An Artistic Success. The concert given in the Washburn Street Presbyterian church last evening in aid of the talent fund, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Arnbrust, was an artistic success, and was one of the most elaborate events of the season. A large and appreciative audience was in attendance, and all of the artists who participated were enthusiastically received.

The orchestral numbers, under the direction of George Waters, were a pleasing surprise, and demonstrated that the Bible school of the church has some excellent talent in that respect. The opening vocal number was a soprano solo by Miss Lolla Salter, who is a popular favorite in West Scranton. She sang a flower song from Faust, which earned for her a very hearty encore, and she was presented with a bouquet of flowers.

Miss Bessie Stone recited "The Soul of the Violin," in her usual artistic manner. The baritone solo by D. W. Davis, "The Children's Thanksgiving," demonstrated that his voice has lost none of its old-time sweetness, and his effort was thoroughly appreciated. The feature of the event was the singing of Miss Elva Van Dervoort, of New York, whose rendition of "O Let Night Speak of Me" was received with much enthusiasm, and she was accorded a flattering encore and sang a rose fable, which was also well received.

Another superb rendition was the tenor solo, "Twas but a Dream," by Alfred Woodruff, and for an encore he sang a composition by George Dudley Martin, of this city, entitled "For Us," which is exceedingly pretty and catchy. Miss Van Dervoort again sang "Sweetheart, Thy Lips Are Touched with Flame," and received another encore.

William Roberts, the basso, favored the audience with a fine rendition of "A Cavalier Song," and was heartily encored, and gave another pleasing selection. The closing vocal number was a duet by Misses Susan and Van Dervoort, in which their beautiful voices blended exceedingly well, and they were compelled to sing an encore. This number was undoubtedly one of the best on the programme.

D. W. Morgan acted as chairman, and the accompanists of the evening were Mrs. D. B. Thomas, Mrs. Pierce T. Fellows, Miss Margaret Gibbs and Walter Davis, and their efforts contributed much to the success of the concert. Mr. and Mrs. Arnbrust are to be congratulated for providing such an excellent entertainment, and the talent fund of the church will reap a good sum as a result.

Miss Jennie Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins, of 232 North Hyde Park avenue, gave a phonograph party on Wednesday evening to a large number of friends. Samuel Thomas, of Greenwood, was in charge of the phonograph, and all the popular selections were played. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Watkins, assisted by Misses Mary Watkins and Nettie Samsenbach. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harvard, Misses Nettie Samsenbach, Mary Watkins, Eva Kille, Gertrude Loomis, Mary James, Beulah Hine, Constance B. Watkins, Hattie Raynor, Ethel Watkins, Stella Morgan, Clara Watkins, Jennie Watkins, Messrs: John Thomas, William Watkins, James Thomas, A. B. Brumby, P. L. Watkins, Arthur Cosner, Harry York, Howard Cosner, Will Morgans, Boyd Jacoby, Wendell Evans, Harry Watkins.

Alleged Shooting Affray. A telephone message was received at the police station early last evening to the effect that a resident of Sixteenth street had shot his wife. Two officers were immediately dispatched to the scene, where a large crowd had assembled.

Investigation revealed the fact that the man had struck his wife with a board on the leg, and the report reached as if it was a pistol shot. The woman screamed and yelled the while she had been shot, and a passer-by, without waiting to investigate, telephoned for the police. The participants in the affair were very much chagrined when the officers put in an appearance.

Aldermanic Cases. Michael McHale, of 2109 Lafayette street, was arrested yesterday at the instance of his father, charged with committing an assault on his brother Patrick McHale. The hearing was held before Alderman John and Michael was held in $200 bail for his appearance at court.

Party on Fifteenth Street. Miss Ida Jones, of Fifteenth and Division streets, was tendered a party by her friends Tuesday evening. The usual diversions incidental to such gatherings were indulged in, and refreshments were served. Those present were:

Misses Esther Hughes, Lottie Morgan, Maggie Thomas, Edith Jones, Lizzie Jenkins, Lizzie Davis, Ida Davie, Messrs: William Jones, Walter Whitman, Llewellyn Jones, Walter Hughes, Evan Evans, George Hodges and David Jones.

Going Back to Arizona. Fred Sherman, of Keyser avenue and Jackson street, who will leave for Arizona in a few days, was tendered a surprise party recently by a number of friends at the home of his parents.

A feature of the event was a cakewalk, which was won by J. H. Amerman and Mrs. William Amerman. A large party of guests were in attendance.

Given Away. Rose bushes, that will bloom this year, given away. See our advertisement on third page of this paper. Mears & Hagen.

DUNMORE DOINGS. Nine Year Old Leonard DeMarko Has Disappeared from Home—Anthony Dougherty Arrested.

The Italian neighborhood on Smith street is all agog over the disappearance from home, Tuesday afternoon, of Leonard DeMarko, a 9-year-old boy, who attends No. 6 school.

On Tuesday he was sent home from school by Miss Duggan, for unruly conduct. He was arrested yesterday, taken home and told his story and wandered away. He had only lived here during the past four months, and was but slightly acquainted with the town. When last seen he was dressed in a blue blouse, short pants, old shoes and rubbers. He has brown, curly hair and his hands were badly chapped. The police of Dunmore and Scranton have been notified, but at this time no trace has been found. Any information would be most thankfully received.

Arrested for Trespassing. Anthony Dougherty, of Oak street, was arraigned before Burgess Burschell Wednesday, charged with trespassing upon the property of A. D. & F. M. Spencer. He was arrested yesterday morning, about 2 o'clock, while disturbing the men engaged in sinking the new shaft. William Oseley, the foreman, testified that Dougherty refused to leave the property when ordered and gave very abusive and insulting answers. General Manager Spencer said they
