TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Tunkhannock, May 22.-The water was turned on at the public drinking fountain on the corner of Tioga and Warren streets on Thursday.

There will be an ice cream social in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal church this Friday evening, given by class 12 of the Sunday school. Admission, 15 cents.

Tunkhannock coal dealers have not a single pound of coal which can be bought for love or money, and those of our people who had not provided a supply against the strike season, are obliged to resort to the use of wood and the oil and gas stove in order to do their cooking. The dealers hope to get a supply of bituminous coal later.

The condemned bridge across the Susquehanna river at this place, together with the old toll house at the North End and the stone in the piers and abutments, will be sold at public outery on Saturday at 2.30 p. m.

TAYLOR.

The Reds defeated the West Scranton Alerts in an interesting game of ball, by a score of 10 to 3. The home team started to do things in the first inning. Hayes commenced with a three base hit and scored on a neat hit by Glynn. The home team got seven runs over the rubber before they were retired. The Alerts tried a new pitcher in the second inning, who held the ocals well in hand until the final inning, when they took another batting rally and added three more scores. Reed handled the sphere for the home team and handled himself like a veteran, holding the visitors down to 4 hits. His support was of the best. The feature of the game was the sensational catch of R. Watkins, center-fielder of the home team. The score by innings:

Keystone Dramatic Company.

The Keystone Dramatic company will present "For Home and Honor" as their opening bill at the Academy next week. It is presented for the first time by this organization at popular prices. The strength of the company, the excellence of the specialties, and the richness of the costumes are all factors which the management wish to leave for a "first night" pproval.

Other cities have claimed that the presentations by this company are the most perfect ever attempted by a repertoire company, as the productions are given entire. Miss Gertrude Shipman and Law-rence B. McGill are at the head of the organization.

"The Vagabonds." Commencing with matinee on Monday afternoon, and continuing for three days. the "Vagabonds" will be the attraction at the Star.
