

AMES BUCKLEY VICTIM OF A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

While Standing on the Street He Was Run Down by an Unknown Peddler and Seriously Injured. Weekly School Deposits of Collections-Wahnetas and Open Window Club Will Entertain Their Friends-Other News Notes and Personal Paragraphs.

James W. Buckley, who resides at 343 North Sumner avenue, met with Episcopal church Friday evening a peculiar accident yesterday morning at the corner of Lafayette street and lunner avenue, with the result that he s now suffering from a compound fracture of his leg.

He was standing in the street, talking with a teamster, when a peddler came along, driving a light wagon. The latter drove so close to Buckley that he was unable to get out of the way, and was run down and sustained the injury noted. The peddler whipped up his horse and escaped before his identity was revealed.

The injured man was assisted into the home of Mrs. Gideon Moser, and later removed to his home. Dr. George b. Reynolds was summoned and reduced the facture.

It will be under the leadership of Musical Director C. B. Derman, and the who was arrested on complaint of his solo parts will be taken up by the tal. ented singers, Miss Lydia Sniler, so prano, and Thomas Gipple, tenor. Th performers and chorus will be assisted by Bauer's orchestra, and members of the Sabbath schools, The cantata illustrates the Jowish Feast of Tabernacles, or Harvest Feast, and also represents the return of the Jews from captivity in Babylon

> Aldermanic Cases. Peter Batchelor preferred charges yesterday, against Bernard Koerner, of obtaining goods under false pretenses The evidence given before Alderman Lentes was that the defendant obtained farm produce, such as apples. potatoes, etc., by representing that he owned property and would pay for the goods on delivery. After the hearing the defendant agreed to settle and the case was withdrawn on his paying the amount and costs. Joseph Heller, of West Scranton, appeared before Alderman Lentes, last evening, and preferred a serious charge against his wife and a man named Burns, in whose house the complainant formerly lived. Heller stated that he had reason to suspect his wife for several years, as she was in the habit of absenting herself from home. Sunday evening he followed her and saw her meet Burns in a secluded spot. He could contain himself no longer. and exclaiming "I caught you at last," assaulted her escort. Burns showed the marks of ill usage at the hearing, but denied the charge, and the case was discharged for lack of corroborative evidence. Band Elect; Officers.

Officers for the coming year have been elected by the Ringgold band, as follows: President, George Hartman; vice president, John Mehl; leader. Jacob Guth: secretary, Niel O'Donnell; treasurer, Christ Liebrich; trustees, August Miller, Henry Mehl, and Gus Mehren. The band will meet every

MEETING OF MEN'S SOCIETY LAST NIGHT.

Address by Rev. William Hollinshed, of Forest City, on "The Catacombs of Rome"-It Was the Last Meeting of the Present Season. North End Stars Defeated at Basket Ball by the High Works Team. Notes Concerning the North End Glee Society.

The last meeting of the North Scranton Men's society for the term was conducted last night in the lecture room of the Providence Presbyterian church. The especial feature was a lecture on the catacombs of Rome, by Rev. William Hollinshed, of Forest City. He gave a most interesting account f these underground tombs, in which the early Christians buried their dead and conducted their services. He exhibited charts of several of the catacombs and several souvenirs picked up in them.

Prior to the lecture, plano solos were rendered by the Misses Summers and Hill. A vote of thanks was tendered by the members present to those who had entertained at the meetings throughout the year. Resolutions on the deaths of two members, Charles Henwood and William J. Lewis, were also adopted.

Stars Defeated.

Betere a large audience, the High Works team defeated the North End Stars last night, by the score of 12 to 8. The Stars were pretty well crippled up, as John Tighe, their center, was unable to be in the game, on ecount of injuries received in last week's game.

Elligy, for the High Works, played the star game for his team, while J. McCluskie did the star playing for the Stars. The following was the line up of both teams:

Goals were thrown from the field by lligy, for the High Works, and J. Mc-Cluskie, for the Stars.
