William D. Lusk, an old and promfrient attorney, who has been in active practice for several years, and a former president of the First National bank, of this place, is dying at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Searle McCollum in this place. His wife who has been spending the winter with relatives in Northern New England, has been telegraphed for and is now hastening to her husband's bedside as fast as steam and steel can bring her, but it is not known when she will arrive. John Devine and son, Reed, of Rush, were visitors in town today, "The annoymous circular habit" has broken out again among the politicians and this time Congressman C. F. Wright is made the object of a cowardly and contemptible attack. Of course the circulars will have no effect upor the political fortunes of our popula congressman, whose chance of being named at the convention which meets at Honesdale this week are growing brighter every day. Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Bissell were guests over Sunday of relatives residing at Crystal Lake, near Dundaff. W. Cooper, the newly appointed Methodist minister, spent Sunday with his family at their former

ATTRACTIONS TODAY.

ACADEMY-Schiller Stock Company. Afternoon

Schiller Stock Company.

A well pleased audience was that assembled at he Academy of music last night. The play presented by the Schiller Stock company was "The City of New York," a sensetional melodrama of New York life. The dressing and stage settings were beautiful, and the railroad wreck scene, in third act, was particularly exciting and thrilling. Miss Ella Fontainebleau, as Daisy Saunders, achieved a triumph. She was a pic-ture as the beautiful, flery, impetuous flower girl, who devoted her life to her brother and hones tail. She was ably supported by Campbell Strat-ton, who impersonated Jack Mergan, the reformed gambler, and a very capable company, Specialties were introduced between the acts by Bert Wesner, Abbot Wortley and Master Joe Lisle, a boy juggler. Matinees will be given all week, starting today with Olga Nethersole's re-cent success, "Sapho." An extra feature will be presented at each performance this week. The great Zarrow trio, including Percy Frutchie, Stranton boy, known professionally as Zarrow, This trio, after a triumphant season with West's ministrels, will exhibit their daring feats as acrobatic artiststs with the Schiller Stock company. Tonight a magnificent production of "Woman's Enemy" will be presented, and tomorrow after noon, "Monte Cristo" will be produced.

Great Zarrow Trio.

The Great Zarrow Trio, who have been using the Lyceum stage the past week, rehearsing a new novelty act, which they will present nex season, entitled "A Right on the Board Walk," will be featured this week at the Academy of Music in conjunction with the Schiller Stock company.

This famous trio was seen here recently with the West's minsirels, and proved one of the mos entertaining acts with this famous organization An entirely new set of scenery, beautifully illu minated, with startling and amosing trick at-tachments, will tend to make this new novelty act one of the most entertaining vaudeville acts

"The Innocent Maids."

"The Innocent Maids" company, under the direction of T. W. Dinkins, who appear at the Star Thursday, will afford a treat to lovers of gorgeous theatrical display and clever comedy. The first part of the programme is a laughable skit, entitled "A Wooden Woman," and furnishes to each performer an opportunity to dis-play his or her ability. The costumes are the most gorgeous and expensive ever furnished in a burlesque attraction. They include six distinct changes, among which may be mentioned the double sexfette of Belies and Beaux, the Scrub Women's chorus, and the Automobile Girls and
