Disadvantages of Trip on the Celtic. Described by Scrantonians Who Were Among the Eight Hundred Passengers on the Big Boat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Jones, Miss Helen Jones, Mrs. J. G. Shepherd and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Brooks have returned from their four months' trip to the Orient and across Europe.

The Celtic party had a delightful afternoon, although with one accident. The party admitted that traveling en masse has its disadvantages.

The disadvantages consisted largely in the delay experienced whenever landing was effected. The passengers could be routed out at 6 o'clock in the morning, and before the entire ship load could be landed in the small boats it would be far past 10 o'clock.

GREETING TO THE NEW CUBA

SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR VETERANS CELEBRATED.

Appropriate Exercises Conducted Last Night in Memorial Hall in Honor of the New Republic, Which Was Born Yesterday—Civil War Veterans and One Old Survivor of the Mexican War Were Present.

The new-born republic of Cuba yesterday took her place among the nations of the world, and in celebration of this event the men who volunteered their services to the United States in the recent war which marked the close of Spanish dominion over that beautiful Isle of the sea, met last night in Memorial hall and gathered around them the men who fought for the preservation of the Union forty years ago.

ABOUT THE PHILIPPINES. Captain Thomas P. Murphy, of Company C, Thirteenth regiment, who served for two years as a volunteer in the Philippines, gave a most interesting talk, in which he recounted many of his experiences in these new island possessions of the United States.

MEXICAN WAR VETERAN. Dr. Heath, the only veteran of the Mexican war living in this city at the present time, made a brief address, and was loudly applauded.

On the occasion of the twentieth anniversary of the Spanish-American war, the members of the Spanish-American War Veterans, and the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, attended in a body. The affair was conducted under the auspices of General Gobin command, Spanish-American War Veterans, and Colonel Monies posts, of the Grand Army of the Republic, attended in a body.
