

Connolly & Wallace Scranton's Shopping Center 123, 125, 127 and 129 Washington Ave.

OF INTEREST TO ALL WOMEN

Whether you are satisfied or not with your present Corset you will find a visit to our corset section profitable during the

Demonstration and Free Fittings Of Her Majesty's Corset

And other products of the Princess of Wales Company. These corsets have earned a reputation that is international. They have successfully outlived dozens of weakly imitators, and they have grown better and better as the years have passed.

We Are Delighted to Announce The Engagement of Madame Menska, an Expert Corsetiere, for All of the Week, Beginning Monday, April 28th—Make Free to Consult Her.

Don't fail to ask for the latest production of the Princess of Wales Corset, the best value ever offered. No. 87, Empire Shape. $1.00 Per Pair No. 841, Long Gored...

Both of these goods are designed by an expert, and are perfect as to their lines and will give better satisfaction than any other corset of the kind offered for sale.

Connolly & Wallace.

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Forest City, April 22.—One of our bright Forest City boys or girls should enter The Tribune's Educational Contest.

Owing to the Wyoming conference, there was no preaching service in the Methodist church Sunday. It was the general desire of the community that Rev. R. L. Clark be returned to Forest City, and the announcement of his return in this morning's Tribune was hailed with satisfaction.

Alderman J. P. Kelly and wife, of Scranton, were Forest City visitors today.

J. V. Conroy, of Scranton, called on friends in town over Sunday.

Rev. David Spencer, of Scranton, will lecture on the "Might of the Mites" in the Baptist church tonight.

Rev. J. C. Hogan, a former pastor of the Methodist church, has become pastor of the Emanuel meeting house in Tallmire, a large edifice, seating 1,500.

The building part of the winter or early fall will see a new Griner church in Forest City. There are about fifty families containing 500 persons of this nationality, and at present they are a part of St. Agnes' Roman Catholic congregation. They have been considering the formation of a separate parish, and plans were recently submitted to Bishop Hoban, which met with his approval.

A subscription paper was circulated, and in a very short time $5,000 was pledged. As soon as enough money is paid in a lot in a central location will be selected, and building operations will be at once undertaken.

The ever famous John L. Sullivan will be at the opera house with his vaudeville company Wednesday night.

FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Factoryville, April 22.—The ladies of the Methodist church will serve a ten cent supper at the church Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

New officers will be elected for the Aid society the same afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The funeral of Charles Turner, who was killed by the cars near Tunkhannock last Thursday night, was held in the Baptist church last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brutzman, of Scranton, is spending a few days with friends in town.

J. G. Giesler, of Scranton, was the guest of A. A. Brown over Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Armstrong returned from a visit in Scranton Saturday evening.

A very interesting exhibition was given last Saturday evening on the square, in front of J.S. Reed's store, by the Independent Roofing and Paint company, of Syracuse, N. Y., to show the fire-resisting qualities of their roofing materials and house paints.

A small house of pine was built, roofed and painted, and then covered with straw and set on fire, and although the house was enveloped with flames for some time, it came out almost like the unbrewed children of old, unharmed.

Before the fire, the company's superintendent, T. A. Gould, gave a very interesting lecture on the good qualities of the fireproof materials, and impressed those who heard it that he was perfectly familiar with his subject and convinced them of the value of the goods. The Keystone Lumber company will hereafter handle the non-combustible roofing and house paints.

The six principle Baptist meeting, in charge of Rev. Caterer, of Dalton, will be held this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Connor, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. H. C. Duflois, of Dalton, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Wrigley.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Tunkhannock, April 22.—Rev. H. H. Wilbur has been re-appointed pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at this place, by the conference. Mr. Wilbur is very popular here, and all our people ence that will make those who received invitations to this affair feel that the year fortunate.

The musical recital by the piano pupils of Miss Jessie Wilbur given last evening was an exceedingly enjoyable affair. The piano of Miss Wilbur's pleasant home were filled with the parents and friends of her pupils, and the young performers had an attentive audience throughout the entire program.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

The grievances of the men sinking the new shaft A. S. and P. M. Spencer have been satisfactorily adjusted and the men are again at work. The shaft is to be sunk to a depth of 150 feet and it is thought the work will be completed in about three months. It is expected to increase the output of this firm and furnish work for many more men than have heretofore been employed there.

The services over the remains of the late George P. Williams were conducted at his late home on Bloom street yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of his friends and neighbors. Rev. W. P. Gibson, of the Presbyterian church officiated. The burial will be held on Monday at Clifford, where interment will be made.

The many friends of Rev. Charles H. Nearing, both in and out of the Methodist church, read with pleasure the announcement in yesterday's Tribune that he would return for another year.

The Rev. Mr. Nearing, who has been in a position with the popular tonsorial artist, M. V. Seckins.

THE TRIBUNE'S "WANT" DIRECTORY.

4 Lines 10 Cents More Than Four Lines, 3 Cents for Each Extra Line

SITUATIONS WANTED FREE

3 Insertions 25 Cents More Than Four Lines, 6 Cents for Each Extra Line

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—In Dalton, a furnished cottage of six rooms, near station; fine location; good water; new and in good shape. Address Lock Box 67, Dalton, Pa.

FOR RENT—Eight and twelve-room houses, Green Ridge, steam heat; very reasonable. Holgate, 102 E. Vine street.

FOR RENT—Small furnished house for rent. Inquire at 922 Vine street.

STORE FOR RENT—623 West Lackawanna avenue. Inquire Philip Schnell, 623 West Lackawanna avenue.

BARNS FOR RENT—412, April 1st, three box and three single stalls and wash racks, rear of 231 Madison avenue. Inquire at 634 Madison avenue.

FOR RENT—Store building for rent in Dickson city, Pa., building 24 feet by 34 feet, cellar under all, and second story can be arranged for a family. All in good repair ready for use. Two good breakers and mimes closed by employing over a thousand people. An enterprising merchant can get a large trade. Apply to William H. Richmond, Richmond Hill, 3125 N. Main avenue, Scranton, Pa.

FURNISHED ROOMS.

A NICE front room with above at the North Adams avenue. Also a nice room for two young men, 1413 Adams avenue.

FOR RENT—One furnished room, with improvements, also one on third floor, cheap. 659 Adams avenue.

FURNISHED ROOMS for rent, modern improvements; private family; gentlemen preferred, at 57 Adams avenue.

FOR RENT—Furnished front room, with heat, bath and gas; near court house; gentlemen preferred. Address Room, Box 292.

FOR RENT—Furnished room; heat and bath. 205 Lincoln street.

FURNISHED ROOMS FOR RENT, with heat, gas, bath, gentlemen preferred, at 339 Adams avenue.

For Sale.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred Cocker Spaniel puppies, solid black and solid brown in color. H. M. Howard, 102 E. Drinker street, Dunmore.

FOR SALE—Large refrigerator, in good condition. Call at 211 Quaker avenue.

JUST ARRIVED, two car load of horses, good workers, suitable for all work, and several closely matched teams, can be seen at 201 Raymond court. F. M. Cobb.

CARPETS—50,000 yards Brussels, Ingrains, Velvets, also Mattings, Oil Cloth, 10,000 pieces floor cloths, tablecloths, counterpane, napkins, etc., iron beds, springs, mattresses, chairs, about six carloads at public sale, will be held at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., at 230 Lackawanna avenue, next Scranton Street Railroad waiting room, opposite Penn avenue. Cummings & Bro., Auctioneers.

FOR SALE—A beautiful diamond ring, one carat, 14K gold. Address P. O. Box 612, Scranton, Pa.

EGGS for hatching, Buff Leghorns, exclusively, 1,000 in size and color, 75c per set. G. A. Gardner, 1423 Penn avenue, Scranton, Pa.

FOR SALE—Hand silk doilies. New, Bamford Bros., Paterson, N. J.

Real Estate.

FOR SALE—On Main avenue, near Trip road, seven lots at about half value for cash. Call on C. P. Jordan, 345 Main building.

FOR SALE—A desirable and well improved farm situated two miles from Homestead containing 80 or more acres. Good barn, well watered, a never failing spring, orchard and wood lot, sugar bush and nut grove. Mrs. Jeremiah Galt, Homestead, Pa.

FOR SALE—Farm 130 acres; stock, good orchard; building in good order; fine view from Scranton, two miles from Moscow, Pa. farm, or farm and stock. Mark Jenkins, Maple Lake, Lackawanna county, Pa.

FOR SALE—Elegant sites for homes in upper Green Ridge; close neighborhood; most desirable locality for home in Lackawanna county. J. A. Marvine, 1730 Sanderson avenue.

FARM FOR SALE—54 acres, 7 miles from Scranton; also 80 acres pasture land for sale or rent; all located near Elmwood. F. F. Gardner, Morrow, Pa.

FARM FOR SALE—Sixty-two acres, one mile from Lake Ariel; twelve acres of timber, rest in woods; excellent spring water on lot; farm situated on road. For particulars address WILLIAM TROLAR, Ariel, Pa.

Theatrical.

ACADEMY—"The Convict's Daughter." Afternoon and night.

STAR—Dainty Duchess Burlesques, Afternoon and night.

Academy of Music.

"The Convict's Daughter" was repeated before two large audiences at the Academy yesterday and today's matinee and evening performance will close the engagement.

W. R. Ogden and Miss Pauline Saine are capital fun makers, and give the performance a go and dash that is very refreshing. The scenery and effects are very appropriate and the staging escape at the end of the fourth act of Weary Willie brings forth a curtain call.

"Devil's Auction" Tonight.

The Philadelphia Evening Telegraph says of "Devil's Auction," which comes to the Lyceum tonight: "The 'Devil's Auction,' under the management of Charles H. Yale, was the attraction less light at the Auditorium. To say that the play has lost any thing in this country would be doing an injustice, if judgment can be taken from the amount of applause rendered, for the audience was the most enthusiastic one. Many new features have been added to the play, including new and elaborate costumes, and a splendid set.

Toby, a donkey, afterwards transformed into a man, was decidedly clever, his singing and sharp sayings being executed in an entertaining and humorous manner. The part of the porter of Carlos, a poor sleepless, who after a struggle with the "golden branch," and accomplishes many wonderful things in the course of the play, was played with a mastery and facility, possession of it is regarded through the efforts of Toby. The ballets performed by a score of pretty girls were well received. On the whole, the "Devil's Auction" of this season can hardly be improved."

Stats are now on sale for this evening's performance of the "Devil's Auction" at the Lyceum.

"The Fatal Wedding."

The scenic effects shown in "The Fatal Wedding," the attraction at the Lyceum Friday night, Sunday matinee and night, are so recognized scenic studies of Harley Perry, who is recognized as the master scenic artist of the day. Mr. Perry claims that he has succeeded in surpassing all his previous efforts in getting up the effects for this production, and a truly grand performance can be expected. The plot, which is one of the strongest ever written, deals with true but heart-breaking incidents.

The scenic effects go to make up one of the strongest plays in the country. The acting company, headed by Ed. Mordant, should prove one of the greatest productions of its kind ever witnessed in this city. Stats go on sale this morning at 10 o'clock.

"The Outpost."

Congratulations and flattering comments on "The Outpost" are pouring in by the thousands. The names J. K. (Frank) Emmet and Lottie Gibson, of this city, who are the stars of the play, have given the theater-going public all over the country sufficient guarantee about the quality of the play and, while it bears many exciting situations, it is far from cheap sensation. The other members of the cast are also of the highest quality, and all of them are of American favorites. All in all, "The Outpost," which will be seen at the Auditorium on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, is a winner, owing to its superb cast, magnificent scenery, gorgeous costumes and marvelous stage effects. Many new songs will be introduced by Miss Gibson, who blends the play with music and harmony. Matinee performances will be given each day.

STAGE NOTES.

A new play called "The Children of the King" will be introduced by Martin Harvey, the English actor, to this country next season. He opens in New York next October, at the Lyceum. He is "The Foolhead Wilson" to be produced, says rumour, in London this spring by an American company, including John B. Mason, Arnold Daly, Jane Coker and Ada Fay. The play will be given in Hall Caine's "The Eternal City" during the early part of next season as part of Viola Allen's tour in that play. The play "The Ballistic" has been ordered to play next season. Mr. Morgan will resume his starring tour about the middle of the season.

"The Old Cabin Home" is the title of a new play of Southern life written by H. Gratton Dunbar, which has been purchased by Jacob List for production next season.