In Girlhood

There is a great need of motherly watch fulness and care. A growing girl needs all her strength, and if she is nervous and melancholy, and loses appetite there is surely something wrong. This is espe-cially true as the young girl approaches that important period of change when the womanly function is established. Timely care and proper treatment at this period may save much after suffering. The best medicine for young girls who are neryous, melaucholy, and irregular of appetite, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures neryousness, diz-ziness, and melancholy, promotes the appetite, and gives the body robust health. There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and rrescription and it is entirely free from opium, co-caine, and all caine, and all other narcotics.

"My draphter was troubled with dizziness and constitution and was very nervous for five years," writes Mrs. M. Carter, of 1545 4th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. "I tried several doctors but they gave her no relief. At times she would est nothing, had green and purple circles under her eye and was melancholy. A woman friend of min, told me to try your 'Favorite Prescription' a d' Pleasant Pellets' which I did. After tele ng out bottle of each she hegan to improve and is still improving. People said she looked as though she were going into a decline, she is twelve years old. There are no circles around her eyes now and she is healthy and robust, eats as much as any child, and is growing fatter every day."

The Catholics are holding a fair at Athens this week. Amusement was afforded the small boy and others on Saturday evening, when it became known that a married voman had just gone through the street attired in man's clothing, wearng a Fedora hat and raglan. Everyhing was still and the crowd still rubbered and stretched their necks,' when a down-town resort was reached and the woman gained admittance and was ushered in by the proprietress. The game was caught, the visitor discovered her husband, and of course he made up his mind to take his departure with the one he first loved. street was all right for a block or more, but then a darker street suited the gentleman better in completing the journey home with his first love. Two candidates are now mentioned for the Towanda postmastership, D. J. Sweet and D. M. Turner, the present official, who has filled the position to the general satisfaction of all patrons. It has been suggested by Congressmar the patrons of the office to decide the matter.

Waverly tomorrow, continuing until expected to be present, including other members and visitors. Bishop S. M.
