Miss Powell Entertained. On Tuesday evening last Miss Margaret Powell entertained the employees of Meltrum, Scott & Co.'s store at her home at 541 Garfield avenue. Music and games were the diversions of the evening. Recitations were given by Miss Amelia Murdoch, solos by Mr. Morgan, Hawkins, and Mr. Weldy. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served after which the guests dispersed to their respective homes, well pleased with the evening's pleasures.

Funeral of Gahagan Boy. The funeral of young Joseph Gahagan, who died on Sunday from injuries received on the railroad, occurred yesterday morning from the family home on Chestnut street. A solemn high mass was celebrated in St. Patrick's Catholic church and interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

Events of This Evening. The first informal social of the Waltham Dancing class will be held this evening in Meier's hall. Bauer will furnish the music. A regular meeting of St. Patrick's Ladies' Irish Catholic Benevolent union, No. 692, will be held this evening in St. Leo's hall. The ladies of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church whose names begin with the initials, F, G, H, I and J will serve an initial supper in the church this evening.

General News Notes. David J. Jones and Miss Mina Lewis, both of North Scranton, were united in marriage at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., at the parsonage of the Jackson Street Baptist church. Reserved seats for the Conservatory concert in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, tomorrow evening may be obtained at Davis' drug store. Rev. Iorwerth Jones, of Maseg, Wales, will occupy the pulpit of the First Welsh Baptist church next Sunday, preaching in Welsh in the morning and English in the evening. The funeral of the late Mrs. Jane Morgan will take place tomorrow afternoon from the house, 49 Archbold street. Rev. Hugh Davis and Rev. Thomas de Gruchy will officiate. Mrs. A. B. Evans, of South Hyde Park avenue, entertained friends at a 3 o'clock tea Tuesday afternoon in honor of Captain and Mrs. James, of Wales, who are visiting here. The members of Court Etian Allen, Ancient Order of Foresters, will attend a banquet in Avoca tomorrow evening. John McCrea, of Minooka, and Miss Lizzie Joyce, of Jackson street, were united in marriage at St. Patrick's church at 4 o'clock yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland D. Thomas, of North Hyde Park avenue, have issued invitations for their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, which will be celebrated at their new home on April 21. A new assembly of the Royal Society of Good Fellows was instituted last night in D. D. Evans' hall by Supreme Deputy Organizer William Linsley, Jr. Thirty members were enrolled. The first dinner of the First Welsh Congregational church last evening was attended by a large and appreciative audience. The various numbers on the programme were well rendered by the children and this address, which was the upper served by the ladies of the Sherman Avenue mission last evening was well patronized and proved to be a social success. A large crowd attended the entertainment and social given in Meier's hall last evening by the Lincoln Heights Social club. The three men who were arrested for assaulting Frank Sipple are being held for a further hearing, as the prosecutor is unable to appear against them yet, owing to his illness. Day after tomorrow, Patrick Hughes, of South Filmore avenue, and Miss Ellen Burke, of Luzerne street, were united at 4.30 o'clock.

Entertaining Programme Rendered by the Young People of Christ-Lutheran Church.

An entertaining programme in German was rendered by the young people of the Christ-Lutheran church in Germania hall last evening. The programme was in three parts, the titles being "Auch ein Fest," or a "Good Time," "Das Feuer im Hotel," "Fire in the Hotel," and "Wer Hat's Gegeben," "Who Done It?" A solo by Fred Herman, "Unter den Palmen," was exceedingly well rendered and gained a vigorous encore. A soprano solo that was also well received was "Nobody Is Looking," by Miss Emma Scheuch. Graphophone selections were also a pleasant feature, rendered by Henry Schwenker. There was a good attendance, and those taking part in the entertainment were favorably received. Those taking the principal characters were: Herman Gogolin, Oscar C. Spitzer, August Urbatell, Herr Dietrich, Charles Scheuch, Adam Maus and Herr Schwenker. The musical solo by Emil Brugge, Katie Renke, Anna Berg, Marie Bleichert, Anna Hofner, Franz Jungkurth, Ida Kuhn, Ida Fuhlbrugge.

Behind a Mask.

Some grocers will try to sell you a package made to imitate NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT claiming it is "just as good"—it is not. Look at the box carefully—see that it reads "None Such" and has the picture of the "None Such" mince meat girl. Write us if your grocer refuses to immediately supply you. Merrell-Soule Co. Syracuse, N. Y.

Arrested and taken before B. C. Cooney, justice of the peace, charged by Robert Wilson with selling liquor without a license, Mr. List is employed as bartender for John Bink, who conducts a hotel at Dunmore corners. Justice Cooney put him under $500 bail for appearance at court. A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Benckert, of Dunmore, Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Hofsmann and son, of Hazleton. GROWING INTEREST IN THE MEETINGS

(Concluded from Page 5) such commanding influence as Harvard and Yale had men of Welsh blood share in their inception. Brown university, Phillips academy, Williams college and other institutions of learning also felt their influence. But Pennsylvania, which has been the local point of interest to the emigrant from Wales. They took high rank in civic, social and religious life. Among the Welshmen who played an important part in this commonwealth in its earlier days were David Lloyd, Thomas Lloyd, Thomas Ellis, Samuel Jennings, Griffith Owen, Richard Peters, Peter Evans, John Evans, George Thomas, Robert H. Morris, William Evans, Thomas Powell and many others. Into the Continental congress Pennsylvania sent nine delegates of Welsh extraction, and Anthony Morris was the first mayor of Philadelphia. A long line of others followed him in various offices of trust. No less than five of the presidents of these United States had Welsh blood flowing through their veins. What is true of the Commonwealth in Pennsylvania is largely true of other states, the speaker said, and he appeared to his hearers to act worthy of their noble ancestry in this land.

ULTIMATUM SERVED. Lackawanna Engineers Are Given Twenty-four Hours to Quit.

At a meeting of the striking mine workers of the Woodward, Pettibone and Avondale collieries, held yesterday in Edwardsville, it was decided to give the engineers and pumpmen at these mines twenty-four hours in which to quit work or have their names wiped from the rolls of the union. These men refused to obey the recent order calling upon them to strike. Delaware, Lackawanna and Western officials secured about forty men yesterday to fill the places of those who had been fighting the fire in the Jersey mine, but who quit work.

Worthy of Consideration. An editor's opinion is always worthy of consideration, for he is accustomed to giving a matter due consideration, before expressing his ideas of it. David R. Forbes, editor of the Sun, Quarryville, Pa., says: "The name Chamberlain is synonymous with everything that is good. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a can particularly endorse, having used it myself quite frequently with the best results, whenever bothered with a cold." For sale by all druggists.

Mr. Ellenwood was apparently in his usual health a few minutes before, and it is believed death was due to heart failure. The deceased had lived in this city since 1861, and was about 66 years of age. He was in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad over 40 years. He retired from the employ of the company in 1899. He is survived by the following children: George Ellenwood, Mrs. Jennie Nash, Miss Mattie Ellenwood and Joseph Ellenwood, all of this city. The body was carried into the house and Coroner Barry notified. Funeral arrangements, which will likely be in charge of the Foresters, to which deceased belonged, will be announced later.
