MONTROSE.

Montrose, April 23 .- A fire alarm sounded ng the noon hour today, and the entire fire de-artment and apparatus responded promptly. The re had attacked the small frame house, on Berry street, occupied as a residence by Mrs. Lydia Smith, a highly esteemed and industrious colored resident, and a family of several children. The restient, and a family of several children. The fremen did splendid service, and, though the wind was blowing a gale at the time, they succeeded in saving the building, but all but a few of the household goods were destroyed, and, as there was no insurance, the loss falls very heavily upon Mrs. Smith and her family, and they are deserving of the sympathy and practical assistance in this their time of need.

This community was sailly shocked vesteriay.

This community was saily shocked yesterday morning by the announcement that Mrs. M. H. Van Scoten, the estimable wife of Justice Van Scoten, had been found dead in bed that morning Mrs. Van Scoten had long been afflicted with a chronic heart trouble. Some time during Tues day night, Mrs. Van Scoten experienced a smoth ering spell, and was nearly overcome by the heat, so that she aroused her husband and deter-mined to take another bed, where it would be poler. Nothing further was heard from her until her daughter. Miss Nora, while preparing the morning meal, noted her mother's tardiness in arising and went to call her when she was slocked to find that in the stillness of the night her spirit had returned to the presence of its Maker. Her husband and a number of grown-up thildren armine her. children survive her. The funeral will be at tended from the Montrese Baptist church tomor row afternoon, Rev. E. K. Thomas officiating.

A pleasant and notable event at court this week was the admission of Miss Frances K. Amerman as an attorney at law to practice in the several courts of Susquehanna county. Miss Amerman has won the distinction of being the first lady to pursue her legal studies to a successful conclusion and be admitted to the bar in assquehanna county. She is a lady whose per-onal character and mental attainments are of an nusuily high order; she his had valuable experence as stenographer and confidential clerk in the office of W. D. B. Ainey for several years and has demonstrated an aptitude for the legal ion. Miss American is sister of George merman, of Scranton. Charles II. ### STAGE NOTES.

Joseph Haworth is to be seen as a star again rext season. He will produce a new religious play, called "Corianton," which is to be presented for the first time in Salt Lake City. The piece is by a Utah playwright.

There is a likelihood that Edna May will return to this country to star next season in "Kitty Grey," the piece in which she achieved success in Landon. "Kitty Grey" is adapted "Kitty Grey," the piece in which she achieved success in Landon. "Kitty Grey" is adapted from the French of "Les Fetards," which was also the original of "The Rounders."

A London syndicate is reported to have offered Mande Adams $50,990 to play "L'Alglon" and "Quality Street" for ten weeks in that city this ammer. The offer was made through Charles rohman, and the latter says it is doubtful whether the actress will give up her summer vaation for that aum.

Mrs. Fiske is to appear as Mary Magdalene in a play by that name to be given in the autumn at the Manhattan Theatre in New York. The play will be a version of the work of Herr Paul Heyse, a noted German playwright, in which the Mary who wept at the tomb and Judas Iscariot Mary who wept at the tomb and Judas Iscarlot figure as principal characters.

What is called the "disease drama," has a London instance in "The New Idol." In it the hero, who is a scientist, finds a young girl who has consumption. In order to save her he in-oculates the patient with the germs of causer, and soon afterward finds out she is dying of that dread disease, whereupon he inoculates himself with the same germ and both die. Quite a
