Speculation is rife as to who will be sent by conference to take the place of Rev., H. B. Benedict, as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in this place. Mr. Benedict has served this charge for four years, to the great satisfaction of all the people and the great upbuilding of the church, both spiritually and materially. His parishioners would greatly rejoice at his return to Montrose, but it is feared that the bishop will deem it wisdom to direct him elsewhere. There has been considerable talk of raising Mr. Benedict to the presiding eldership of the Binghamton district to succeed Elder Floyd. whose term is just expiring. A vote of the ministers of the district was taken on the presiding eldership since the meeting of the conference at Waverly and sixteen voted for Mr. Benedict as their choice, and their action was afterward made unanimous, and a committee was appointed to notify the bishop of the action taken. Nothing definite has been heard as to the bishop's action in the matter, but it is reported that another has been decided upon for presiding elder of this district. If such be the case, what just reason there can be for it is hard to understand, for certainly there is no fitter man in the
