FOUND MONEY ON M'LAREN

JURY SAID HE WAS GUILTY OF LARCENY.
The Victim of McLaren's Operations Was LeGrand Vail, of Scott—The Men Who Attacked Lovelace Near Bull's Head Were Tried Before Judge Newcomb—Former Constable of Old Forge Is Charged with Having Attempted to Extort Money—Other Criminal Cases.

Before Judge E. C. Newcomb, in the main court room yesterday, Frank McLaren was tried for robbing LeGrand Vail, of Scott, $10 in Neary's hotel in Olyphant, on Feb. 14. Vail had a load of hay to sell and went into Neary's hotel to show Thomas Marshall the bill giving the weight of the hay. After showing the weigh-bill he missed $10 from his purse and Neary closed the doors of the place and said no one should leave until the $10 was found. Constable John Murray was sent for and McLaren, who was suspected of taking the money, was stripped and searched. According to the commonwealth's witnesses, the $10 was found in McLaren's clothes.
 This he denied. He said Vail found his $10 under a table and the placed it in his (McLaren's) clothes, to make it appear he stole it. The accused was defended by Attorney Charles E. Daniels. The jury found the accused guilty of larceny and recommended him to the mercy of the court.
 John Leone and Dominick Valpe were tried in the main court room for robbery and Valpe was also tried for discharging firearms and carrying concealed weapons. Frank Lovelace testified that one night, about two months ago, he went into the store of Anthony Ruddy, near Bull's Head, to make a purchase, and from there went to the store of O. V. Palmer, a block up the street. It was night and he noticed two men who seemed to be dogging his footsteps. When he came out of Palmer's store, they followed him, and when he reached a point near Ruddy's store, the two men grabbed him and knocked him down. He struggled and yelled, and Ruddy rushed out of his store to Lovelace's assistance. The two men were put to flight, and as they turned at Valpe, who was one of them, drew a revolver and fired two shots, one of which shattered a window in Ruddy's store and the other lodged in the woodwork over the transom.
ARRESTS MADE.
 By this time, the police had arrived and Leone was taken into custody at once. Valpe was arrested some time afterwards and his revolver was found in an ash barrel in the rear of the Beale residence.
 The defense was that there was snow on the sidewalk and that only a narrow passage way had been cleared on the sidewalk. As they passed Lovelace, they jostled against one another and Lovelace became angry and attacked them, knocking them down. Ruddy came rushing at them and, becoming frightened, Valpe tried to seize him away. The jury returned its verdict at adjourning hour.
 David Freeman, of Old Forge, was on trial before Judge E. C. Newcomb at adjourning hour on the charge of selling liquor without a license. The prosecutor was former Constable Fred Addison. He testified that he bought intoxicating liquors in Fredman's place a number of times before he returned him to court. The defense is because he would not be paid the sum of $20 which he demanded, and that furthermore Freeman is a butcher and never sold intoxicants, but that his father-in-law did under the license of Philip Swartz, by whom he was employed.
 Gomer John pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing goods from the store of William Chappell at Priceburg. He is only 16 years of age. He stole three scotch shovels, a pair of boots and a coat.

A MOTORMAN BADLY BEATEN

C. B. HOTTELING DIDN'T WEAR A UNION BUTTON.
This Enraged a Crowd of Men Who Boarded a Duryea Car Last Night and They Proceeded to Thump and Kick Him in a Brutal Manner—Car Was Going Down Hill and Was Stopped with Difficulty—Hincley the Union Conductor Was Not Harmed.

C. B. Hotteeling, a motorman in charge of a Duryea car, was badly used up last night by a crowd of men while making a down trip. The trouble originated because he was not wearing one of the union buttons, which the returned strikers have pinned on the lapel of their coats.
 Hotteeling was one of the men who was employed during the recent strike. He was working yesterday with H. C. Hincley, one of the union men, who wore one of the buttons. A large crowd of young men boarded the car at Luzerne street last night about 10:30 o'clock and a number of them took a place on the front platform. Their first inquiry when they entered the car was as to whether or not Hotteeling had a button. Hincley, to avoid trouble, told them he thought he had.
 The crowd on the front platform began to annoy Hotteeling when they found he had no button and finally one of them pulled off his hat. Just as one of them made a pass as if to strike him, Hotteeling pulled off the controller handle and struck at the fellow. This was at a point near the Jersey store, and the car was on a down grade.
 The fellows on the platform seized Hotteeling and began to punch him. One of them tore the handle from his hand and tossed it into the road. As they held him over the gate and thumped and kicked him, the car was going down the street and kicked and thumped some more. The crowd finally let up on him and he was allowed to run the car through to Duryea. None of the names of the men who assaulted him could be learned.
 He sustained serious body bruises and it is believed that one of his ribs was broken by a kick.
 The wearing of "buttons" by the union trolley men is likely to cause trouble. General Manager Sullivan on Sunday last ordered the inspectors to report the name of every man wearing one of the buttons. No intimation has been given yet as to the general manager's object in securing the names.
TWO DEAF MUTES ARRESTED.
 Offense so Trivial the Case Was Summarily Dismissed.
 Michael Cunningham, of River street, appeared before Alderman Ruddy yesterday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of his next door neighbor, Mr. and Mrs. John Peck, on the charge of malicious mischief.
 When the constable came in with the defendants, last evening, it developed that both were deaf mutes. When it further developed that the offense charged against them was that they threw some waste water from their second-story apartments and that some of it splashed into a jar of milk on the prosecutor's windowsill, the alderman dismissed the case.
THIRD CATCHER SIGNED.
 E. J. Ratney, a catcher, of Portland, Conn., was yesterday signed by Manager Lawson for the Scranton team. He made a record last year with the Bristol, Conn., team. This makes three candidates for the position of catcher. The players are expected to be on hand before noon tomorrow and will be at practice tomorrow afternoon.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

A petition to have the court determine the mental condition of Annie Burr, who is now confined in the insane department of the Hillside House, was yesterday filed in the prothonotary's office by Thomas E. Durr.
 Freeman M. Millard, for his son, Andrew Millard, yesterday brought suit against Arthur Long, Mrs. Louisa Long, Charles Long, Edward Long and Bernard Long, partners, to recover damages for injuries sustained by the boy while getting into an elevator in the defendants' store on Dec. 1st. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney P. L. Hincley.
SMALLPOX DEVELOPMENTS.
 New Cases Reported to Dr. Houser Yesterday.
 Joseph Knott, a widower, residing at No. 28 Warner street, in the British North Patch, was examined by Dr. Houser yesterday, and it was discovered that he is suffering from a mild attack of smallpox.
 He had been ill about a week, and suspected that his ailment was the dreaded smallpox. A physician was called, who afterwards notified Dr. Houser. The patient was removed to the emergency hospital, and his household in the house to await further developments.
 Mrs. Thomas Griffiths, of Meade street, who is suffering from the disease, also has a week-old child sick in the house. A rash was discovered on the little one's body yesterday, and the indications point to another case of smallpox.
 Dr. Houser reports that all the patients at the emergency hospital are getting along nicely, and will recover.

PLEADED GUILTY.
 James Kane, aged 19 years, pleaded guilty to the charge of pointing a pistol at Patrolman Felix Ross of the North Scranton police station. Kane and a companion named Harris were crossing the Market street bridge a few months ago. They were intoxicated and Patrolman Ross placed them under arrest. They both pulled pistols. Harris was convicted at the last term of quarter sessions. Kane will be sentenced on Saturday.
 In court room No. 3, before Judge Edwards, Charles Koestler and Chester Dennis, of Peckville, were tried upon the charge of larceny and receiving. The story of the commonwealth was to the effect that the defendants stole several loads of oats from the barn of John Lillbridge, one of the Blakely poor directors. Miles Finch was also charged with the same offense, but pleaded guilty to the crime, and turned state's evidence. Finch said that he and the defendants stole the oats and sold them.
 The defendants both denied the charge, and said that Finch told them that he had made arrangements with Mr. Lillbridge to buy from him grain at 50 cents a bag, and asked them to go to Peckville and secure buyers at a dollar a bag, and that he would divide the proceeds. Attorney George Horn is assisting the commonwealth, and ex-District Attorney Jones appears for the defendants. Judge Edwards will charge the jury this morning.

O'MALLEY NOT GUILTY.
 A verdict of not guilty was taken in the case of Anthony O'Malley, prosecuted by Dudley Gordon for selling liquor without a license. The prosecution consented to this disposition on condition that the defendant pay the costs. At the last term of court the case was tried and the jury disagreed. The prosecutor did not have any better evidence to offer yesterday.
 A nol pros, on payment of the costs, was entered in the case of Alexander Grass and D. W. Smith, charged by Stephen Dyer with neglecting to keep a record. In two cases against Grass, charging receiving stolen goods, verdicts of not guilty were taken. The jury before whom Andrew Kri-
