

WEST SCRANTON

Two Men Waylaid and Assaulted on Luzerne Street—Sudden Death of Two Residents—E. C. W. Tally-ho Party.

Lon Honshock, of Taylor, and a companion named William Kutcher, also of that borough, were waylaid and assaulted about 10 o'clock Tuesday night on Luzerne street, while returning home from a visit with the former's brother in Kelly's patch.

At 11 o'clock the same night Honshock aroused Alderman Kellow from his sleep, and caused a warrant to be issued for Daniel Davis, his son William, and Christmas Randall, who he charged with assault. The victim presented a very dilapidated front when he appeared before the alderman.

The warrants were served on the defendants yesterday morning, and at the hearing they alleged that Honshock had insulted one of their number. They could not prove this allegation, and the alderman held the father in $200 bail, the son in $300 and Randall in $500 for their appearance at court.

Mrs. Davis, the wife and mother of the accused, was also arrested at the instance of Andrew Honshock, a brother of one of the victims, charged with complicity in the assault, but there was not sufficient evidence to hold her, and she was discharged.

Walter Van Wurt was also arranged before Alderman Kellow yesterday at the instance of Sarah Navin, of 531 Gordon street, whose face he threatened to disfigure. He was held in $200 bail for court.

John Dewes' Sudden Death.

John Dewes, a well-known and highly respected resident of 221 North Sumner avenue, died suddenly at his home yesterday morning at 7 o'clock. Deceased had been a sufferer for a number of years from Bright's disease, but had not been illing to any particular extent until three weeks ago. Since then, however, he had suffered several attacks, which finally culminated in his death.

Mr. Dewes was born in Cornwall, England, 58 years ago, and had been a resident of this city about thirty-five years. He was prominently identified with the Jackson street Baptist church, and had been one of its deacons for a number of years. He was also a member of the Knights of Malta, and prior to his illness had worked for many years in the Oxford mine.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters and three sons, namely, Mrs. H. D. Swarts, of Dalton; Mrs. David T. Evans and Frederick Dawes, of Hackensack, N. J.; Stephen and Robert Dawes, of this city. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning at the residence.

Red Men Will Attend Church.

A sermon on Redmanism, or the motto of the order, "Freedom, Friendship and Charity," will be preached next Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, by Brother Edward Howell, at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church.

All Red Men in the City are Invited.

All Red Men in the city are invited to attend the services, with Panoaka tribe, No. 141. The tribe will meet at their hall at 5:30 o'clock, and proceed to the church in a body. All Red Men are invited to go with the tribe.

Annual Strawberry Festival.

The members of classes Nos. 14 and 19, of the Jackson street Baptist Sunday school, taught by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Davis, held their annual strawberry festival in the dining rooms of the church last evening, where a large number of patrons were served.

Another Sudden Death.

Martin Harrison, of 155 Cameron avenue, died very suddenly at his home last night. Coroner Saltry was notified of his death and will make an investigation today. Deceased is survived by his wife and four children, Patrick, John, Mary and Mrs. Anthony McNulty. The funeral announcement will be made later. Pittston papers, please copy.

Events of This Evening.

The "Red Side" of Camp 175, Patriotic Order Sons of America, are requested to meet in their hall this evening, as some matters of importance to them will be considered.

General News Notes.

Invitations were issued yesterday for the wedding of Samuel Mackay, of Summit Hill, Pa., and Miss Phoebe Engler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Engler, of 150 Butler street, Dunmore. The ceremony will take place at the home of the latter's parents at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, June 12.

TO YOUNG LADIES.

From the Treasurer of the Young People's Christian Temperance Association, Elizabeth Caine, Fond du Lac, Wis.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I want to tell you and all the young ladies of the country, how grateful I am to you for all the benefits I have received from your Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for eight months from suppressed menstruation, and it effected my entire system until I became weak and debilitated, and at times felt that I had a hundred aches in as many places. I only used the Compound for a few weeks, but it wrought a change in me which I felt from the very beginning. I have been very regular since, have no pains, and find that my entire body is as if it were renewed. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to everybody."

MISS ELIZABETH CAINE, 69 W. Division St., Fond du Lac, Wis.—$1000 profit if above testimonial is not genuine.

At such a time the greatest aid to nature is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It prepares the young system for the coming change, and is the surest reliance for woman's ills of every nature.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all young women who are ill to write her for free advice. Address Lynn, Mass.

The church last evening, where a large number of patrons were served. The young ladies in charge of the tables were: Misses Elizabeth Davis, Esther Hughes, Addie Lewis, Bessie Beddoe, Annie Thomas, Jennie Gleason, Sadie Davis, Margaret Griffiths, Ida Hughes, Jennie Jones, Mary Jenkins and Elizabeth Fox.

Two Meetings.

NORTH SCRANTON

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. THOMAS D. JONES.

Services were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. R. S. Jones—Reception Tonight in the Presbyterian Church—Benjamin Bowen, of Edna Avenue, Tended a Surprise Party by His Friends Last Evening. Match Game of Hand Ball to be Played This Afternoon.

The remains of the widow of the late Thomas D. Jones, of Parker street, were laid to rest in the Washburn street cemetery, yesterday afternoon. At 2 o'clock services were conducted at the home by Rev. R. S. Jones, of the Welsh Congregational church of which the deceased had been a member for the last fifteen years. Dr. Jones spoke feelingly of the deceased as a good woman and an active church worker.

Benjamin Bowen, of Edna avenue, was pleasantly surprised by a few of his friends at his home last evening. Singing and dancing, with the usual party diversions, were indulged in until past one o'clock, when refreshments were served.

Surprise Party.

Among those present were the Misses Bessie Evans, Margaret Willis, Alice Leonard, Anna Davis, Nellie Tilson, Bessie Eterly, Mame Jones, Jennie Jenkins, Marion Lewis, and Messrs. Lewis Perry, Richard Sharples, William Reese, James Richardson, David Richards, Thomas Morgan, George Coyle, John Richards and William Bowen.

Reception Tonight.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

The Friends of Christ Lutheran church, on Cedar avenue, met in social session at the church basement last evening, and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. There was a large attendance, and after a good programme of vocal and instrumental music had been listened to, an adjournment was made to the upper rooms, where an appetizing repast was served. The arrangements were carried out under the supervision of the pastor, Rev. Jacob White.

Alderman John Lentz, who fills in his spare moments writing the insurance for several companies, has formed a partnership with Michael G. Langgan, with whom he formerly worked at the Lackawanna steel mills. The judicial duties of the alderman have increased so much during the past twelve months that he has no time for outdoor work as insurance agent. Mr. Langgan will give his entire time to canvassing, while Mr. Lentz will do the office work.

The Warlike base ball team held its annual social and ball in Workmen's hall, on Alder street, last evening. The hall was well filled and a programme of twenty numbers was gone through, music being furnished by Rennie's orchestra.

Dr. Schley's Lung Healing Balm is guaranteed to cure all coughs. "No cure, no pay." For sale by all druggists.

Charles Tuttle was arrested by Special Officer Joseph Greenberger yesterday, on charges preferred by his wife. He was brought before Alderman Lentz, but was too intoxicated to be given a hearing. He was remanded to the station house and will be given a hearing today.

The Jumper Mannechor met for rehearsal last evening in Germania hall. The society is making good and satisfactory progress with the prize song to be sung at the new army May 30.

Michael Albrecht, of Hickory street, is seriously ill.

The Knights of Malta will meet in weekly session at Hartman's hall, on Pittston avenue, tomorrow evening.

A baby girl has come to gladden the home of Peter Neals, on Willow street.

Dunmore.

The funeral of the late Edward Conway took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. A requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Mary's church by Rev. M. B. Donlan. A large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Mt. Carmel cemetery. The pall bearers were Thomas Grimes, Richard Grimes, Patrick Conway, James Conway, Michael Doud and James McDonald.

The little son of Borough Clerk H. B. Gilligan was killed by a horse yesterday, while playing in the fields near his home. His face was badly cut and fears are entertained that he may lose the sight of one eye as the result.

Michael Whelan, of Wilkes-Barre, was a visitor in town yesterday.

Obituary.

JOSEPH CONNOR, aged 25, died yesterday at 5:30 p. m., at the home of his mother, 618 Washington avenue, after an illness of eight weeks of pneumonia. He was employed in the Durland shoe factory at Honesdale. Surviving him, besides his mother, are a brother and four sisters, William, Bridget, Angelina, Rose and Helen, the last named, of New York.

FRANCIS W. DOWNEY, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Downey, died at 72 Orchard street yesterday. The funeral notice will appear later.

Beware of a Cough.

Now is the time to get rid of that cough, for if you let it hang on no one can tell what the result may be. Others have been cured of their coughs very quickly by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. A. J. Da Costa, of Gainesville, Fla., says: "A friend of mine, a painter of this town, who was nearly dead with a cough, was cured by one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He also recommended it to a lady here, who was suffering from grippe and a severe cough. She gratified him by trying it, and was cured by one small bottle." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Dyspepsia and Liver Disease Cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"I was weak, nervous and dizzy, with a fainting sensation when walking," writes Jesse Childers, Esq., of Sumner, Sullivan Co., Tenn. "Could not walk any distance; always felt bad after eating; felt as though something was sticking in my throat; always uneasy in stomach. Doctored with three physicians but they did not relieve me. I grew worse and used everything I could buy, but was nearly ready to give up and then some one told me that Dr. Pierce's medicine was good, so I began taking his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I have taken seven bottles of this now and am as stout as ever, and eating and drinking as ever before. I worked all summer and this winter as much as any one. My capacity for work and nervous dyspepsia of which your medicine has cured me. In September 1891 my weight was about 65 pounds, now it is 155. Please accept my sincere thanks."

FOR BABY'S SKIN

SCALP AND HAIR

Something for Mothers to Think About EVERY CHILD born into the world with an inherited or early developed tendency to distressing, disfiguring humours of the skin, scalp, and blood, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz., THE CUTICURA TREATMENT.

Warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, gentle anointments with CUTICURA OINTMENT, to instantly allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, to be followed in the severer cases by mild doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT PILLS (see below), to cool and cleanse the blood, are all that can be desired for the alleviation of the suffering of skin-tortured infants and children and the comfort of worn-out, worried mothers. A single set costing $1.00 is often sufficient to cure when the best physicians fail.

Millions of Women Use Cuticura Soap

Assisted by CUTICURA OINTMENT, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itching, and chafing, in the form of baths for annoying irritations and inflammations, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for urticative weaknesses, and for many mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, hair, and surgery.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT PILLS (Chocolate Coated) are prepared to meet the wants of women and children, and are pure, sweet, tasteless, and odorless. They are beyond question the most successful skin and blood purifiers and humour cures yet compounded, and especially appeal to all having the care of children.

CUTICURA Remedies are sold throughout the world: Soap, 25c; Ointment, 50c; Pills, 25c. British Depot: 7, St. Charles Street, London. French Depot: 1, Rue de la Paix, Paris. For Sale: DUNN AND CHAM. CO., Sole Props., Boston, U. S. A. "All about the Skin, Scalp, and Hair," free.
