

WEST SCRANTON

Wedding of Alfred Cox and Miss Jane Harris Last Evening—Funeral of Miss Margaret Hoskins—Other News Notes.

A very pretty wedding occurred last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Coyne, 113 North Everett avenue, when the latter's brother, Alfred Cox, was united with Miss Jane A. Harris, of Darwin, England, by the Rev. Edward James McHenry, rector of St. David's Episcopal church.

The happy couple were unattended, save by two little flower girls, Misses Margaret and Hannah Davis, and entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Prof. T. Davis. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends of the contracting parties.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Jacob, the 14-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. B. S. Sutton, of North Main avenue, left yesterday for Dorchester, where he will spend the summer with his grandfather, Dr. Sutton.

After congratulations were extended, the newly wedded couple and the guests sat down to a bounteous repast, served by Mrs. Coyne and her assistants. The bride was becoming attired in a gown of blue tulle and carried a bouquet of white bridal roses.

Funeral of Mrs. Hoskins.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Margaret Hoskins were conducted yesterday afternoon at the home of deceased daughter, Mrs. Noah Lewis, 1332 Lafayette street.

Events of This Evening.

The young people of the Jackson street Baptist church will conduct their strawberry festival in the dining rooms of the church this evening. Ice cream will also be for sale.

Beware of a Cough.

Now is the time to get rid of that cough, for if you let it hang on no one can tell what the result may be. Others have been cured of their coughs very quickly by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

The funeral of the late Frank Reimer, whose death occurred last Saturday, took place yesterday morning with impressive services. Hundreds of friends and acquaintances viewed the remains prior to 9 a. m., when the casket was closed and removed to St. Mary's church on River street, where a mass of requiem was celebrated.

COURT MATTERS.

Common Pleas Court. When the evidence for the plaintiff was all in yesterday in the case of E. Ringold Deputy against M. M. Spencer it appeared that the proof did not come up to the allegations made in the declaration in the case. An effort was made to amend the declaration, the defendant pleaded surprise and the case was continued.

GREEN RIDGE.

The ladies' chorus of Green Ridge, under the leadership of Mrs. Maxwell Chapman, will give a concert, June 2, at the Green Ridge Baptist church at 8 o'clock. Miss Grace Spencer and Miss Eleanor Reynolds will be the soloists, and a full orchestra will accompany. Tickets at the low price of 25 cents.

any of the accounts, the payments therein made were approved.

In the estate of S. P. Stevens, certain preferred claims were allowed, and distribution awarded to others pro rata. In the estate of George Philip Kirst, the parties in interest agreed that certain articles of personal property should be awarded to each, in lieu of the cash distribution, and this agreement is approved.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Great interest is being manifested in the coming of the celebrated Altona Hatch Electro-Musical company, which will appear at the North Main Avenue tabernacle, tomorrow evening, under the auspices of the Institute. This is the sixth annual tour of this company and during that time they have appeared in all the large cities throughout the eastern states.
