity, for no city engineer of Carbondale, it can be safely said, has earned the approbation and esteem of councils as has Mr. Kupp. When councils came together after the separate sessions, Chairman Davis, of select council, was called upon to preside. When the nominations for city engineer were called for, Dr. Fletcher, of select, arose and, in presenting Mr. Kupp's name, said:

'Mr. Chairman, I take great pleasure in presenting the name of F. E. Kupp, who has proven so faithful in the past." Mr. Nealon, of common council, seconded the nomination.

As indicated in The Tribune yesterday, there was no opposition to Mr. Kupp. The roll-call was proceeded with, all of the seventeen members present. Mr. Cook, of common council, being the only absentee, recording their vote for

When the vote was recorded and Mr. Kupp's re-election was announced, Mr Pugliano, of common, raised the call for the engineer, amid the hearty applause of the members on both sides of the house. The cry grew until it reached Mr. Kupp, who was in his office down the corridor. In a minute he came into select council chamber and bowed his acknowledgments. The counsellmen, however, insisted on some sort of a speech. As was proven at the banquet of Monday night last, Mr. Kupp is a happy talker when called upon to respond to a teast, but on this occasion he seemed overwhelmed with the kindly feeling of councils. In a very few words, the earnestness of which indicated his feeling of gratitude, Mr. Kupp said that he hoped he would do nothing during his term which would make councils feel sorry for their action. "I've worked to the best of my of the city and will continue to do so rduring the next three years. I ask your sco-operation, and feel that if we work together, in harmony, everything will be all right." More applause and congratulations followed his utterances.

The confidence which councils expressed in Mr. Kupp by re-electing him was earned during his last term. He. has been one of the most painstaking of city officials and, above all, when the emergency arose he pitched into the work and labored the same as the lowest employe on the street department This devotion to his duties could not but be recognized and anpreclated by his re-election. Mr. Kupp's commences his second term with the utmost good will of councils and the citizens at large.

It can be said that there will be no change in the forces under Mr. Kupp. Street Foreman John Killeen has likewise earned his re-appointment, being a most valuable ally of Mr. Kupp and, perhaps, the most efficient foreman that the city inserver had.

Poor Board Directors Will Make an Inspection Today.

The directors of the Carbondale poor department will make their annual visit to the almshouse, over Greenfield way, foday. The party will feave the city hall at 10 o'clock, accompanied by representatives of the vicinity press.

This inspection, or visit, is an annual custom and follows the re-organization of the board each year. Last year it took place somewhat later, owing to the delay in fully organizing the board. This year, however, the directors unlerstand each other better, and there is that, unity that makes for a successful administration of the affairs of such bodies. This visit will enable the board to determine the necessary improvements and is always attended by good results for the poor of the district.

C. EDGAR ROSENCRANS.

Comment of Reading Times-Dispatch on His Splendid Work.

"The last of the series of entertainments in the members' course at the Young Men's Christian association was given last night before a highly delighted audience. It was an evening with Mr. C. Edgar Rosenerans, 'The Humorist of the Paint Brush,' who furnished amusement for more than two hours with his cartoons and witty comments. Mr. Rosencrans possesses a high degree of artistic ability and a rich and rare quality of humorous perception. His sketches were executed with great rapidity and precision, the Hustrations of the songs being beautiful productions, and won for him enthusiastic applause. Mr. Rosencrans exhibited great versatility in his delineation of characters and the lecture was constantly lighted up with flashes of wit and touches of philosophy and pathos." NEW ERIE TERMINAL.

The News in The Tribune About the Terminal Change Was Correct.

The news which appeared exclusively in The Tribune yesterday that the terminal of the Erie on the Jefferson branch was to be changed from Susquehanna to Carbondale has been confirmed. Notices have been posted to this effect, the change to take place on May 1.

The new order of affairs will bring fourteen railroad men to this city, together with their families. The order affects two train crews and all of the roal crews, leaving the way freight men and those on the passenger train service, only, to have Susquehanna as their terminal. The change has been brought about by the circumstance that empty cars do not return by way of Carbondale, but over the Erle and Wyoming through Hawley. While the change will benefit Carbondale, it will greatly inconvenience most of the fourteen men affected, as some own properties in Susquehanna. They are not satisfied, and have asked Superintendent Ames to change the order.

WILL CARE FOR CHILDREN.

Steps Taken in the Case of Mrs. Kate McNulty and Mrs. Mary Ellen Jordan.

Steps were taken yesterday to properly care for the children of Mrs. Kate McNulty and Mrs. Mary Ellen Jordan, who have been woefully neglected be-cause of the almost habitual dissipation of the parents. Both Mrs. McNulty and Mrs. Jordan were arrested Sunday and taken before Mayor O'Neill yesterday on charges of being drunk and disorderly in the neighborhood of their homes, on Hospital street. The mayor did not use much ceremony in disposing of the charges against the women, but discreetly fined them $10 each, with the alternative of thirty days in jalk Neither one had the money, and yesterday they were taken to the county

Now that Mrs. Jordan, who is a widow, and Mrs. McNulty are temporarily out of the way, as it were, the steps necessary to place the children in some institution will be taken. The little ones have been so neglected and have been so exposed to grave moral dangers by their parents' example that the authorities were impelled to this action. Persons interested in charitable work have taken the initiative in the matter and will carry it to the end.

Temporarily the children are in the hands of relatives, who will give them the necessary care until their removal
