The Best Liniment. "I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlain's Pain Expeller for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Hagelans, of Tuckahoe, N. J. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I have ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to many and they all speak very highly of it and declare its merits are wonderful." For sale by all druggists.

AGREEMENT WAS REACHED. EDWARDS - LONGSTREET CASE DID NOT GO TO JURY. During Yesterday's Session of Court an Amicable Arrangement Was Arrived at—Events That Led Up to the Suit Were Misunderstandings Caused by a Trouble Making Neighbor—Juror Stout Went to His Home in Gouldsboro Instead of Into Jury Box. Before all of the testimony for the plaintiff was heard yesterday in the trespass case of E. F. N. Edwards against Dr. S. P. Longstreet an amicable settlement was reached by the attorneys for both parties and a verdict for the defendant was returned by the jury. In connection with the settlement statements to the court were made by Attorneys Warren and Torrey for the plaintiff and Attorneys Spragg and O'Brien for the defendant. It was agreed that the case was the outgrowth of a misunderstanding among the parties due to a trouble making neighbor. The attorneys for the defendant said that inasmuch as practically all of the testimony for the plaintiff had been heard it was the duty of the defendant in his position in the events that led up to the litigation should be made known. The facts would have been developed if the case had continued and the defense heard. Dr. Longstreet said he had been moved by only the best feelings of friendship and kindness toward Mr. and Mrs. Edwards. He felt interested in them because Mr. Edwards had been employed by the doctor's father when the doctor was a boy. The best evidence of his friendship was shown by the fact that from May 29, 1898, when the doctor met Mr. Edwards, until 1899 when a deed of the farm was made by Mr. and Mrs. Edwards to the doctor he had advanced them $1,700 without taking a scrap of writing of any kind from them. Even after the doctor had been informed repeatedly that Mr. Edwards had made threats against them he did not desire to have him arrested and only moved when he was told by his attorney it was his duty to have Mr. Edwards arrested. The defense would show, the attorneys said, that Mr. and Mrs. Edwards left the farm of their own volition and that the rent of a house they occupied at Moscow was paid by Dr. Longstreet. Judge Kelly in addressing the jury said it was gratifying to him to see an amicable agreement reached in open court which permitted all of the parties to go forth without a stain on their names. The terms of the agreement were not made public. The next case called was Mrs. Ida Campbell against James H. Hilton. Mrs. Campbell seeks to recover $125 from Hilton which she says he owes her for board. The defendant figures out that he cannot possibly owe her more than $100 and that he ought to be allowed more than that for damage done to his trunk and effects while in Mrs. Campbell's possession. After the jury was sworn Robert T. Koehler, the constable who served the papers in this case, was discovered in the box and it was decided to dispense with his services and proceed with eleven jurors. The jury was sent out adjourning hour and when it reached the jury room discovered that Joseph Stout, of Gouldsboro, another of the jurors, was absent instead of going to the jury room to deliberate as expected for home. The jury of ten went to work to agree upon a verdict which will be reported to court this morning. The election case of Orlando Rozelle against B. S. Lewis and others was on all days in the superior court room before Judge Wheaton. Suits Against Bondsmen. Mark K. Edgar and G. P. Reynolds yesterday began suit against S. N. Callender and his bondsmen, J. E. Callender and Nathan Callender. Both of the plaintiffs had suits against S. N. Callender which were entered April 22, 1901. In each case they received verdicts amounting to $646.70. Callender took an appeal to the superior court giving a bond in the sum of $1,200 in each case with J. P. and Nathan Callender as sureties. On March 14 of this year the superior court sustained the verdict of the court of this county and an execution was issued directed against S. N. Callender. The sheriff's return was that the judgments could not be collected from Callender for the reason that he had nothing to levy on and suits have therefore been issued against his bondsmen. Register of Wills Office. The will of Charles Tellig, late of Scranton, was admitted to probate yesterday. No letters were granted. In the estate of Thomas Carroll, late of Scranton, letters of administration were granted to J. J. Crogan. The will of Pollock McGuinness, late of Scranton, was admitted to probate and letters testamentary were granted to Ellen McGuinness. In Orphans' Court. In the orphan's court yesterday, the hearing in the estate of Bridget Ryan, deceased, was continued. Testimony was offered to support the credits claimed by P. J. Hogan, as trustee, and a very large number of vouchers were offered for that purpose. Testimony was also taken to show that the expenditures made by him were proper and legal. The exceptions contended that he had no authority to make or authorize to be paid the charges, and that he should be surcharged. Special objection is made to the allowance of discount upon a note, which was discounted at a bank by the trustee and accounted for the purpose of paying a mortgage against the estate, it being alleged that the receipt if properly appropriated, were sufficient to pay this indebtedness. It was also alleged by the exceptions that many of the items of expenditure were not in connection with the property devised to J. E. Ryan and that they are not properly included in this account. It was also claimed that the executor has charged commissions for agents employed by him and also for himself, and that such a double charge is not legally justifiable. The testimony was not fully concluded, and the hearing will be continued on June 2 at 9 a. m. In the estate of Frederick Simon, deceased, the taking of testimony was not completed and will be continued on May 24 at 11 a. m. In the estate of Margaret Noonan et

NIGHT BALL GAME. Immense Crowd Sees Scranton and Lancaster Play the National by Electric Light. Up in the arctic regions, they tell us, the Klondikers are wont to play an occasional game of base ball along toward 12 p. m., at certain seasons of the year. Manager Al Lawson, of the Scranton team, with the aid of his portable electric light plant, proved to 3,000 Scrantonians last night that the national can be played here at any old hour, without regard to the bed-time of Old Sol. The big crowd which went to the park last night to see a ball game by electric light, for the first time in Scranton, entered the gates feeling very dubious about the quality of ball they would see, or try to see. Once inside the grounds, however, their feelings changed. Extra powerful arc lights, on twenty-foot poles, at short intervals, surrounding the playing space of the field, made the diamond, not as bright as mid-day, to be sure, but bright enough to make ball playing possible. Not more than half a dozen errors were made on both sides, and these were due, it can be safely said, to the ball, rather than any inability to see it. The ball used is one of a size half-inch larger than the ordinary ball, and with a soft outer covering. On several occasions the ball was so fast that it proved difficult to hold. It was several times sent to the fence for three batters and homers, and throughout the entire course of its flight was visible in the grass beyond the line of electric lights, which, in the field, formed a semi-circle about seventy-five feet back of the bases. If it wasn't for the extreme chilliness of the evening, the crowd would have enjoyed the game much more. As it was, there was no end of applauding. It is a real and very interesting novelty. Scranton won the game by a score of eight to six. Kelleher, an amateur pitcher, was in the box for Scranton, for five innings, and showed up in good form. He held exceptionally well. Manager Lawson will send his baseball outfit to Philadelphia on the road. It will be in Wilkes-Barre Friday night.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES. An opinion filed yesterday made absolute the rule for a new trial in the case of H. A. DeJoy against Jennie E. Beine. In the case of C. B. Gregory against Louis Connors, a rule was granted yesterday to show cause why a writ of habeas corpus should not be set aside. A rule to show cause why a decree in divorce should not be granted, was allowed yesterday in the case of David J. Edwards against Ruth Edwards. It is returnable to argument tomorrow. Reasons for a new trial were filed yesterday in the case of Patrick Grier against James Kearney & Company, which was tried this week and resulted in a verdict for the defendants. A rule to show cause why a new trial should not be granted was allowed.

SURPLUS MAY BE $40,000. It is Confidently Believed That City's Receipts Will Exceed Expenditures by That Amount. About the beginning of the present fiscal year it was figured out by several persons interested in municipal affairs that there would be a surplus of between $10,000 and $15,000 at the end of the year. It is now confidently believed that there would exceed the amount appropriated by about that figure. City Controller Costello has been doing a little figuring on this matter recently and while he has not been able to ascertain the exact figures, he feels confident that the surplus will be nearer $40,000 than $15,000. The exact number of liquor licenses taken out by saloon keepers within the city limits is not yet known to either the controller or the city treasurer but it is understood that the amount which the city will realize from this source will be nearly $30,000 more than former Controller Howell estimated. It was on his estimate of receipts that the appropriation ordinance was based. There will be a surplus from other sources, it is believed, which will bring the total up to $40,000 and perhaps more. Councilmen are already beginning to hear about this surplus and from present indications it will not be very long before ordinances providing for the appropriation of the entire amount will find their way into council. A very large percentage of the councilmen have pet schemes which they wish to put through and for which provision was not made in the appropriation ordinance.

AFTER THE SPEAKEASIES. Joint Meeting of Lackawanna and Luzerne Saloonmen. A joint meeting of the retail liquor associations of Lackawanna and Luzerne counties was held in this city yesterday. It was decided to unite for the purpose of waging an aggressive war upon the speakeasies in both counties. A board of twenty-seven governors was appointed whose duty it shall be to ferret out and report to the executive committee all persons selling liquor without a license, the executive committee will then bring action against the accused persons. President Dilcher, of the Lackawanna association, who was largely instrumental in bringing about the joint meeting was made president of the joint organization.

USEFUL INFORMATION. Merchants of This City Directly Interested and Profited. One of the most practical lessons taught by the great Adam Foreguth and Sellie Brothers great consolidation of shows to every community visited by them: Suppose they were to come into this city and attempt to do business without advertising. How much business would they do as compared with what they will do when they come after their heavy advertising? That is a conundrum that may be answered as well as the wise in all things. Now the principle of advertising is always the same. The circus people have their exhibition to sell. They tell what it is in the most attractive manner possible. They do not stint themselves in the matter of advertising. The result is known to all. The same proportionate measure of success would attend the same kind of advertising of any kind of business. It has been long since it was necessary to use any argument with any sort of a successful merchant to induce him to advertise. The only question now is how to advertise the best. How can it be done? Let this be the answer. Go into any city or town and look up the biggest business building and the busiest merchants. It is not necessary for the merchant to have his name on the door for you to know, even if you are a stranger in the city. Turn to the local newspapers and see who occupies the most advertising space in them. Then go back to the biggest business building and read the sign and you will see the same firm name. There are scarcely any exceptions to prove this rule. It is so general throughout the country. This show will be exhibited in this city next Tuesday.

There was considerable changing about among the leaders in The Tribune's Educational Contest yesterday. A. J. Kellerman still holds first place by a substantial margin, but all the rest, from second to ninth place, shifted their positions. Charles Burns of Vandling advanced from fourth place to second and is only 31 points away from first place. Herbert Thompson drops to third place. William Rodriguez goes from sixth to fourth position. Albert Freedman, who was third yesterday, is now fifth, and Maxwell Shepherd jumps from eighth to sixth and John Dempsey from nineteenth to fifteenth place. As indicated by the above table there are seven vacant places ready to be filled by the names of active contestants. As there are thirty-three scholarships offered in this year's Educational Contest there should be at least that many contestants. The entry list is still open. Particulars are printed each day on the fourth page of The Tribune. If these are not sufficiently clear, call at The Tribune office or write to the "Contest Editor," Scranton Tribune, Scranton, Pa.

RARE CRIMINAL ACTION. Wife Arrests Saloon Keeper Who Sold Liquor to Her Husband—He Was an Habitual Drunkard. A criminal action very rare in this county was yesterday brought against Wm. Fish, of Nay Aug, a saloon keeper, by Mrs. Louise Devine, also of Nay Aug. The prosecution is brought under an act of assembly passed in 1854 which makes it a misdemeanor for a licensed saloon keeper to sell intoxicants of any kind to a man of intemperate habits, provided he has been requested not to do so by said intemperate man's wife or blood relatives. The penalty fixed by law for the offense is a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50, or imprisonment for not less than thirty or more than sixty days. Mrs. Devine set forth in the information which she swore out against Fish, before Magistrate Millan, that her husband is an habitual drunkard and that Fish has persisted in selling him liquor despite her repeated requests to him to refrain from so doing. Fish waived a hearing and entered bail for his appearance in court.

An Unequaled Record. PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND. The Only Medicine That Can Point with Pride to True and Marvelous Cures. ITS PRAISES SOUNDED BY ALL CLASSES OF OUR PEOPLE. A Spring Medicine That Quickly Purifies the Blood and Banishes Disease. Paine's Celery Compound can with pride, point to a long and wonderful list of cures effected in this and other lands. In fully ninety cases out of every hundred, it has been successful in overcoming and banishing treacherous and long standing diseases and ailments. The great work of disease banishing and life saving so happily accomplished by Paine's Celery Compound has not been confined to any particular class of people. All ranks and conditions of our population—amongst which are found city toilers, hard working farmers, business men, capitalists, clergymen, lawyers, physicians, and legislators owe their lives and present good health to the curing virtues of Paine's Celery Compound. No other medicine in the world today has been so much talked of, so highly recommended by medical men, so generally indorsed by our best people as Paine's Celery Compound. It truly deserves all the good words spoken in its favor. May is the great month for recuperating and building up the weakened and diseased system. At this time we press upon the ailing, the nervous, the rheumatic, the neuralgic, the dyspeptic, old and young, the necessity of using Paine's Celery Compound. To those who are suffering and despondent owing to the rapid progress of blood troubles, kidney disease, and liver complaint, we say "use the great health giver at once, if you would be speedily restored to health." The virtues peculiar to Paine's Celery Compound are as potent and true for you today as they were a century ago and effective for your friends and neighbors weeks and months ago.

TO CELEBRATE THE TRANSFER. Spanish War Veterans Will Give an Entertainment. Gen. J. P. S. Gobin, Command No. 41, Spanish War Veterans, will celebrate the transfer of the government of the Island of Cuba to the Cuban people in the G. A. R. hall, Tuesday night, May 20. A cordial invitation is extended to all Veterans of the Spanish-American war and of the wars in the Philippines. The G. A. R. Posts of this city will be the guests of the command. Good music and lunch will be furnished. Captain Thomas P. Murphy will be the guest of honor of the evening and will give incidents of his campaign in the Philippines. Addresses will be made by prominent G. A. R. and Spanish war men. Lewis B. Carter, Richard J. Bourke, David Thomas, John Davis and Edwin R. Connelly are in charge of the celebration. A Much Talked-of Improvement. The stir the New Jersey Central's recent announcement made in regard to its hourly trains between New York and Philadelphia was far reaching. Very few cities can boast of such a train schedule and the beauty of it is, that it's easily remembered—a train every hour on the even hour from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. The locomotives, cars and Pullman cars are the most modern, the roadbed is rock ballasted, and as only hard coal is used there is no smoke or cinders. Every train runs direct to Reading Terminal, Philadelphia, without change and many of them cover the distance in two hours. The Reading route by which the Philadelphia line is often known, is not only a short way to Philadelphia, but it is likewise the scenic route. This service goes into effect on May 18, but in no way does it impair the fast and elegant service of the Royal Blue line, which will run independently of the Philadelphia line.
