City Notes.
MEETING OF MANAGERS.—The board of managers of the Home for the Friendless will meet this morning at 9 o'clock at the Home.
MONTHLY MEETING.—The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will hold its monthly meeting in the lecture room this afternoon at 4 o'clock.
AT HILLSIDE HOME.—John Morris, W. J. Costello and Walter Christmas, suitors for the post district, were at the Hillside Home yesterday, completing the annual audit of the accounts of that institution.
NEW ROAD ROLLER.—The new road roller, which was recently purchased by the city, arrived in this city yesterday and will be put to use just as soon as it is put together. It came over the Lackawanna railroad on a special car.
WENT ON STRIKE.—A gang of men employed by Contractor Peter Sligo on the Elm Park street pavement went on strike yesterday because of his discharge of Peter Fletcher, the foreman, and the installation of a foreman from New Haven. Mr. Sligo refuses to re-instate Fletcher, and the men are still on strike.
A SLIGHT BLAZE.—A spark from a tinner's furnace set fire to a two-story frame building on Hillside street at noon yesterday. The upper floor was well ablaze when the Phoenix company arrived in response to a still alarm, but the fire was easily put out. The building is owned by Matthew Hobling, whose loss is slight.
THE FOUR "ONS".—Rev. Dr. Giffin will give on successive Sabbath evenings in Elm Park church a series of talks on the general topic of the "Four Ons." The dates are as follows: May 4, "On Time"; May 11, "On Your Feet"; May 18, "On and On"; May 25, "On Your Income." They will be instructive to the young especially.
Rose Bushes Given Away.
Five hundred rose bushes given away Friday and Saturday, under same conditions as advertised last week.

THE GREAT WALLACE SHOWS.
They Will Exhibit in This City on Friday, May 23.
The honorable methods adopted by the Wallace show's advance department in advertising that big circus institution is such a contrast to those of other shows that we can not refrain from commending the Wallace people. They seem anxious to be fair and reasonable and deal honorably in all instances.
In regard to their press work, it is noticeable that the press agents are armed with an immense scrap book filled with clippings about the great Wallace show. Every article, and some are quite lengthy, is complimentary to the show. The most important papers, the city and the country papers alike seem to unite in one common song of praise for the real merits of the Great Wallace shows.
The Great Wallace shows, which exhibit in Scranton, Friday, May 23, travel from coast to coast and from Hudson Bay to the Gulf of Mexico.

CONSERVATORY STUDENTS.
They Gave a Fine Recital in Guernsey Hall.
Students of the Conservatory of Music gave another delightful recital last evening in Guernsey hall. The first soloist was Master William James, of Hyde Park, who played "The Tree and the Clover," by Geibel, in excellent style. Ada Conner, of Scranton, followed with "Messengers of Spring," by Spindler.
"Happy-Go-Lucky," by Brown, played at four pianos by Anna Hand, Eva Marsh, Anna Speicher and Stella Fahy, was a capital illustration of the precision in time and excellent expression characteristic of this kind of work in these recitals. Ruth Wolfe, of Scranton, played a Sonata of Schubert, consisting of two movements, with excellent effect. The composition is one which demands accurate phrasing and careful pedalling and the details were given due attention.
Miss Jennie O'Neil, of Green Ridge, played the "Gipsy Camp," by Behr, and "In the Twilight," by Gaenssler. This young lady evidently has musical feeling, and she played with much expression. Miss Flora Kaufhold gave a brilliant rendering of Boileau's "Plantes," by Schytte. Miss Margaret Law played most delightfully "The Meeting," ("Wenn Hazel sich Gefunden"), by Lange; Miss Hazel Hessler, of Green Ridge, followed with the "Walzer in D major, by Merkel—a composition both difficult and interesting.
Millicent Morse, Letta Perry, of Hyde Park, and Elizabeth Weiburn played at three pianos the Polonaise in D major by Liehner, and Helen Hopewell, Mary Siebecker, Lena Beardsley and Mary Dooley, of Dunmore, played the Sonata in D major by Handrock, in minor movements. A selection in any minor keys which the audience selected was played by Maud Morse, Frieda Hanne, Martha Richmond and Margaret Zerbe.
Harry Wilkins, in his performance of the extremely difficult Capriccio in F sharp minor, richly deserved the hearty and continued applause which he received. He was obliged to respond to the vigorous demands of the audience, which he did with a nocturne of his own composition. Mr. Wilkins has marked musical talent and is developing into a pianist whom the public will always be glad to listen to.
The recital was opened with an ensemble number, played by the Misses Berghauser, Chappell, Gardner, Hart, Hull, Van Sickle and Davis and Mr. Floyd Hunter. The closing number, the brilliant overture to the "Italian" by Schytte, by Rosalind, was played by the Misses Gerlock, Yorle, Hermann, French, Stone, Wagenhurst, Browning, and Mr. Pennington.

SEASON OPENS SATURDAY.
First League Game Between Williamsport and Scranton.
Another pitcher for the Scranton club arrived yesterday in the person of William Stark, of Buffalo, N. Y. He is a well built fellow, weighing 165 pounds; height, five feet eight one-eighth inches. He comes with a fine reputation as a pitcher. He was with Elmira of the Atlantic league of 1900 and also played with Lockport independent club of New York state and many other semi-professional clubs. He has a good arm, and very deceptive curves and is a good batter.
The new short stop for the Scranton base ball club, George Stroh, of Syracuse, N. Y., has made a good impression on Manager Lawson, so far in his practice work. At the park yesterday he demonstrated that he is a very clever fielder.
If Blinkey's bruised shoulder will permit him to play in Saturday's game the Scranton team will present as fast an aggregation of youngsters as any minor league team in the country possesses. Every man on the team is full of life and it is a pleasure to watch the amount of snap and vim they infuse into their work.
Williamsport which will be the Scranton's opponents in the opening game Saturday is a very strong club judging from the ease with which they have been defeating all comers in their exhibition games.
Wednesday, Williamsport defeated Milton which was composed principally of the Lockport college players by a score of 13 to 0.
Manager Lawson feels confident, however, that his colts will be able to make the timberville men bite the dust on the opening day. Manager Lawson was last evening initiated as an Elk.

MAY BE SETTLED.
Central Labor Union Now Trying to End Carpenter's Strike.
Again it is to be recorded that the carpenter's strike which has been dragging on for nearly three years, is near a settlement.
President Devine of the Central Labor union, and a special committee from that body had a conference Wednesday with a number of influential members of the Builder's exchange. The situation was generally discussed, but nothing definite was agreed upon.
Another meeting will be held on Tuesday night next when a formal proposition from the carpenter's union will be presented.

MORE SMALL-POX.
One Positive and One Suspicious Case Discovered.
The case of Robert Elliot, of Wells street, who had been ill for some days, was positively diagnosed as small-pox yesterday by Dr. J. W. Houser. A quarantine was established at this house several days ago.
A temporary quarantine was ordered Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Albert Derry of Parker street, who manifests suspicious symptoms.

MAY SHUT OFF WATER SUPPLY
LATEST PHASE OF THE DICKSON CITY MIX-UP.
Water Company Will Cut Off Supply for Borough Purposes if Councils Don't Pay Bill on or Before Monday—Richards, Who Broke the Deadlock, Has Flopped Back, and It Is Questionable if a Meeting Can Be Held—Electric Light Bill Due, too.
If the Dickson City Water company, now affiliated with the Scranton Gas and Water company, is not paid a certain sum, which it has coming from Dickson City borough, on or before next Monday, the said Dickson City borough will be without water for public purposes until said sum is paid over.
This is only one of several new and interesting developments of the last two days in the Dickson City mix-up. The other developments have a more or less direct bearing upon it.
The company claims that it has a claim against the borough for water furnished for two years back and that the failure to pay is largely due to the fact that the borough council has been unable to transact business for many months, because of factional fights, Secretary Jeffries, of the company, has served notice on Burgess William Kennedy and Chairman Hufnagle, of the council, that unless the bill is paid by May 5, the water supplying the fire hydrants will be shut off.
WOULD BE SERIOUS.
This would be a serious thing, because it would leave the borough without fire protection and would probably cause the insurance companies to cut off all insurance. The electric light company is clamoring for money long overdue, also, and unless the council does something right away quick, the borough may be rendered lightless as well as waterless.
The prospects of the councils doing anything right away quick are not of the brightest. It will be remembered that an attempt was made to elect a chairman, but the four faithful members of the Hufnagle faction kept voting for Mr. Hufnagle night after night, and the four faithful members of the so-called McGarrity faction kept voting for Louis Richards.
Finally, just before midnight, Mr. Richards turned over and voted for Mr. Hufnagle, thus electing the latter. It was then thought that everything would be plain sailing for the future and that the disgraceful scenes which have attended the borough council meetings were at an end.
This theory proved to be contrary to the facts, however, for when Chairman Hufnagle and his three original supporters came to the borough building on Wednesday night, for the purpose of meeting in regular session, they found that Louis Richards had been voted back by the McGarrity faction and that none of the latter were on hand. As no quorum was present, it was found impossible to conduct a meeting.
ANOTHER MEETING TONIGHT.
An effort will be made to conduct another meeting tonight. Action must be taken by the council before either water or electric light bills can be paid and an appeal to the better manhood of the members will be made, in order to save the borough from the desperate situation in which it will be placed if something isn't done.
There should be nine members in the borough council, but there was a tie in the first ward, and so no candidate was elected in February last.
John Kelly, who was the McGarrity candidate, last night caused the arrest of William Roberts, the judge of election, and of William T. Parris and John Grier, inspectors, all of whom he charges with failing to count certain votes cast for him. The three men went before Justice of the Peace Williams and entered bail for their appearance at court.

MUST BE GRADED.
City Solicitor's Views on Accepting New Streets.
City Solicitor Watson is drawing up an ordinance dedicating to the city certain streets in the Twenty-first ward which have been laid out on plots of ground recently improved and opened up for residential purposes.
A clause is being inserted in his ordinance providing that before the city accepts the streets they shall be properly graded. This will be the first time that such a clause has ever been inserted in a similar ordinance. In one memorable instance, where a street was accepted by ordinance under similar conditions, it was discovered after the acceptance that at one point on the thoroughfare a sheer bluff some twelve feet high arose. City Solicitor Watson is determined that such a thing shall not happen again.

YOUNG CAREY DISCHARGED.
Nine-Year-Old Boy Declared Not Guilty of Felonious Wounding.
Magistrate Millar decided yesterday that a 9-year-old boy cannot be held for a felony. He had before him the case of 9-year-old Thomas Carey, of West Scranton, who was charged with feloniously wounding 9-year-old Patrick Connor. The boy was arrested at the instance of the injured boy's mother.
The arrest grew out of an injury received by the Connor boy on June 29 last when he was shot in the arm by a toy pistol, held by young Carey. The evidence offered showed that the shooting was accidental, and that the little lad had no felonious intent when he fired the weapon.
Magistrate Millar discharged him and

REMARKED THAT HE THOUGHT IT WOULD BE difficult to convict one so young of a felony, even if the shooting had not been accidental. Young Carey was arrested some time ago for the same offense and was held for court, but the grand jury ignored the bill.
A RARE OPPORTUNITY.
You Are All Welcome at the New Store.
The people of Scranton and vicinity are to be congratulated on having the opportunity to visit a truly metropolitan home furnishing house. Messrs. Williams & McAnulty's new store, which is located at 129 Wyoming avenue, is equal in point of architectural design, or convenient arrangement, to any furniture or carpet store in the east, while the merchandise to be found within is superior in both quality and assortment.
The first department to which your eye is attracted is the splendidly arranged wallpaper department. This occupies the front half of the first floor and is under the personal charge of Mr. R. W. Newbauer, who is widely known for his superior knowledge and skill in the art of furnishing and decorating. He is assisted by Miss S. A. Flann and Messrs. Paul J. Corry and James Scott. Here are to be found the newest and prettiest effects in wallpaper design, including the various grades from the moderate price goods to the most expensive creations in exclusive coverings.
Having passed this department, we are now at the elevator, and as all visitors during the next few days must take the elevator to secure a free ticket, which entitles them to a chance on one of some future enterprise which brought to our city, we will also take the elevator, getting off at the fifth floor, where the workshop is located. Here is where carpets are sewed, window shades made and upholstery work executed. The carpet sewing machine is perhaps the most interesting thing on this floor, to the average visitor. It is the only one of its kind between New York and Buffalo. It is thirty-six feet long, runs by electricity and sews at the rate of five yards a minute.
Passing down the wide, easy stairway to the fourth floor, we find ourselves surrounded by rugs and floor covering of the richest quality and of indescribable beauty. The finest products of the foreign and domestic weaving are here. The entire floor is devoted to carpets, fabrics. Variety is found here as at no other carpet store in the valley, and to a degree not surpassed by any New York or Philadelphia house.
Proceeding downward another flight of stairs to the third floor, the visitor is fairly astonished at the enormous stock of furniture displayed. Here are parlor, bedroom and dining room suites, office and library furniture, ladies' desks, china closets, buffets, dressers, chairs, and brass-trimmed, enamel bedsteads in great variety. But this is not all of the furniture department. Upon the second floor are to be found couches, odd rockers and chairs, porch and den furniture, odd pieces in weathered oak and, in fact, all that is new and beautiful in furniture. This department is in charge of Mr. T. H. Montgomery, of Syracuse, N. Y., a gentleman of pleasing address and of many years' experience in the furniture business. He is assisted by Mr. I. F. Armstrong.
The curtain and drapery department occupies one-half of this floor. Here one is forcibly impressed with the excellent arrangement of fixtures and furnishings and the enormous line of Brussels, renaissance, muslin, bobbinet, Arabian, China and colored Madras curtains, together with dozens of other styles and an unlimited assortment of

LECTURE BY MISS STONE.
Indications Are That a Great Crowd Will Greet Her.
The announcement of the appearance of Miss Ellen M. Stone at the Lyceum theater, on May 19, is the result of the much favor and that she will be received by a crowded house is already assured. The boxes and loges are being sold by subscription and the sale of tickets is already large.
Her coming to Scranton so soon after her return home is the result of the city's great artists we have had during the present season. Arrangements are being made to give Miss Stone a reception during her stay here, to which the clergy and prominent people of the city and valley will be invited.
Tickets are on sale at Powell's and Guernsey's music stores and Phelps' drug store.
