

RETURN OF THE GRAND JURY

SELLERS OF RENOVATED BUTTER INDICTED.

Deputy Food Inspector Stevens Secures True Bills Against Four Men for Illegal Selling of Patent Butter—True Bills Also Against Cruel Parents—Petition for a County Morgue is Opposed—Jury Session Continued to This Week. Other Matters in the Courts.

True bills were returned by the grand jury, Saturday, against M. P. J. Connor, Alfred Berry and Joseph Cross, of Carbonate, charged by Deputy State Food Inspector Stanley J. Stevens with selling renovated butter without a license.

There were also true bills returned against Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gibson, charged by Mrs. Duggan with cruelty to their children, and John Coleman, of Dunmore, charged by Agent Wilson, of the Municipal league with selling liquor without a license. Among the bills ignored was one charging J. W. Brinkof, of the Exchange hotel at Dunmore with selling liquor illegally. Agent Wilson says this party will be re-arrested. The complete list of true bills is appended:

The jury could not complete its work Saturday and was continued in session until this week.

In Orphans' Court. At the session of the orphans' court, on Saturday, before Judge A. A. Vosburg hearing was had in the proceedings to compel the representatives of the estate of John R. Mahon to file an account. The petition was presented by Mrs. Donovan, an aunt of the decedent's wife, who claims to be a creditor by reason of services performed in the care of Mr. and Mrs. Mahon. The respondents deny any liability of creditor exists and therefore the petitioner has no standing to compel the filing of an account. The petitioner was represented by C. H. Welles, esq., and Attorney D. J. Reedy represented the respondents. Argument of counsel will be heard on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

In the estate of Peter Manning, deceased, leave was granted the administrator to mortgage the real estate of the decedent for the payment of debts. Petitioner was represented by R. C. Stuart.

On motion of H. C. Reynolds, J. George Eisle was appointed guardian of George Ferber, a minor.
