ITCHING HUMORS

SPEEDY CURE TREATMENT PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply CUTICURA OINTMENT freely to allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and lastly take CUTI-CURA RESOLVENT PILLS, to cool and cleanse the blood. This pure, sweet, and wholesome treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep, and points to a speedy, permanent, and economical cure of the most torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, and scaly skin, scalp, and blood humours, eczemas, rashes, and irritations, from infancy to age, with loss of hair, when all else fails.

Assisted by CUTICURA OINTMENT, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings, and chafings, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Millions of Women use CUTICURA SOAP in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and exceriations, for too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers.

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune,

Honesdale, May 19 .-- Asa Bryant has entered the law office of Attorney Peter

J. Hoff for the study of law. A four-horse tally-ho coaching party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Beal-leston, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Price and Mrs. Potter Clark, of Hazleton; Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Wentz and Mrs. A. L. Baker, of Scranton, stopped at the Allen house Sunday night. They left Monday morning for Milford, en route for Philadelphia.

To meet the demands at that beautiful summer resort, Beech lake, a large building has just been completed, containing twenty-three sleeping rooms, The house will accommodate fifty guests, and has been newly furnished throughout. The house, which will be known as the Beech Lake house, is now open for guests, with Hiram D. Wood as landlord.

A class of twelve young people were confirmed at Grace Episcopal church Sunday evening by Bishop Talbot, D.

The bill posters of Pennsylvania will meet in convention at Reading, Pa., May 23 and 24. Manager Silverstone will represent this section of the state. Hawley and White Mills are expected to become members.

A large attendance at the Base Ball association entertainment in the opera house this (Tuesday) evening will insure a season of base ball for Honesdale. The boys are working hard to please. They expect and desire a full Freeman's full orchestra and local talent of all the different departments are contributors.

Andrew P. Bedford, of Scranton, was B. Honesdale visitor on Saturday. Charles Sutton, of Duluth, Minn. came here to attend the funeral of his Sister, Miss Clara T. Sutton. Loren Gale, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has been spending a few days with Honesdale friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley M. Gardner and

Perry, of Scranton, spent Sunday

on, Perry, of Schangeris, The funeral services of Miss Clara T. Sutton were largely attended at her late home Saturday afternoon. The large number of beautiful floral pieces betokened the high esteem in which the deceased was held. They came from her Sunday school class, scholars of the High school, the former graduating classes, teachers of the public schools, and others. A memorial service for the deceased was held in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, in which the congregations of the Methodist and Baptist churches united. The church was packed with mourning friends from all the churches and classes of Honesdale people. Rev. Mr. Swift was assisted in the opening services by Rev. C. L. Percy and Rev. G. A. Place. Following this, Hon. F. B. Kimble, a school director, read, on behalf of the directors, a beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased. Rev. William H. Swift followed, giving a brief history of and touching on the noble qualities and beautiful Christian life of Miss Sutton. Seated together in the center of the church were the school directors the present teachers, pupils of the High school, the present graduating class and the High school alumni,

BRADFORD COUNTY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Towanda, May 19 .- A building has been leased where the manufacture of automobiles will begin in June. The Business Men's association are doing a noble work in offering inducements to several industries to locate here. This plant will be moved from Buffalo. A lodge of the Central Federation of Labor has just been organized at Waverly with the following officers:

President, G. A. Rickers; vice president, H. S. Lindsay; secretary, F. Johnmer; treasurer, J. J. Buley; guide, T. Layton; guardian, E. L. Knise; rustees, E. R. Gilbert, E. Gordon and D. Mollaly. Mrs. J. P. Christenson, of Brooklyn,

N. Y., while passing through Sayre on a Lehigh Valley train, was stricken with apoplexy. She is now in a serious condition at the Packer hospital. Much interest is again being aroused over the prospects of the proposed new ailroad through this county to Binghamton from Williamsport. Last week the Barclay's superintendent, S. T. Hoyt, of this place in company with C. S. Horton, of Williamsport, made a carriage trip over the line for the purpose of looking over the ground in the nterest of the Binghamton, Towanda and Western railroad. Mr. Horton is a heavy stockholder of the Barclay cailroad, and Mr. Hoyt was formerly chief engineer of the Fall Brook railroad. The Barclay road has lately peen rebuilt and extensions are being nade westward as fast as possible which will reach large lumber and coal lands. It is believed that a road could easily be built from Towanda to strike this valley, either at Apalachin or

Vestal, the most difficult point being

o cross the water shed near Warren

Center. The Barclay people hope to

"The Climbers," a new and original comedy by Clyde Fitch, which, as produced last season at the Bijou theater, New York, proved to be the ing a run of 200 nights, will be seen for the first time here at the Lyceum on Saturday afteroon and night.

The play owes its success to the perfection of production, to the brilliant collection of players, and to the careful attention to detail in all matters. The story is one of sorrow, devotion death, Mrs. Sterling, the leading feminine figure of the play, learns that her husband is connected with dishonest money dealings. She makes heroic efforts to save him, assisted by her husband' friend, Warden. Love develops between Mrs. Sterling and the latter, but is mastered. Serious as its theme would appear the play contain many illuminating bits of clever comedy, for nished by the climbing tactics of an element desirous of fashionable distinction. The dressing of the women throughout the play is notable and the scenic equipment gives the proper ide of luxurious good taste.
