"A Runaway Girl."

Because "A Runaway Girl" was billed for Pittston and Carbondale there were those who went to the Lyceum last night expecting a poor presentation of the much talked of musical comedy success. These same were pleasurably disap-pointed. They did not see the original London ompany but they saw a very creditable presen-ation. Anyone who had not seen it on Broadvay would hesitate to pass an unfavorable criti-

Any discrepancy of this kind, however, is for-gotten in the contemplation of the funny work of Arthur Duan in the role of Plipper. His lines, of themselves, are plentifully funny to make the audience wish for no grid of Plipper. audience wish for no end of Flipper, but the lines are by far the least funny phase of Dunn's por-trayal of the part. The comical antics of the diminutive Dunn are way up in the front rank of the laugh provoking things of the stage of today. His every more is provocative of mirth today. Manager Charles H. Yale says the "Devil's Auc tion," which comes to the Lycoun next week, is the best paying piece of theatrical property in America, and gives the following reasons to sub-stantiate the claim:

First-It has been on the road continually for ineteen seasons. Second-It has always pleased its many thouands of patrens throughout the country, Third-It has always been kept up to the times with novelties and innovations, making it each eason a new show, simply retaining the old name on trade mark. Fourth-It has never presented anything to offend and caters to the ladies and children, Fifth-The theater-going public are always sure seeing what the management advertises.

Modjeska and James.

The return appearance of Modjeska and James n "Henry VIII" at the Lyceum is naturally the principal topic of playgoing gossip just now. It is expected the performance will be almost as brilliant in the light of a dramatic spectacle as in that of the histrionic genius of the two famous stars. The pomp, glitter and royal ex-travagance which the imagination conjures up in reading the play would lead one to look for some magnificent stage pictures in the coming production, especially since it is one of Wagenhals and Kemper's enterprises, from whom the public has become accustomed to expect so much There are several scenes in which these managers are said to have excelled themselves. One of these is the banquet hall in Cardinal Welsey's palace, which was afterwards known as Whitehall and now used as one of the offices of the British government. The ecclesiastical court at Blackfriars when Queen Katherine makes her arblime defense in the divorce proceedings is are other. That which has attracted the most conment, however, is perhaps the closing scene of the play, which represents the triumph of Anne Bullen and the christening of the infant Elizabeth. As already announced Mr. James will be seen as Cardinal Wolsey and Madame Modjeska cism. The only adverse comment that might be fairly made is that the female soloists were not quite up to the standard of the piece.

Dainty Duchess Burlesquers.

The coming attraction at the Star theater will be the Dainty Duchess Burlesquers, one of the most colossal shows in existence. This company will be seen here for three nights only, beginning Monday matince. The Dainty Duchest Bur lesquers, under the personal management of Wash Martin, will prescut one of the most gorgeous and costliest vaudeville and burlesque entertain-
