

Points About PAINT

1. Brilliancy. 2. Durability. 3. Covering Capacity. THIS COAT IS NOMINAL and bears no comparison with the SATISFACTION experienced and RESULT attained in using an article which contains these THREE ESSENTIAL QUALITIES. LUCAS' TINTED GLOSS PAINT is the RECOGNIZED STANDARD in ready mixed paints. Atlantic White Lead and Pure Linseed Oil... make an "EVERLASTING" paint and when applied with WHITTING'S BRUSHES, a beautiful and permanent finish is at once secured. WHOLESALE and Retail Agents: MATTHEWS BROS., 320 Lackawanna Ave.

Back to the Old Stand

We have at last recovered from the effects of our recent fire, and are now back to the old stand—but its a brand new store nevertheless, and the handsomest in town. During this week we will give double trading stamps with all purchases of Wall Paper, Pictures, Frames, Paints, etc. Jacobs & Fasold 209 Washington Avenue.

Chairs Recaned

Furniture upholstered and repaired. Send postal to 1243 Providence Road. Old Phone, 109-3, Green Ridge. JAMES PAYNE

City Notes.

ON MAY 23.—The Wallace circus will exhibit in this city on Friday, May 23. FERTILIZER IS NEEDED.—The Home for the Friendless is greatly in need of fertilizer. Donors who may be unable to deliver it at the hours specified telephone and it will be sent for. BREKEMAN INSURED.—James McDonnell, of Hawley, a huckster employed on the Erie railroad, had his left hand caught between two cars on Saturday while near Glynn Grove. Three of the fingers were severed. NEW FIRE STATION. Preliminary Plans Have Been Prepared by Superintendent Brown. Superintendent of Building Inspection P. L. Brown has prepared the preliminary plans for the proposed new central fire station, to be erected on the vacant lot in the rear of the municipal building, and as soon as possible after the bonds are issued, bids will be advertised for. The proposed building will be over a hundred feet in depth and will have a frontage of about fifty feet. It will be two stories high and will probably be constructed of brick and stone. The front to be constructed of stone to match that used in the municipal building. The station will be sufficiently large to house the Crystal Engine company's apparatus and the hook and ladder, and to contain sleeping apartments for not only the superintendent and the men connected with these companies, but also for a number of policemen, whom it is proposed to keep in reserve. STROUDSBURG DEFEATED. Wyoming Seminary Team Took a Game from Them Saturday. The Wyoming seminary baseball club defeated the Stroudsburg Normal school team at Stroudsburg, Saturday, by a score of 12 to 6. The high wind and the dust that filled the air interfered with play and almost stopped the game several times. Walsh pitched his second game for Wyoming, holding the home team down to seven hits with a total of eight bases, striking out eleven men. The visitors found Shigo for sixteen hits with a total of twenty-two. The brilliant features of the game were Scott's left-handed catch of a wild throw at third, stopping two runs; Walsh's home run on a pretty drive to left field; Dougherty's stopping a hot liner, tagging a base runner going to second and assisting in a put-out at first. Phillips did superb work behind the bat, and McGuire gave a clever performance in right field. WATER COMPANIES MERGED. Scranton Capital Is Interested in the Deal. The Catawissa Dispatch of Saturday contained the following: "At a meeting of the directors of the new Clear Springs Water company, held at the office of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company, in Philadelphia, on Friday last, the following officers were elected: President, John L. Kemmerer, of Scranton; secretary and treasurer, H. F. Baker, of Philadelphia; superintendent, W. L. Watson, of this place. The new company is composed of the old Crane Water company, the Hanover Crane Water company, the Allen Crane Water company, the Whitehall Crane Water company, the Alliance Water company, the Coplay Water company, and the old Clear Springs Water company. "The new water company will supply Egypt, Cementon, Hokendauqua, Fullerton, West Catawissa, Coplay and Catawissa, in Lehigh county, and Allentown, North Catawissa and Allentown, in Northampton county. The merging of the various companies is largely due to the energy of the new president, John L. Kemmerer, who is a grandson of the late Judge Leisenring, of Mauch Chunk. The capital of the new company is $500,000 and the company will control forty-five miles of pipe. The offices have been located on the second floor of the P. O. S. of A. building, No. 119 Bridge street, at which rooms the business of the consolidated plants will be transacted, with the efficient supervision of Walter L. Watson, in entire charge."

ENCAMPMENT OF LANCERS

FEATURE TO BE INTRODUCED IN TEMPERANCE WORK. Men Who Are the Officers of the First Regiment of Lancers of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union. J. F. Phillips is Colonel; Walter McNichols, Major; Rev. J. V. Moylan, Chaplain; Dr. W. J. L. Davis, Surgeon—The Colonel Resides at Wilkes-Barre. The first annual encampment of the First Regiment of Lancers of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, will be held at Lake Lodore, July 18-26 inclusive, and will be participated in by twelve companies, over 600 enlisted men from the different societies in Plymouth, Nanticoke, Kingston, Plains, Wilkes-Barre, Scranton and Carbonate. This will be the first encampment of its kind in the history of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union. The command of rifles. The accompanying cuts are of the field and staff officers of the regiment. Colonel J. F. Phillips is a resident of Wilkes-Barre, and is the original Captain and Captain of the Young Men's Drill Organization, which company is identified with the regiment just formed. He has had twelve years military experience in the Ninth regiment, Na-

OPENING SESSION OF ARCHDEACONRY

Will Be Held Tonight at Honesdale—Meetings on Tuesday and Wednesday. The spring session of the Scranton Archdeaconry and the Women's Auxiliary will be held at Honesdale in Grace church, today, tomorrow and Wednesday. The archdeaconry programme will open on Monday at 7:30 p. m., when there will be three addresses on "The Relation of the Sunday School to the Church," "Why We Should Be Identified with the Church" and "The Claims of the Parish Upon the Laity," by Revs. W. D. Johnson, of Wilkes-Barre; Rogers Israel, of this city, and H. A. Fuller, respectively. On Tuesday, at 9:30 a. m., a business session will be held, followed by morning prayer and holy communion, with a sermon by Rev. Frank C. Kelly, of Sayre. Another business session will be held at 2:30 and the archdeacon's report will be heard at 3:30 o'clock. At 4 o'clock an exegesis on St. John, 1:29 will be given by Rev. F. B. Bateman, of this city. At 7:30 o'clock a missionary service will be held. Rev. E. J. Haughton, of Dunmore; Rev. C. H. Evans and Bishop Talbot will be the speakers. Mr. Haughton's subject will be "The Missionary Spirit Essential to the Life of the Church"; C. H. Evans', "Missions in Japan," and Bishop Talbot's "Missions in the West Indies." On Wednesday there will be a meeting of the Women's Auxiliary. At 10 a. m. holy communion will be observed, with an address by Bishop Talbot. At 11 o'clock will be heard the reports of Lenten missions, and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock the business session will be held. Rev. C. H. Evans, of Tokio, Japan, will speak. Mrs. H. T. Menner, of Honesdale, is the secretary of the convention and the person to be notified of attendance. The officers are: Bishop, Rt. Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, D. D., LL. D.; archdeacon, Rev. D. Webster Cox, D. D.; secretary, Rev. J. P. Ware, and treasurer, E. W. Sturdevant.

"PINAFORE" AT NICHOLSON.

Presented Before a Highly Pleased Audience, Friday Night. Sullivan's comic opera, "Pinafore," received a most creditable performance at Nicholson last Friday evening. The opera house was filled to the doors with a fine discriminating audience. A more pleased audience could hardly be imagined. Each participant shared in the well merited applause accorded their individual efforts. Mrs. Decker, Buttercup, was quite good. Miss Florence Wilkins, a very young vocalist with qualifications for a bright future, sang the part of Josephine with excellent effect. Sir Joseph Porter, Captain Corcoran, boatswain and Heloise were especially good. Special mention should be made of Wren Shields' work as Ralph Rackstraw. His work was a pleasant surprise to his host of friends, and his lines were given with a full appreciation of their meaning. Mr. Shields deserves a great deal of credit for his excellent work in drilling the chorus, most of whom never sang before, and out of this raw material he gave a highly commendable performance of "Pinafore." A good sum was realized for the purchase of the organ for the Nicholson High school. The accompaniment of piano and orchestra was well sustained by Miss Hollister's pupils. Mr. Kelly, the possessor of a fine bass voice, did admirable work in the part of Dick Deadeye and scored a hit.

A BIG SEASON ASSURED.

Lodore Will Be the Mecca for Excursionists the Coming Season. All indications point to Lake Lodore as the most popular of all excursion resorts for the fast-approaching season, and to even surpass its immense business of last year. The individual excursionist prefers a lake resort, and the scenic beauties of Lodore itself, its far-spreading grove, incomparable dance pavilion, its merry-go-round, the delight of the children, its well-equipped kitchen, clam oven, refreshment booths, spilling ball grounds, naphtha launches, steamer, large excursion boat and varied other amusements render it a summer paradise, and at the same time the most profit-making resort for churches and societies. There are some splendid dates left for the privilege of which please apply to W. L. Pryor, district passenger agent, Delaware and Hudson Railroad, Scranton, Pa. For sale cheap: Barrels of household goods, including 1900 washer, bookcase, parlor heater, kitchen table, lawn mower, harness, chairs, portiers, etc. Mrs. L. Smith, 1423 Wyoming avenue.

TO THE CONTEST EDITOR SCRANTON TRIBUNE.

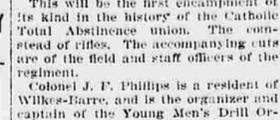

Sir:—Please enroll my name as one of the contestants in The Tribune's Educational Contest, and send me equipment and more detailed information concerning the work as soon as issued. NAME ADDRESS (Cut this out and mail to "Contest Editor, Scranton Tribune, Scranton, Pa." at once in order that you may be among the first to receive the printed matter and canvasser's outfit. See advertisement on fourth page of this issue.)

The Shortest Cut A FAITH THAT CONQUERS ALL

A SERMON BY REV. JAMES STUART DICKSON. He Preached Yesterday at the First Presbyterian Church in the Temporary Absence of the Pastor. Spoke of the Faith Which Leads Men to Realize That Christ Is Ever on His Side and That His Saving Power Enables Them to Overcome the World. Rev. James Stuart Dickson, of Philadelphia, brother of A. W. Dickson, and a clergyman well known and admired in this city, occupied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church yesterday, at both services. Last night he chose for his text, 1 John, v:4, "For whosoever is born of God overcometh the world, and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." He spoke, in part, as follows: "These are the words of a man who looked persecution fair in the face; a man who had seen his fellow Christians thrown into the Roman arena to be made the sport of the wild beasts; a man who lived in Rome where on every side could be seen the power and splendor of the world. "This man had something which he believed gave him victory over the attacks of the world though he was one of the poorest of his time. * * * Our conceptions of the forces of the world which are constantly seeking to prevent our Christian life change as we grow older. Our boyhood conceptions change into a realization as we grow older, that makes us have a respect for the cunning and cleverness of our adversary. "What is the world as meant in this text? First, it is temptation, broadly speaking, and, second, it is sum total of all the forces of God's enemies. * * * What is the victory over these hostile forces? and what is Christian faith? "Christian faith is not only personal belief in the fact that Christ, the son of God, came into this world and bore our sins upon the cross of Calvary. That is only the ground work of faith. Faith, as I view it, is a man's own personal realization of Christ's saving power as opposed to the powers of evil. "Faith's victory is the assurance that in spite of all Christ will carry us through safely, if we but put our trust in Him. It is the realization that we are under attack day by day and who are constantly being tempted by the devil, but who are held close to God by such a faith as I have spoken of. "We do not know, perhaps, of many such cases, because there is no clergyman whose name is on the rolls of the church at which the drafts on God's saving power are cleared." Rev. Mr. Dickson, at this point in his sermon, made an analysis of the life of Paul as a typical example of the victory of real faith over the world. Paul, he said, was under constant fire from the devil, and yet was able to see at all times that Christ was at work for the salvation of his soul. "Your power to stir up the malevolence of the world is the gauge of your Christianity," he declared. In conclusion, he said: "You may bear every toll set down in the world's catalogue; you may bear a cruel and bitter persecution; you may burn in your flesh; you may die in a spiritual prison house; but victory can be yours—the victory of seeing Jesus always, of feeling His hand's unceasing pressure, of knowing with eternal certitude that He is here and that He is using every force that the devil can devise and the world can use to make you more really His child."

Optician, S. H. TWING

131 Penn Avenue. during the regimental encampment at Lake Lodore. Dr. W. J. L. Davis, the regimental surgeon, was born in Paterson, N. J.

SURGEON W. J. L. DAVIS.

on February 2, 1856, and graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons, medical department of the Columbia university, New York, in 1886. He located in West Scranton in 1888, and has since built up a very lucrative practice. He is a member of St. Paul's Pioneer corps and St. Brendan's council, Young Men's Institute, and served two years in the drill corps of Manhattan college, New York, under Captain Yateson, who is now captain of the Yukon police in Alaska. Dr. Davis was unanimously selected as the regimental surgeon.

AWFULNESS OF SIN.

Sermon by Rev. Thomas B. Payne in All Souls' Universalist Church Last Night. Taking for his text, "Fools Make a Mock of Sin," from the Proverbs of Solomon, the pastor of All Souls' Universalist church, Rev. Thomas B. Payne, gave, last night, the fifth sermon in the course on "What Universalists Believe," on "The Awfulness of Sin." He began by saying: "I am glad of the opportunity offered me tonight to present to you, my friends, an Universalist teaching concerning the awfulness of sin. This is one of the points of Christian teaching concerning which Universalists have been most widely misunderstood. We teach that God is good enough, and wise enough and powerful enough to bring finally all his children to love and serve him, we have been accused of 'putting a premium on sin.' Universalists believe that the punishment for sin is not the eternal hell, but the punishment of God's love. The premium on sin is advanced by these religionists who say that men can live a life of sin all the days of their life in this world, and, at the powers of God, and accept Jesus as their savior, all the punishment is escaped and they go at once into 'glory.' "No church in Christendom teaches with such force as we do the certainty of a just retribution for sin. Sin and punishment have eternally been linked together by God as cause and effect. The moment sin is committed, the punishment begins in the sufferer's heart. The great law of five punishment for sin. Continued wrong doing brings a severer and severer punishment in its wake. Universalists believe that punishment for sin begins here and continues until the sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape hell.' "Let us contrast this with the teaching of Universalism. Universalism says that the awfulness of sin lies not all in the torment of the sinner, but in the suffering of the world. The sinner is committed, and will continue if needful beyond the grave until his reformatory work is completed, for that is the nature of all God's punishment. "Sin is so awful because it has so great a power to corrupt the soul. It is so awful because it is so contagious; because it jeopardizes your eternal safety hereafter; because it is so contagious, it means endless woe; you lose forever the bliss of heaven and you are forever separated from God. The great law of five punishment to men by the popular evangelists has been the motive of selfishness. The Calvinistic and Arminian churches have said to men, 'Remember your sin and you will be saved; you may win heaven and escape